What Does It Mean?

"100 Doses One Dollar" means simply that Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most economical medicine to buy, because it gives more for the money than any other preparation. Each bottle contains 100 doses, and will average to last a month, while other preparations, taken according to directions, are gone in a week. Therefore, be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier. D

No Idle Boast.

We make no idle boast when we state that our "La Cadena" and "La Flora," Perfecto size (packed 25 in a box) is equal in quality and workmanship to any imported Perfecto, at from $20 to $25 per hundred. S. DAVIS & SONS, Montreal. 1 w

IS YOUR NAME ON THE LIST?

Let every man who earns $300 a year, every new-comer to the city, every man who has moved since 1st January, see to it that his name is on the list now being made up. Residents in wards 1, 2, 3 and 4 can register at Oddfellows' block any day between 2 and 5, and between 8 and 10 p.m. Residents in East London (ward 5) can get their names on the lists by attending at Robertson's stationery store, Dundas street, any evening between 7 and 9 o'clock. This list has nothing to do with the assessment, and anyway no man is assessed for income who has under $700 a year. If any one's name is left off this preliminary list, it will be impossible to get it there unless he attends the court and swears it on.

Don't debilitate your system with warm baths or political discussions, but take your baths as invigoratingly cold as you can and leave politics for cooler weather.

Hid the Money in a Stable.

Mrs. Ann Meston, of South London, had quite an experience Thursday. After paying a drayman for delivering some wood, which she had bought from a Talbot street merchant, she returned her purse as she thought to her pocket. She had gone but a short distance, however, before she missed it, and turning back accused a drayman by the name of Wm. McBride, living near the toll-gate, of having it, as he was near at the time, and she had seen him act rather suspiciously. Although he said he knew nothing of it he would not show the contents of his pockets. He then made his way to the dray stand on York street, where he left his rig and, it is said, went over to Howie's hotel stables, where the purse containing $23 was afterwards found. Detective Phair looked into the case, and a warrant was sworn out for McBride's arrest. He appeared at the Police Court this morning to answer the charge, and pleaded guilty. He has a wife and family to support, and as he has hitherto borne a good reputation he was allowed to go on suspended sentence.

He Was Not Faithful.

The case of Edward Dyer, the young man arrested here on a charge of non-support of his wife, was brought to an end, for the present at least, at the Police Court yesterday. The prisoner's legal wife, Eva Dyer, appeared in the box, and in her arms a pretty little babe, 4 months old. They were married by the Rev. Mr. Hass, as Detroit, last December and since that time they have not lived together, although Dyer supported her for three weeks, giving her $9. This was about the middle of January. The remainder of the time Mrs. Dyer has been dependent on her sister, while since the middle of last July, she has seen nothing of her heartless husband. At this time he quietly skipped to Canada with a girl 16 years of age, Kittie Kramer. His wife has always been willing to live with him, but although he earned $10 a week, and sometimes more, he would neither live with her nor support her. He was found guilty of the charge preferred against him, and was remanded for sentence for one week. He was bound over to live with and support his wife in two sureties of $100 each. Mrs. Dyer is a young woman bright and intelligent in appearance, and appears to have no hard feelings towards her faithless spouse. Dyer seemed to be indifferent.

Jack—Did she sit on you? Cholly—No. Her mother was in the room, but she let me hold her hand."

Colonel Polk, the aggressive leader of the Farmers' Alliance, is only 35 years of age, and he has gray hair and a white beard.
