Poetry.

WHAT IS HEAVEN!

Say what is Heaven? The palace of the King
Who reigns omnipotent supreme o'er all;
The great high throne of Deity, where sing
The saints and angels all around, and fall
In humble adoration.

It is the better country far above,
The promised land where all things are possed
Where those redeemed for ever dwell in love,
Inheriting the portion of the bless'd
Rejoicing in the Giver.

It is the holy place most pure, within
The azure curtain of the starry sky,
Where fully sanctified and free from sin,
The soul in sweetest fellowship draws nigh
To Him who is most holy.

It is the paradise of bliss, where more
Than Eden's beauties and delights are found,
And none of all the full and varied store,
Of human woes, which mar this sin cursed
ground,
Are felt or ever enter.

It is, we know, the presence of our God,
Seen, felt, enjoyed without a single cloud
To dim the splendour shining all abroad, [crowd
And brightening onward for the ransomed
An endless day of glory.

It is the home, the home, the rest, the joy,
Of pilgrims of the cross whose course is run;
There's was the faith that nothing could destroy;
With Christ they are, their reign of bliss begun;
They shine as stars forever.

If such be Heav'n, 'tis surely, above all,
A place, an object, worthy to be sought,
By us who know that shortly we must fall,
Bereft of earthly things which come by nought;
'T is time to live for Heaven.

A NEW SYSTEM OF MODERN GEOGRAPHY, PRINCIPALLY DESIGNED FOR USE IN COLONIAL SCHOOLS.
COMPILED BY
James Paterson, L. L. D.

AS an elementary work very great care has been taken to avoid two very common evils—that of extreme brevity on the one hand, and of too great prolixity on the other. As a Class Book for British Colonial Schools it is certainly unequalled, being the only one ever got up expressly for their use. It is printed on good paper, from a clear and distinct type, and substantially bound, for the astonishing low price of Five Shillings.

CITY CLOTHING and General Outfitting Mart,
South side of the Market Square.
JOHN ANDERSON

HAS received per late arrivals, a large assortment of CLOTHS, Trimmings, Fur, Caps and every other article connected, suitable for his Trade, which is too numerous to particularize in the columns of a newspaper, direct from the Manufacturers, and having made up a great part of the Cloth into

WINTER CLOTHING,

suitable for the Gent, the Farmer, the Mechanic the Labourer, and the Seafaring Man; all of which he is now selling off at such low prices for Cash, as he considers a nimble sirpence better than a slow shilling, that is impossible he can be

UNDERSOLD!

And if it's any criterion to judge by, the subscriber has sold and is selling more clothing than any other store in the city.

P. S.—Parties desirous of having their Clothes made to order, can have them done so expeditiously and in a superior style, as the subscriber has in his employment a foreman who cuts in the VAMPOO system—a certain method of ensuring a good fit—and keeps none but first rate Workmen in his concern.

☞ A further supply is expected per Marshall Bennett from London. Nov. 21

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF
Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life,
THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR
Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Consumption.

THE most celebrated and infallible remedy for Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and every form of Pulmonary Consumption, is the HUNGARIAN BALSAM OF LIFE, discovered by that eminent medical chemist, Dr. Buchan, of London, England, and extensively known as the 'Great English Remedy.'

☞ It has been tested for upwards of seven years in Great Britain and on the continent of Europe, where it is universally considered the great and only remedy for this awful malady, and is now introduced to the public under the immediate superintendence of the inventor. Within three years it has been distributed from Maine to Florida, and from Canada to Wisconsin, and its effects are every where alike ASTONISHING AND TRIUMPHANT.

As a preventive medicine, and an antidote to the consumptive tendencies of the climate, it is invaluable. As a remedy for severe and obstinate coughs, Inflammation of the Lungs, Croup, &c. it is unrivaled. But the Proprietor is so confident of the merit of this great remedy, in the worst forms of consumption, that he prefers to have it used by the DYING INVALID rather than by persons afflicted with some simple and less dangerous disorder of the throat and lungs:—this may seem strong language, but it is the result of experience in thousands of cases, sustained by the most intelligent and unimpeachable testimony. It is not pronounced an infallible remedy in all cases, but it is THE MOST INFALLIBLE remedy known to the civilized world. It is the best preventive of hereditary consumption—it is the best defender against the influences of climate—it is the best remedy for incipient consumption—and it is the great and only remedy for that fearful softening of the lungs—inflammation of the membrane, and tuberculous decay, which are the last effects of that dreadful scourge, and which are erroneously supposed to be beyond the reach of medical aid;—the agent or proprietors of other medicines dare not claim for their preparations a power like this; they know that in no case have such effects been produced:—the grand object and purpose of the common 'remedies' is simply to give relief—not to cure: this is easily done by an intelligent Physician or Druggist; but while dallying with these delusive compounds, the patient rapidly declines, and every day places him farther and farther beyond the reach of hope.

Such is not the case with the Hungarian Balsam. It is always salutary in its effects—never injurious. It is not an opiate—has not a tonic—it is not a mere expectorant. It is not intended to lull the invalid into a fatal security. It is a great remedy—a grand healing and curative compound; the great and only remedy which medical science and skill has yet produced for the treatment of this hitherto uncontrollable malady. It is in fact the best remedy in the world!

[From the John Bull, newspaper, London.]

There is certainly some mysterious and occult virtue in the famous "Hungarian Balsam of Life," which the medical faculty are unable to discover, or Dr. Buchan would not be permitted for so many years to enjoy the magnificent monopoly of the treatment and cure of Consumption in Great Britain. No satisfactory analysis of this famous compound has ever, to our knowledge, been offered to the public.

To be sold by Private Bargain.

ALL that large and extensive MILL PROPERTY, situated about a mile and a half from the mouth of the Nashwaak, nearly opposite Fredericton and consisting of one Mill, containing six saws in single Gates; with a GRIST MILL, in good order, driving two pair of stones.

The Saw Mills are capable of containing as many Gangs as there are now single Saws which could be substituted at little cost; they are in perfect order and some of the Gangs could be driven throughout the entire year, as there are always several of the Saws kept going throughout the entire Winter; and the Grist Mill has the same advantage. The Dwellings are perfect and complete order, having been completed at very great expence, and runs entirely across the river Nashwaak thus securing the whole waters of the river, for the driving of the Mills.

Connected with the Mills there is a fine large Store, well adapted for the business of the country, and a Blacksmith's Shop, and a good Cottage and Garden attached, well suited for the manager of the Mills besides a number of Houses suitable for the Workmen at the Mills.

There is also a tract of Land on the Eastern side of the river, containing 500 acres, and about 200 acres on the western side, the latter embracing the Holybrooke Farm, and the whole highly capable of cultivation, and precluding any interference by other establishments on the river. These valuable Properties will be sold along with the Mills, and reasonable accommodation will be given to the purchaser. There can scarcely be found within this Province such a valuable Water privilege, and it is therefore well deserving the attention of any party wishing to embark in the Lumber trade; the whole can be seen at any time, and full particulars given on application to W. J. Bedell and Co. Fredericton, Charles Ferley, Esquires, Woodstock, or to the subscribers at St. John. ROBERT RANKIN & CO.

BRICK STORE

To be Sold or Leased, for a Term of Years.

A NEW BRICK BUILDING, 3 stories high, opposite the Warehouse of J. Kirk, Esq. and fronting on Nelson street, 45x40 feet, with a South front on a new street of 50 feet wide. The above building can be finished for two Stores if required, is admirably adapted for a Wholesale and Retail Warehouse, and its contiguity to the Wharves, render it particularly convenient for a general business. If the above Property is sold, the greater part of the purchase money may remain (with security on the building) for 10 or 15 years.
