Save All The Hay

you cut by using a PETER HAMILTON No. 4 RAKE. This machine has great capacity and will rake up all your hay, whether light or heavy, leaving a clean stubble. The teeth will pass smoothly over the ground without digging into it, and lift well over the windrow.

The automatic dump is very efficient and the extra guard teeth are provided to keep the hay from rolling or winding into the wheels.

No worry, no trouble, no loss of time when working with this efficient rake. Write us to-day.

DUNLOP TIRES

Milwaukee in his mouth. At every bid that square jaw punished the cigar. And at $106,000, his last bid, he spits out the remaining half inch and is 'all through.' Stuart nodded his head to the call, 'Now $106,000,' and Champion Sylvia Johanna passed to his ownership after the greatest battle royal the dairy cattle sale ring ever saw.

"Hats, caps, canes, went into the air. Catalogues by the hundreds were torn into bits, so that much more went without from then on. Men and women jumped, shouted, hugged, laughed, cried. Confusion was rampant. The 45 minutes was over and one was free to breathe once more."

A SUCCESSFUL SALE AT HAMILTON.

ONCE again breeders of Holsteins have special reason to be proud of their breed. This time it is in connection with the big consignment sale held at Hamilton on June 25th. Both for the quality of stock offered and the prices realized it ranks among the best. An average of $240 per head is something for the consignors to be proud of.

The auctioneers were Kelly and Haeger and practically all the buyers were Ontario farmers.

The highest price paid was for J. W. Richardson's young bull, who went for $2,000 to C. Slavin, of Malton, Ont. Mr. Slavin had a sale last spring himself, but is now building up a new herd and apparently is going to have the best he can secure.

This bull is Riverside Johanna Pontiac, a son of Mr. Richardson's Sr. Sire, King Johanna Pontiac Korndyke. His dam is Tolitlia Dekol Sarcastic, a 29-lb. daughter of Johanna Rue 4th 1st, and the dam of Jos. O'Reilly's R. of P. Champ., Tolitlia of Riverside. Mr. Richardson is keeping this bull's twin brother for his own junior herd sire and another full brother is now in the herd of Walburn Rivers, of Ingersoll.

The next highest price was $1,525, paid for Lakeview Lestrange Dutchland, a 3-yr.-old brother to Lakeview Dutchland Artis, Canada's only 43-lb.-cow. He was bought by Mr. R. Cooper of Welland, and consigned by Lakeview Stock Farms. It will be remembered that Mr. Cooper bought the $3,500 cow at Dr. Farewell's sale.

The highest priced female was Lakeview Canary Countess, also consigned by Lakeview Farms and bought for $1,400 by Mr. Hardy of Avondale Farm. This is a 31-lb. 3-yr.-old of good type and breeding.

Lakeview Rattler, 7-day Canadian champion in 1916 and still champion in the 30-day class of the 8 mos. division, brought $1,375. She was bought by W. L. Shaw of Newmarket.

The highest priced calf was Dr. Heslop's 4 months old son of the new world's champion 2-yr.-old, Lakeview Dutchland Calamity Rose. He brought $960 and went to Mr. Wm. Cox. The general opinion was that he should have brought considerably more, but apparently there were few buyers on hand who really wanted bulls and most of the bidding in his case was of a speculative nature, several of the bidders openly stating that he would be cheap at three or four thousand dollars.

A few figures:

5 head brought over $1,000 each, 7 others brought over $500 each. 26 mature cows averaged $462. 8 2-yr.-olds averaged $366. 8 yearlings averaged $331. 7 bull calves $249, and 3 bulls over 1 year averaged $1,348. This is probably the first Canadian sale where the highest average was struck by the bulls. The total receipts for the sale were $32,874.

The following are the other animals sold with prices and buyers
