A HEART TO BE LET.

To be let, at a very disirable rate,
A snug little house in a healthy estate;
'Tis a Bachelor's heart, and the agent in Chance,
Affection the rent—to be paid in advace.
The owner, as yet, has lived in it alone,
So the fixtures are not of much value; but soon
'Twill be furnished by Cupid himself, if a wife
Take a lease for the term of her natural life,
Then Ladies, dear Ladies, pray do not forget,
An excellent Bachelor's heart to be let.

The tenant will have a few taxes to pay,
Love, honor, and (heaviest item) obey.
As for the good will, the subscribers's inclined
To have that, if agreeable, settled in kind;
Indeed, if he could such a matter arrange,
He'd be highly delighted to take in exchange,
Provided true title by prudence he shows,
Any heart unencumbered, and free as his own.
So Ladies, dear Ladies, pray do not forget,
An excellent Bachelor's heart to be let.

A Bachelor about Town.

Western Eloquence.—Feller Citizens; Jerusalem's to pay and we hain't got any pitch. Our hyperbolical and majestic canal of creation has unshipped her rudder, and the Captain broke his neck, and the cook div to the depth of the vasty deep in search o' dimuns! Our wigwam's torn to pieces, like a shirt on a brush fence, and cities of these 'ere latitudes is vanishing in a blue flame. Are such things to be did? I ask you in the name of the American Eagle who was whipped by the shaggy-headed lion, and now sit on the magnetic telegraph, if such a thy's is goin' to be conglomerated? I repeat to you in the name of the peacock liberty, when he's flown' over the cloud capped summits of the Rocky mountains if we's goin' to be bizzyzogged in this fashion? Shall we be bamboozlelled with such unmitigated outacciousness? Methinks I hear you say, "No, sir-ee, hossfly!" Then 'lect me to Congress, and there'll be a revolution sartin. Feller, Citizens: If I was standing on the adamantine throne of Jupiter, and the lightning was fishing around me, I'd continue to spout. I'm full of the boiling lather of Mount Etny, and I won't be quenched! I've sprung a leak, and must howl like a bear with a sore head. Flop together—jump into ranks and bear me through. Feller Citizens: You know me, and rip me out with a mill grab if I won't stick to you like brick dust to a bar of soap. What is my opponent? No what! I was brought up among ye, feller citizens, but he can't get around me with his hifalutin' big words. Hictum, strictum, albranto, catnip, Barzee'. Eoglooney, and Baffin's Bay! What do you all think of that? "Go it porky—root hog or die!" as Shakapeel said when Cæsar stabbed him in the House of Representatives. Feller Citizens: 'Lect me to Congress, and I'll abolish mad dogs, muskeeters, and bad cents, and go in for the annihilation of niggers, campmeetin's and jails. I'll repudiate crows and fastidious hawks—I'll have barn raisins every day, Sunday excepted, and liquor enough to swim in yes feller citizens, 'lect me to Congress, and I shall be led to exclaim, in the sublime, the terrific language of Bonaparte, when preaching in the wilderness: "Richard's himself again!" On, then, onward to the polls—"galloy space, fiery footed steads," and make the walking tremble with anti-spasmodic yells for Daily. Let's licker.

Treatment of Deafness.—One of the latest efforts to restore to a deaf ear its original functions, consists in applying a cup that fits neatly to the side of the head, round the outer ear, and exhausting with an air-pump. A common cupping apparatus answers every purpose, provided the glass will fit so well as to prevent the ingress of atmospheric air under the edge. In a variety of cases, the simple process of carring on this exhaustion till a new sensation is felt, something like extreme tension in the lining membranes of the meatus externus, is represented to restore the organ to its normale state. Under such circumstances, the theory of the remedy is, that deafness results from an impoverished flow of cerumen in consequence of the inertia of the excretory ducts; and by taking off the atmospheric pressure their proper fluid oozes upon the tube, and instantly modifies the condition of the mechanism exterior to the drum. Having thus been roused from a state of torpor and suspended activity, they continue afterwards to act with energy. If they subsequently fall partially back to their abnormal condition, the pump must be reapplied, as occasion may suggest. As there is no witchcraft about it, and almost every practitioner has a brest pump or similar contrivance by which an experiment could be made, and their being no hazard attending it, it would be worth a trial, and it is very possible that one out of a dozen cases might be essentially benefitted by this simple co-operation.

Beautiful and True.—In a late article in Frazer's Magazine, this brief but beautiful passage occurs: 'Education does not commence with the alphabet. It begins with a mother's look—with a father's nod of approbation or a sign of reproof—with a sister's gentle pressure of the hand, or a brother's noble act of forbearance—with handfuls of flowers in green and daisy meadow—with birds' nests admired but not touched—with creeping ants, and almost imperceptible emmets—with humming bees and glass behives—with pleasant walks in shady lanes—and with thoughts directed in sweet and kindly tones, and words mature to acts of benevolence, to deeds of virtue, and to the essence of all good, to God himself.'

A Paragraph from Goethe.—Goethe has written few pages more beautiful than the following: "The year is going away like the sound of bells. The winds pass over the stubble, and find nothing to move, only the red berries of that slender tree, which seem as if they would fain remind us of something cheerful; and the measured beat of the thresher's flail call up the thought that in the dry and falling ear lies so much nourishment and life."

Steele paid the finest compliment to a woman that perhaps was ever offered. Of one whom Congreve had also admired and celebrated, he says that 'to have loved her was a liberal education.' 'How often,' he said in dedicating a volume to his wife, 'has your tenderness removed pain from a sick bed; how often anguish from my afflicted heart! If there are such beings as guardian angels, they are thus employed. I cannot believe one of them to be more good in inclination, or more charming in form than my wife.'

Doubtful Documents.—Those lately found by a married lady, while overhauling a vest of her liege lord, in which she discovered a misterious bill for a silk dress she had never worn, and a board bill for some one she he thought he had not ought to pay. The wearer of the silk dress caught an awful scratching not long after.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

CURE OF A DISORDERED LIVER AND BAD DIGESTION.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. R. W. Kirkus, Chemist 7, Prescot Street, Liverpool, dated 6th June, 1851.

To Professor Holloway,

Sir,—Your Pills and Ointment have been the highest on our sale list of Proprietary Medicines for some years. A customer, to whom I can refer for any enquiries, desires me to let you know the particulars of her case. She had been troubled for years with a disordered liver and bad digestion. On the last occasion, however, the virulence of the attack was so alarming, and the inflammation set in so severely, that doubts were entertained of her not being able to bear up under it; fortunately she was induced to try your Pills, and she informs me that after the first, and each succeeding dose, she had great relief. She continued to take them, and although she used only three Boxes, she is now in the enjoyment of perfect health. I could have sent you many more cases, but the above from the severity of the attack, and the speedy cure, I think, speaks much in favour of your astonishing Pills. (Signed) R. W. KIRKUS.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF RHEUMATIC FEVER IN VAN DIEMEN'S LAND.

Copy of a Letter inserted in the Hobart Town Courier of the 1st March, 1851, by Major J. Walch.

Margaret M'Connigan, nineteen years of age, residing at New Town, had been suffering from a violent rheumatic fever for upwards of two months, which had entirely deprived her of the use of her limbs; during this period she was under the care of the most eminent medical men in Hobart Town, and by them her case was considered hopeless. A friend prevailed upon her to try Holloway's celebrated Pills, which she consented to do, and in an incredible short space of time they effected a perfect cure.

CURE OF A PAIN AND TIGHTNESS IT THE CHEST AND STOMACH OF A PERSON EIGHTY-FOUR YEARS OF AGE.

From Messrs. Thew & Son, Proprietors of the Lynn Advertiser, who can vouch for the following statement—August 2nd, 1851.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I desire to bear testimony to the good effects of Holloway's Pills. For some years I suffered severely from a pain and tightness in the stomach which was also accompanied by a shortness of breath; that prevented me from walking about. I am 84 years of age, and notwithstanding my advanced state of life, these Pills have so relieved me, that I am desirous that others should be made acquainted with their virtues. I am now rendered, by their means, comparatively active, and can take exercise without inconvenience or pain, which I could not do before. (Signed) HENRY COE.

North Street, Lynn, Norfolk.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF THE GRAVEL, AND A MOST DANGEROUS LIVER COMPLAINT.

Copy of a Letter addressed to J. K. Heydon, Esq., Sydney, New South Wales, dated February 25, 1851.

Sir,—A Mr. Thomas Clark, a Settler at Lake George, for a considerable time seriously afflicted with a Complaint of the Liver, together with the Gravel. His medical attendants, after trying all their professional skill, candidly told him that his case was hopeless, and any further efforts useless. In this situation [illegible] to terminate his existence, a friend recommended him to try Holloway's Pills, and as a forlorn hope he did so, the first dose gave him considerable relief, he therefore persevered in taking them according to the directions, and is now restored to perfect health. He will feel great pleasure in confirming this statement, or even make an affidavit to the same effect, should it be required. (Signed) WILLIAM JONES,

Proprietor of the Goulburn Herald,
New South Wales.
