(From the Cork Constitution.)

MACROOM SESSIONS.

(Before Assistant Barrister James Moody, Esq.)

The proprietors of the Cork Constitution v. Timothy O'Callaghan Horgan, of Carrigaguilla.

Mr. W. V. Gregg said that this was an action of the suit of the plaintiffs against the defendant for a sum of £5 9s. 6d., subscription to the Cork Constitution newspaper.

Mr. M'Carthy appeared for the defendant, and objected to the case being entered on, until the plaintiffs first paid him the expense of a dismiss obtained by the defendant against them at the last Bandon sessions.

Mr. Gregg—Hand me the dismiss, and there is the five shillings for you.

Mr. M'Carthy—Mr. George Edwards has been summoned to give evidence on the part of the defendant. Does he attend?

Mr Gregg—He does not—do you prove service of notice, and then I will meet you.

One of the clerks in the Establishment was sworn and proved that the Constitution was regularly supplied the defendant, forwarded through the Post office, and that the sum stated was due.

Philip O'Connell, Esq. Gentleman Attorney, was called by Mr. Gregg, who handed him a letter, which having been examined, Mr. O'Connell deposed that he had often seen the defendant write, and that was in his handwriting.

Mr. Gregg then read the letter as follows:—

"Carhue, January 13th, 1840.

Sir,—My quarter's subscription in advance for the Constitution Newspaper, paid last October, being now out, please to forward the paper as usual to me, and I will pay half a year's subscription in advance the next day I go to Cork.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,
TIMOTHY O. C. HORGAN.

To the Editor of the Cork Constitution,
Marlboro' street, Cork."

Mr. Gregg—Think that will do your worship.

Mr. M'Carthy—Let me see that letter. (The letter was handed him.) Now, your worship, if you receive this letter as evidence against my client, you must also give him the benefit of such portions of it as are in his favour. The letter is dated from Carhue. Tell me, witness, where does the defendant reside?

Witness (clerk)—I can't say where he resides now; he resided at Carhue when the newspaper was forwarded to him.

Mr. M'Carthy—Will you swear that Timothy O'Callaghan Horgan that resided at Carhue, is the person that now resides at Carrigaguilla?

Witness—I will not.

Mr. M'Carthy—Do you know Timothy O'Callaghan Horgan at all?

Witness—I do, well; Timothy O'Callaghan Horgan is well known to the whole of the county cork.

Mr. M'Carthy contended that the case should fail insomuch as the witness was unable to swear that the defendant stated to live at Carrigaguilla was the same person that resided at Carhue.

Mr. Gregg—Why, Mr. M'Carthy, that is your case—you are to show that they are not the same persons.

Barrister—Of course; and no person knows it better than Mr. M'Carthy himself. (A laugh.)

Mr. M'Carthy—This is an attempt on the part of the proprietors of the Constitution to charge subscriptions for sending their rag to a gentleman known to be one of the most arrant repealers in this county.

Witness—Your Worship, that comes very well from Mr. M'Carthy to call the Constitution "a rag" when he himself had subscribed to it formerly. (A laugh.)

Mr. P. O'Connell—Witness, do you allude to Mr. M'Carthy there, the great repealer of the west?

Witness—I do.

Mr. O'Connell—Oh my God! (Laughter.)

Mr. M'Carthy—I did subscribe to it, but after it was christened the "Hangman's Gazette" by Mr. O'Connell, I declined to support it longer. (Loud Laughter.)

Mr. Gregg—Have you any other defence?

Mr. M'Carthy—Yes. Tell me, witness, how was the paper forwarded?

Witness—Through the Post Office.

Mr. M'Carthy—Did you put that paper into the Post office yourself?

Witness—Indeed I did not; I have not sufficient strength to put the number of newspapers into the Post office forwarded to subscribers from our office.

Mr. M'Carthy—Did you see that paper put into the post office?

Witness—I did not—that is not my business.—The Papers are made up in printed covers in the office, and then despatched by the Messenger to the Post office for circulation. The defendant's paper was made up and forwarded to him in the usual way that all the subscribers are supplied.

Mr. M'Carthy held that that evidence was not sufficient.

Mr. M'Carthy Downing—Your Worship, if you hold that defence to be good, I will not pay sixpence towards the Southern Reporter, to which I subscribe.

Barrister—Indeed I will not. Tell me witness, was the defendant's paper forwarded to him in the usual way to that of the other subscribers?

Witness—It was your worship.

Barrister (rising from his seat)—That is the way I get my own paper. Let Mr. M'Carthy ask as many questions as he pleases, I believe the money is honestly due, and I will grant a decree for the amount. That is no defence to the action.

Mr. M'Carthy was about to put some other questions to the witness, when the barrister directed that he should go down, and on the witness leaving he assured the court that the defence set up was an unsuccessful attempt at a legal robbery of the proprietors of the Constitution.

Decree granted for amount due, £5 9s. 6d.

THE BEST MEDICINE IN THE WORLD.

PARR'S Life Pills, are now established as the only certain cure of disease in the human frame. Sufficient has already been advertised in the public prints to convince any reasonable person that the efficacy of this medicine is unbounded, and that every disease will soon vanish from the effects of this popular remedy. Already the proprietors have received and published twenty-six different sheets of Testimonials; and, having received some thousand letters confirming all the statements published, and proving the immense benefit derived by all classes by taking Parr's Life Pills. Testimonials are received daily, and it would be impossible in a newspaper to publish one half received and the following are selected as people well known in their respective neighbourhoods, and whose testimony is unquestionable. Further sheets of testimonials may be had gratis, of all Agents.

The fame and efficacy of Parr's Life Pills in America.

From the New York Sunday Mercury Jan. 10, 1844

We call the attention of the invalid to the Testimonials of cures performed by Parr's Life Pills.—The testimony of such respectable names is a certain guarantee for the truth of the efficacy of this truly excellent medicine.

The number of testimonials of cures by Parr's Life Pills, are crowding upon the proprietors daily, and their unsolicited testimony witnessed by gentlemen of high reputation.

The following testimonial is from one of the most talented and respectable members of the theatrical profession, Mr. T. D. RICE, the original Jim Crow—a gentleman whose high character for worth and integrity as a citizen, places his unsolicited and voluntary attestation of the excellence of the Medicine beyond the shadow of suspicion. This (worth thousands of similar grateful acknowledgments) can be seen at the principal depot, 304 Broadway.

From Mr. T. D. Rice, (the original Jim Crow.)

To Messrs. T. Roberts & co. 304 Broadway, N.Y

Gentlemen—Having in the course of a long and arduous practice of my profession, contracted a tightness across the chest, with great prostration of strength, and suffering much from the effects of the labour attached to my peculiar pursuits, while in England, I had recourse to your popular Medicine, Parr's Life Pills, from which I received great benefit. Finding a branch of your house in this city, I procured a few boxes of the Medicine, and can now sincerely testify to their value & great efficacy, and also to the great character they bear in the old country. Your obedient servant,

T. D. RICE, 20 Vestry street.

The following Testimonials in favour of Parr's Life Pills, from highly respectable parties, are confidently submitted to the public. This singularly efficacious medicine is now being introduced into every family, and rests its claims for patronage on the most credible authority.

Cure of an old confirmed stomach and liver complaint.—Mr. John Howarth affirms that he has been for many years suffering from a deranged stomach and liver complaint, and although he has had recourse to various remedies, and has been under one of the most popular surgeons in Manchester, nothing afforded him the desired relief until he met with Parr's Life Pills, which have already afforded him more benefit than all the other advice and medicine he has been taking for years, and therefore can with the greatest confidence urge any one suffering from the same complaint to give them a trial.

Witness to the truth of the above, Mr. George Dean, Market street, Manchester. Feb. 7, 1843.

80, Medlock street, Hulme, Manchester, January, 1843.

To the proprietors of Parr's Life Pills.

Gentlemen—For the benefit of the afflicted public I hand you the particulars of a case of cure from the use of your benign medicine. I had for many years been out of health, and suffered much from internal pains in various parts of my body. I tried nearly all kinds of medicines without relief, and consulted the most eminent medical practitioners in Manchester, but my complaint defied their best efforts; at length I despaired of ever recovering, and life became to me burdensome; providentially my attention was directed by my nephew Mr. Higginson, of Salford, to make trial of Parr's Life Pills, which I consented to do, and found considerable relief when I had taken only one box, and I continued their use until this time, and have had about six boxes altogether, and have the happiness to say that I am now restored to perfect health. I have, therefore, the best of reasons for placing implicit faith in the invigorating efficacy of your Parr's Pills, which have of a truth been Life Pills to me. This testimony is at your service, hoping it will tend to cause their use to become even yet more universal, as such a medicine ought to be kept in every family.

I am your grateful servant,

[Witnessed by G. Vaughan.] W. Higginson.

Chronic Rheumatism of three years' standing.—Christopher Sanders, 43 Bengal street, Oldham road, hereby testifies that he has for three years been grievously afflicted with Rheumatism, and for the last fourteen weeks was unable to follow his employment; hearing from Mr. Wainwright, butcher, that Parr's Pills had cured him of the same complaint, I began to take them, and having done so for three weeks, I am so much better as to be able to resume my work again next Monday, and will persevere in their use a short time longer, to complete my restoration to health. Any one doubting the truth of this case, is invited to call upon me or write (post paid) and I will immediately bear testimony.

Bengal street, Oldham road, Manchester, Feb. 3.

JAMES HILL, of No. 8, Ford lane, Charlestown, Pendleton, near Manchester, who is upwards of 60 years of age, says he was attacked with Inflammation of the chest, which confined him to his bed for a long time in a very debilitated state, with a most distressing cough and spitting; after taking various kinds of medicine without the least relief, he at last commenced taking Parr's Life Pills, and having taken three boxes was completely restored to health and is now much stronger than he has been for some years, and has recommended them to many persons who have taken them and received the greatest benefit from their use, and is ready at any time to attest the above. Witness, John Hatton.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.
