That is all right, Mars, remarks the Boston Herald. Go on signalling, but as we don't understand the cipher, it won't help us much. What your inhabitants ought to do is to send a special messenger over with a key to the heliographs. It would be a fine way to celebrate 1900. There is ample time, however; don't hurry.

How They Qualify

The Property Upon Which the Aldermen-Elect Are Eligible.

Must Be a $1,000 Owner or a $2,000 Leaseholder.

To be an alderman, a man must qualify as an owner of property assessed for $1,000, or as a leaseholder of property assessed for $2,000 or over. He may also qualify as part owner and part leaseholder. If he is assessed for $500 of his own property, he may qualify if he is in addition a leaseholder of premises assessed for $1,000.

The majority of the new aldermen of London qualify as owners. Ald. Stevely qualifies as a leaseholder, and Ald. Cooper, Ald. Hunt, Ald. Turner, Ald. McCallum and Ald. Dreaney as part owners and part leaseholders. The properties upon which the members of the council qualify are:

Mayor Little—On his residence, Dufferin avenue, and on lot 11 on the north side of York street.

Ald. Johnston—Owner of lots 1 and 2, north side South street, and property on Talbot street and Hyman street.

A PIONEER'S DEATH.

His Blacksmith Shop Stood on the Site of the Postoffice.

The death of Robert Abernethy, aged 82 years, one of the pioneers of London, occurred in Guadalupe, California, on Dec. 29. Deceased will be well remembered by old residents of this community. He was a brother of Mrs. James Percival, of 237 Queen's avenue. Born in Belfast, Ireland, he came to Canada in 1834, and learned the trade of blacksmithing in Toronto. He settled in London four years later, and for a number of years owned a blacksmith shop where the postoffice now stands. His brother-in-law, Mr. James Percival, worked there with him until 1854. Shortly after this Mr. Abernethy sold the postoffice property to Hon. John Carling, who sold it to the Government.

The subject of this sketch was married in 1840 to Miss Travis, of this place. About 35 years ago he moved to Milwaukee, Wis., with his family, and afterwards lived in several western towns before settling in Guadalupe. He had been ailing for some time, but his death occurred very suddenly. Deceased leaves a large family. Mrs. James Shields, of Adelaide, is also a sister.

The Finance Group.

A letter received on Wednesday from Mr. Joseph Powell, the engineer at Rossland of the London Gold Mining and Development Company, Limited, says that the development work on this proposition is progressing most favorably. The quartz is becoming better and better mineralized as the shaft descends, and there is every prospect of a rich strike of pay ore in a few days. The London Gold Mining and Development Company holds a controlling interest in the Finance Company, and it is expected that the stock in the parent company, now offered at 25 cents, will be raised to 35 cents on Feb. 1, or sooner. The stock is in demand, and intending investors are recommended not to delay purchasing. 10c

ACQUITTED OF MURDER.

Ingersoll, Jan. 7.—Ed. Underwood, the man who was arrested and extradited to Houston, Texas, on a charge of murder, has been acquitted. The chief witness for the prosecution at the last moment refused to talk. Underwood is still held on a charge of highway robbery. Chief Skirving loses the reward offered for his capture.

Sensational Developments in the Ballot-Box Stuffing Case.

Winnipeg, Jan. 7.—A Portage la Prairie dispatch says that Mr. Nat. Boyd, Conservative M. P. for Macdonald, appeared in the election court there this forenoon, and confessed that he owed his election to bribery and corruption by agents. If the case had gone to trial colossal frauds would have been revealed.

At Gladstone, G. W. Saunders, one of the numerous deputy returning officers under arrest, was on trial. James Robinson, poll clerk, swore that his duties were conducted in a proper manner. Mr. Clark, the prosecuting counsel, produced nine ballots marked for Rutherford and Braithwaite in excess of the number in the ballot book, and Robinson swore the initials thereon were those of Saunders, the accused deputy. Witness testified that the ballots in the box exceeded those in the poll book by one, and, by mutual consent, a spoiled ballot was destroyed, to even matters up.

SUBSTITUTED BALLOTS.

Then came another witness, Freeborn, a canvasser for Boyd, who testified that he received a bunch of 30 blank ballots from a man named Brown. Ten of these he gave to Saunders, the accused, with instructions as to how to substitute them in the box for Rutherford and Braithwaite ballots. On the night of the election, Saunders gave witness the nine ballots exhibited in court, marked for the defeated candidate, and said there was one spoiled ballot, which had been destroyed. The accused said he had made a good job of it.

Election Trial Bill of Particulars Lodged Today.

(Special to The Advertiser, per C.P.R.)

Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 7.—The bill of particulars in the Winnipeg election case, which was filed this afternoon, contains over 100 counts. They show that wholesale bribery and corruption were resorted to.

It is said here that Hugh John Macdonald is so disgusted with the state of affairs, as shown in the bill of particulars filed, that he may not stand his trial, but throw up the whole thing. The trial, if it comes off, will take place on Jan. 15.

Hissed the Earl.

Wind-Up of the Russell-Scott Libel Suit.

London, Jan. 7.—When the hearing of the libel suit brought against Lady Selina Scott, John Cockerton, an engineer, and Wm. Aylott, a valet, by her son-in-law, Earl Russell, was resumed at the Central Criminal Court this morning, counsel for the defense announced that the plea of justification was withdrawn, and that the defence agreed upon a verdict of guilty. Sentence was postponed until tomorrow.

It is the general impression here that Lady Scott, Cockerton and Aylott will be heavily sentenced, for Justice Hawkins intimateid that it must not be supposed that because the case was abruptly ended the punishment would be merely nominal. Earl Russell was hissed by the crowd outside the court.

Fever and Ague and Bilious Derangements are positively cured by the use of Parmelee's Pills. They not only cleanse the stomach and bowels from all bilious matter, but they open the excretory vessels, causing them to pour copious effusions from the blood into the bowels, after which the corrupted mass is thrown out by the natural passage of the body. They are used as a general family medicine with the best results.
