Two small vessels were towed down through the falls from Indiantown yesterday. A great number of people go out to the Suspension bridge every day at low tide to witness the scene at the falls, where the rush of water presents a magnificent spectacle and visitors who go to the scene now while the freshet is in full play will be greatly impressed with the view as seen from the bridge or from the surrounding hills.

THEATRICAL.

"As a looking glass" was played to another large audience by the Wood-St. John company in the Institute last night, and if any one had entertained doubts of Miss St. John's talent and ability as an actress such doubt must have been entirely removed last evening.

This lady was pre-eminently a star in her portrayal of the dual role of Lena Despard the adventuress who so plays her cards as to win for a husband a wealthy young man. whose engagement to an estimable young girl she succeeds in breaking. Mrs. Despard catches him on the rebound. She played for wealth and position first, but she at length and for the first time in her life, falls entirely in love with her destined husband. Her acting throughout was splendid and particularly in that scene where, in the presence of Jack Fortinbras, a former intimate and afterwards her bete noir, who appears for the purpose of denouncing her she confesses her former deceptions and tell her husband of her past sinful life, she rises above and beyond the ordinary player, and the observer seems to perceive only the wretched, heart broken adventuress, and guilty as she may have been, she has sympathizers at the last. Her acting was excellent also in the death scene. If Mrs. Langtry plays this character as well as Miss St. John then there is little likelihood of her receiving higher compliment.

Mr. Wood as Jack Fortinbras, gambler and roue, was faithful to his part, though there was little opportunity to exhibit his powers. Mr. Elton as Count Dromiroff, chief of the secret police of Russia, was a truly excellent impersonation and faithful to character throughout. He played well and his distinct articulation was a pleasure and enhanced his role very much. Mr. Fred Brooks as Dolly Slumberton—and by the way, this gentleman sings topical songs and plays the piccolo nicely—was also very good and Mr. White as Sir Thomas Gage,made the most of his part.

To-night will be played Mr. Wood's own version of 'Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde' and the engagement of the company will close tomorrow (Thursday) evening with "The Private Secretary."

St. John Presbytery.

At the meeting of the Saint John Presbytery, held in Moncton yesterday, the total church receipts were reported at $52,459 as against $51,764 the previous year. The application of Calvin church to borrow $500 to pay off floating debts was favorably considered. The application of Rev. Joseph Barker, of Sheffield, Congrationalist, for admission to the Presbyterian church will be considered at a special meeting to be held in Centenary church a week hence. Rev. Mr Fotheringham brought up the Jesuit matter just before midnight, making a strong speech, going over the whole ground and moving the following:

Whereas, an act has been passed by the legislature of Quebec authorizing the payment of $400,000 out of the revenues of the province in order to satisfy the presumed claim of the Roman Catholic church to the escheated estates of the Jesuit society, which estates had been held by grant from the crown for the purposes of education.

Whereas the act recognizes the right of the pope to a voice in the disposal of public funds, and makes the act itself dependent upon his ratfication.

Therefore resolved, That the Presbytery of St. John earnestly protests against the appropriation of public funds to the endowment of a religious body, the diversion of these funds from their original purpose of education, and the submission of an act of parliament to the ratification of the pope of Rome.

Also resolved that a petition for the disallowance of said act be forwarded to the governor general in council signed by the moderator and clerk in the name of and by the authority of the presbytery.

After a brief debate participated in by Revs. Bruce, McKay and others the resolution passed without one dissenting voice and the presbytery adjourned.

A LONG, STRONG, UNIVERSAL PULL.

A correspondent of the Portland Express, writing from the State College says: "The State College boys do not, as yet, make any claim on this years pennant. They do, however, going to make a long pull and a strong pull and a pull all together, and show the other college teams of the league that they are not to be entirely ignored in the race."

THEIR STOCK IS UP.

The Bath Times says that "over confidence" lost the game for the Bowdoins Saturday and the M. S. C. men should be prepared to demonstrate that "overplaying" will win the remainder of the contests.

THE SOCIALS' COACHER.

The Halifax Recorder says that the Socials have been delayed in their negotiations with Flynn, the ex-Chicago League pitcher, as their coacher, in consequence of his not having received a letter which they had addressed to him. A letter, however, was received from him last week in which he stated his terms. He was too high, and the Socials in turn made him a liberal offer which he refused. The Haligonians want Flynn, and are again in communication with him. They are bound to obtain a good man, and will open negotiations with other pitchers if the League man fails to come to terms

NO AMERICAN TEAM.

The idea of exhibiting a team of American amateur athletes at the English athletic meetings is fading rapidly. Some of the men invited, like J. W. Moffatt, of Montreal, declined the invitation and a number of others were disqualified by the English A. A. from competing as representatives of American clubs, as they had not been imported long enough to become naturalised.—Toronto Globe.

YALE RECORDS BROKEN.

At the class games of the Yale seniors and juniors, Monday last, two records were broken. Shearman, '89, in the running broad jump cleared 22 feet which is 4½ inches better than the inter-collegiate record made by him in 1887. In the half mile Hinckley, '89, broke the Yale record by four-fifths of a second running in the good time of 2m. 2 3-5s.

The Turf.

DONOVAN MAY GET THERE.

Says the Toronto Globe:—"The betting before the start for the Two Thousand Guineas was 4 to 1 on Donovan and 25 to 1 against Enthusiast. The brother to Energy did not get to the front until very near the finish, and only beat Donovan by a head. We have no news yet of how Donovan's defeat has affected his position as the Derby favorite, but it must certainly have altered Enthusiast's quotation, for the bookmakers were laying 50 to 1 against him. But, that Mr. Baird's colt beat Donovan in the Two Thousand, does not prove that he will also beat Donovan in the Derby, for this is a mile and a half, while the distance of the Rowly Mile over which the Two Thou. is decided, is only a mile and 75 yards.

Valuable is a bay mare, five years old, and is reported to have made a trial over the track on her owner's farm, in 1.40. She was not then in her best form and it is believed she will beat that time by fully a second.
