IN MEMORIAM.

BAKER—In loving memory of Albert Baker, who died Aug. 11, 1919.

O what would I give to clasp his hand,
His dear, kind face to see,
To hear his voice, to see his smile
That meant so much to me.
His spirit has fled, his sufferings are o'er,
At the fireside he will join us no more.
—Sadly missed by his wife, daughter and sons.

BROWLEE—In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Andrew Browlee, who died one year ago today, Aug. 11, 1922.

One year has passed,
Our hearts still sore;
As days go by we miss you more.
Your happy smile and loving face,
No one can take dear mother's place.
We think of you in silence,
But not with outward show.
For the heart that mourns sincerely,
Mourns silently and low.
Some day we hope to meet you,
Some day, we know not when,
We shall clasp your hand in a better land,
And never part again.
—John and Marguriete, Souris, Man.

WHEABLE—In sweet and ever loving memory of our dear little daughter Helen Davina (Buddy), who passed away two years ago today, aged four years and two months.

We are quite sure that God will give her back,
Bright, pure and beautiful.
We know He only means to keep
Our own and His until we fall asleep.

DOUBLE SERVICE IN WANT ADS

You Can Telephone Your Answers As Well As Your Ads to The Advertiser.

Readers are often interested in Classified Advertisements in The Advertiser that do not carry the name and addresses of advertisers. These are known as "blind addresses," but are genuine advertisers who prefer to use box numbers. To answer them, in the case of most newspapers, involves writing a reply and mailing it or carrying it to the newspaper office.

For the accommodation of those readers who find this inconvenient, and to serve the advertiser better, the efficient and courteous "Want Ad Takers," who have made it so easy to insert advertisements in The Advertiser will take your answers to "box numbers" over the telephone. They will note your interest in the proposition offered, your name, address and telephone number and see that your message is delivered to the advertiser when he calls for his replies.

This Advertiser Service Is Available Every Day From 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. (Sundays 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.)
