RAILWAY RATES CASE.

Counsel for Pennsylvania Lines Says Railways must Increase Rates.

Washington, Jan. 9.—F. I. Gowen, counsel for the Pennsylvania railway, argued today upon the necessity, in the view of the increased cost of maintainence of railways, for an increase of freight rates, before the Inter-State commerce commission.

"If the requirements of the shippers and the travelling public are to be met," he declared, then, we must have the assistance of an increase of rates."

Mr. Gowen said that the increase of the Pennsylvania lines to Pittsburg in wages alone during the last year aggregated more than $7,000,000, while the other increases in operating expenses increased that amount to $10,700,000.

He said the wage advance made by eastern lines aggregated about $24,000,000 a year, approximately $7,000,000 more than the proposed advance in rates would amount to. If the proposed advances were not approved, it would mean practically the wiping out of such surplus as now was being declared by the roads.

In response to an enquiry by Commissioner Lane, Mr. Gowen said the railways had come to a time when they did not consider cheapness in their operations as much as safety.

Prior to Mr. Gowen's arguments, Frank Lyon, one of the attorneys for the commission, presented figures indicating that many of the supplies and materials now used by the roads cost less than they cost at an average period for the last seven years, although some cost more.

The gales, which on Monday and Wednesday nights last blew here with almost the strength of a hurricane, did considerable damage in town and country. The new hose tower which stands about 30 feet over the roof of the fire hall was put to a severe test. The violence with which the gale played upon it dangerously shook the whole building.

A fire which might have proved very serious had it not been checked in the nick of time, broke out in the laundry of the Leland Hotel. The stove pipe getting overheated set the ceiling afire. An alarm was immediately raised, and Chief Scott and Engineer Willis were promptly on the scene, and succeeded in extinguishing it without having occasion to call out the fire brigade.

On Wednesday night at the monthly meeting of the fire brigade a long and useful discussion took place as to the best means of effectively fighting a fire during the progress of a gale. Ten active and two honorary members answered their names at roll call. Another matter under consideration was the starting of a hockey team. A vote of thanks was tendered to C. W. Gaetz for his donation of a box of cigars. Chief Scott feels that he has a brigade fit to stack up against any town in Alberta.

R. W. Runyon's bowling alley is thronged every night since it was opened on Monday last. The sound of the balls can be heard like distant cannonading for a considerable distance. The room which had been suitably decorated by members of the committee, presented a bright and animated appearance. The proceedings opened with a concert, to which the following artists contributed, Mr. Horner ably acting as chairman: School children, under the conductorship of Mr. James Beddome, gave several selections; quartette by Miss Dickson and the Misses Cummins; songs by Mrs. Plucath, Mr. C. Robert, Mr. Thomas Petrie, Mr. Linfield, Mr. Parish and Mr. Reynold; reading by Miss Beddome; recitations by Miss Davidson and Mr. Stanley Mills. Miss Beddome and Mrs. Roberts presided at the organ and proved two efficient accompanists. After the concert the sale commenced, twenty-nine of the fair ladies present having each bought a box. Instead of the boxes being sold as last year the hand of the fair contributors of boxes were sold and this elicited a great amount of competition from the gentlemen, the total proceeds amounting to seventy dollars and twenty-five cents. A small charge for supper for those not fortunate enough to secure a box brought the proceeds up to seventy-three dollars. Mr. Lovatt, of Belvedere, acted as auctioneer, and by his wit and humor contributed in no small degree to the financial success of the social. After supper dancing was indulged in, many tripping the light fantastic. Mr. Granger on his violin assisted Miss Beddome, Mrs. Plucath, Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Gayler at the organ, provided the music.

WEST IS IN GRIP OF A COLD WAVE

MERCURY DROPS TO 32 BELOW ZERO AND MAY FALL LOWER.

Weather indications at an early hour this morning pointed to a continued period of intense cold. At no time during yesterday did the temperature rise higher than 25 below zero. At 1 a.m., Mr. Campbell Young, of the meteorological office, reported a temperature of 32 below zero, with the possibility of even greater cold should the atmosphere become clearer.

Cold is General.

Reports from various parts of the country indicate that the cold is general, and in some places a shortage of fuel is feared. Traffic on the C. N. R. and G. T. P. was seriously delayed yesterday by heavy storms encountered between Winnipeg and the provincial boundary. The C. N. R. from the east, due at 7 a.m., did not arrive in Edmonton until 5.15 p.m., more than thirteen hours behind time. The G.T.P., due at 8.40, was reported at midnight fourteen or fifteen hours late.

Fears Fuel Shortage.

Brandon, Man., Jan. 9—With the arrival of bad weather attention is turned today to the fuel situation, and it is found that conditions are none too reassuring. The supplies on hand appear to be very short, and ample for about a fortnight only.

The supply of Souris coal, which is very largely consumed here, has practically run out, and it is learned today that the C.N.R. is not hauling any coal from the mines near Belmont, and that shipments over the C.P.R. are very light.

Cuts Filled With Snow.

As far as can be learned, the reason for this is that near the mines there are several deep cuts which have filled up with snow, and the railway has made no effort to clear them out. One concern here, which is using a car of Souris coal a week, is right out of fuel.

It is rumored that the electric light company, which furnishes power, light and heat, is running short, but it is found that they have ceased using Souris coal and have an ample supply for some time with every prospect of getting their shipments of American coal here in good time.

The conditions, however, are regarded as serious by most of dealers, who say that if rough weather continues there is a pretty good chance that there will be some suffering and great inconvenience as a result of fuel shortage.

Storm Delays Trains.

Winnipeg, Jan. 9—Practically all the trains coming into Winnipeg are an hour late tonight on account of the storm, which, while severe, with the thermometre at 20 below zero is extremely serious for the transportation companies.

Blizzard at Brandon.

Brandon, Jan. 9.—With thermometer eighteen below zero, one of the fiercest blizzards seen in years has been raging since early morning. With fierce east wind blowing, it is almost impossible for pedestrians to make headway along streets. Workmen had great difficulty in getting to work and many working girls did not make attempt to come down town. Business in the city stores is practically at a standstill. The early trains on all roads had great difficulty in getting here and indications are that these will get stalled as the reports from the country are bad.

Conditions at Regina.

Regina, Jan. 9.—With a fierce murrow scarching north wind whistling, and the snow falling heavily, Regina for the tenth time in as many days is in the grip of a real blizzard. The mercury is ranging from ten to twenty below zero, and the wind makes it seem forty. Trains are running from one to six hours late and the service is steadily becoming worse as the storm grows in severity. Saturday was clear and the trains were running on time. The streets are drifted many feet deep in places and the country districts report the worst of a series of terrible storms.

Trains Are Tied Up.

Saskatoon, Jan. 9—The worst storm since the memorable winter of 1907 swept this district yesterday and today and has resulted in much delay in train service. Many tries of hardship and innumerable cases of frostbite are told. The Grand Trunk Pacific train from Winnipeg was reported this morning five hours late and has not yet reached here though last night's eastbound was on time. The C. P. R. local from Yorkton is also two hours late, while the C. N. R. express from Winnipeg arrived three hours late, due to bad drifts on the track east of Regina. The C. N. R. main line trains are both late, while the Goose Lake trains are having much difficulty. Telephone and telegraph wires are also badly demoralized. More snow has fallen this year so far than on any previous winter for four years.

Narrowly Missed Occupants.

Scobe, Mississippi, Jan. 9.—The balloon St. Louis, the fourth which left St. Louis on Sunday for New York, landed here this afternoon at 5.30 with pilot J. C. Hulburt and Paul J. McCullough.

While crossing Kentucky someone fired at the balloon, narrowly missing the occupants, the bullet passing between the bag and the basket. Pilot Hulburt and McCullough suffered no ill effects from the voyage.

Attempt to Rob Post Office.

Windsor, Ont., Jan. 9.—A gang of safe-crackers made an unsuccessful attempt to rob the Post Office at Tecumseh early yesterday but were frightened off before completing the job. A charge of nitro-glycerine was used to blow out the outer door of the safe but the inner door was not opened.

THE MARKETS

TUESDAY'S GRAIN MARKETS.

Winnipeg, Jan. 10.—The wheat market was like the blizzard, fierce whirlwinds followed by breathless pauses, but on the whole it accomplished less than the blizzard. Just at the opening there was a concerted effort and with much expenditure of voice and music, the bulls worked May to 99 7-8, at which point a small amount was sold, then came the deluge. American markets began to decline, and there was nearly a 1,000,000 increase in European visible, foreign crop summary was bearish and there was no export to be worked, everything being out of line and with a most surprising ease the market slid off 1, then 1 1-8, and finally 1 1-4.

There was but one sale at the latter figure and May reverted to 99 3-4, at which point it held for over an hour without a fluctuation. Just before the close, the bulls made a final rally and succeeded in carrying the price back to 99 1-4, at which point it closed, being unchanged to 1-8 under Monday. July closed 1-8 down. The final close of American markets showed them 1-8 to 1-4 lower on light trading.

Winnipeg Markets: Wheat—May 99 1-2, 99 1-4; July 100 5-8, 100 1-2.

Oats—May 37 1-4, 37 1-8; July 38 1-4.

Flax—May 2.33, July 2.30.

Chicago—May 101 1-2, 101 1-8; July 96 1-2, 96 1-8; September 95, 95 1-4.

Minneapolis—May 1.08 1-2, 1.08 1-4; July 1.09, 1.08 7-8.

WINNIPEG STOCK MARKETS.

Winnipeg, Jan. 10.—Announcement made yesterday afternoon of an increase in C.P.R. from outside sources resulted in very active movement in that stock this morning. In New York, C.P.R. closed yesterday at 198. This morning it opened at 202 1-2 and at noon sold at 204 1-4.

In Montreal, C.P.R. opened at 204, and is now quoted at 204 5-8. The New York market is fairly quiet, with an advance of about 1-8 all through the list. Montreal is also quiet, with Dominion Iron on a little, selling at 46 5-8.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, Jan. 10—Predictions of rain or snow for all the winter wheat states made price here heavy today in the south-west particularly the full-grown grain needs moisture and requires protection from the cold weather. Closing figures were 1-4 to 1-8 down.

In wheat there was little disposition apparent to sustain values. Short interests, however, had been largely eliminated by yesterday's bulge, and had not yet recovered courage, though news developments were undeniably bearish. European visible made an unexpected showing of nearly 4,000,000 increase for last week. In this connection it was figured that the world's available stock had become 50,000,000 in excess of total a year ago.

Liverpool closed only a trifle higher, despite the substantial advance scored in America yesterday. Cash demand here fell off and to cap all the weather forecast was for snow in Nebraska and Kansas, and rain or snow within the next thirty-six hours were needed in other sections, especially Oklahoma.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

New York, Jan. 10.—Business fell off to a marked degree in stocks and bonds, while prices reflected no great weakness until the final hour, the undertone being concerning all day. A rise of seven points in C.P.R. followed yesterday's announcement of a proposed increase in dividend to 10 per cent, and stimulated demand for auxiliated issues.

In the late trading, heavy selling of certain industrials produced all-round weakness, and the market closed heavy with a majority of net losses. United States Steel was fairly steady and, the company's report of unfilled tonnage for December, showing a decrease of 85,600, was in line with general expectations, even though it marked a new low record in the history of corporation and demonstrates anew the unsatisfactory state of that industry.

According to trade authorities, prices of many finished products in steel and iron are now the lowest in thirteen years, which minimizes the prospects of any further concessions at the meeting of these interests here tomorrow. A conservative estimate of extent of operations by the leading mills is about 40 per cent of their capacity.

The general bond market was irregular, with declines in most city issues. Total sales, par value $3,206,000.

MONTREAL STOCK MARKETS.

Montreal, Jan. 10.—Canadian Pacific excitement completely eclipsed all the other stocks today, and there was only scattered trading in the rest of the local list.

The action of the C.P.R. board means a great deal to Canada and Canadian securities. Much confidence is placed in the C.P.R. president and directors, and by their action they have indicated their confidence in the future of this country. It is clear that the C.P.R. is not looking for any severe halt in Canadian business, and it is evident, of course, that they do not share in the gloomy prognostications of many Canadian business men and financiers in regard to the 1911 outlook.

TORONTO STOCK MARKET.

Toronto, Jan. 10.—While C.P.R. largely dominated the local market this morning, several other issues were active with continuance of general business. The C.P.R. dividend increase came unexpectedly, as the announcement had not been looked for until later in the year. Apparently London had better advice as the stock has been in demand there for some time. In London today it closed equivalent to 203 1-2. In New York, C.P.R. opened 2 1-2 higher at 202 1-2 and before noon sold at 204 1-4.

On the Toronto exchange, 1,160 shares sold at 202 1-2 to 205. Montreal was a buyer here to a considerable extent.

The chairman, however, by documentary evidence showed the teacher to be incompetent. Mr. Dosser therefore, withdrew his criticism in full.

LONDON STOCK MARKET.

London, Jan. 10.—The money market was bare and supplies and discounts ruled firm. On the stock exchange the chief attention was in the mining section and the carry-over of fresh business was unimportant. Canadian Pacific shares were buoyant and touched a record of 209 1-2 on the announcement of increase in dividend. Gilt-edged securities and home rails were steady, while copper was weak on the decreased statement of the Copper Producers' Association. Shell shares were in good request on renewed rumors of an agreement with Standard.
