THE DEBATE IS OVER

Address Has Passed the House of Commons Without a Division.

SASKATCHEWAN DECLARED VACANT.

Charley Devlin, the Young Man From Wright, Grows Quite Excited

When Taunted by Mr. Dupont Regarding His Course on the Remedial Bill—Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper Deals With Parish Politicians From the Maritime Provinces—Sir Oliver's Maiden Speech in the Senate and Senator Ferguson's Apt Criticism.

Ottawa, Aug. 27.—(Special.)—The principal feature of to-day's discussion in the House has been the scorching which Sir C. H. Tupper gave to the new Minister of Finance. The Conservatives applauded vigorously the strong points made by the late Solicitor-General.

Mr. Laurier informed Mr. Lemieux that the Government had not considered whether it would take part in the Paris Exposition in 1900. Answering the same gentleman regarding the Baie Chaleur Railway, Mr. Laurier said the Quebec Government had suggested the purchasing by the Dominion of that railway. The late Government, by order-in-council, replied that the purchase could only be made by authority of Parliament, but that the proposition would receive consideration at an early date.

Saskatchewan is Vacant.

Sir Charles Tupper asked the Premier if he would make his election as to which constituency he would sit for.

Mr. Laurier replied that the seat for Saskatchewan became vacant when he accepted office.

Sir Charles Tupper stated the reason he asked the question was because the Speaker yesterday said he had no notice that the vacancy had occurred.

Mr. Laurier said that as soon as the Speaker's attention was called to the fact of the vacancy in the proper way the warrant for the writ for another election would be issued.

Sir Charles Tupper thereupon formally notified the Speaker that the seat was vacant.

Mr. McCarthy suggested that it might be as well for Sir Charles to move the Speaker should issue his warrant for a writ.

Sir Charles accordingly made that motion and it was duly carried.

The Debate Continues.

Mr. Dupont resumed the debate on the address. He had not proceeded far in his criticism of the Liberal course on the Remedial Bill, when Mr. Devlin interrupted. The member for Wright arose and asked why, if the late Government was serious about the Remedial Bill, it had opposed him in the election, after he had voted for the measure.

Mr. Dupont's reply was that he supposed the reason was Mr. Devlin's subsequent repentance for having voted against his leader on that occasion.

Mr. Devlin thereupon grew excited, thumped his desk and declared if Mr. Dupont could prove his assertion he would resign his seat.

Mr. Dupont retorted that at Sohmer Park in Montreal, in Mr. Laurier's presence, Mr. Devlin gave abundant evidence of repentance.

Mr. Devlin, still more excited, repeated his offer to resign if proof could be brought of the honorable member's charge, which he pronounced to be a falsehood.

At this Mr. Speaker intervened, order was restored, and Mr. Dupont proceeded to say that for proof of his observation he need only refer Mr. Devlin to reports of that speech of his published in the Liberal papers.

Mr. Craig on the Floor.

Mr. Craig, in a brief speech, pointed out the achievements of the Conservative party in the past. Their record was one of which they had good reason to be proud. They had stood for Canada first and refused to barter away their rights. He severely arraigned the attitude of the Liberals on the school question, who had one policy for Ontario and another for Quebec.

After some remarks from Mr. Morrison, Sir C. H. Tupper, in a vigorous speech, criticised the personnel of the new Ministry, paying particular attention to Mr. Fielding's record in the Government of Nova Scotia. Mr. Fielding was very nervous under his castigation, but he will probably get used to it in time. Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper proceeded to show that, notwithstanding his party's pledge to the contrary, Mr. Fielding promised aid to a local railway in Queen's and Shelburne.

To this Mr. Davies interposed the objection that all this was parish politics.

Sir Charles retorted that if some one was obliged in referring to that bright and shining light, the Finance Minister, to talk parish politics, because Mr. Fielding, although a successful parish politician, knew nothing else. (Laughter.)

Liberals Swallowing Their Records.

Proceeding, Sir Charles reminded the Government on the facility with which they were swallowing themselves on their record.

Mr. Fielding: "Such as the Remedial Bill."

Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper: "Yes, honorable gentlemen opposite are swallowing that as fast as they can." (Cheers and laughter.) With reference to the Opposition, it was not true that to-day they felt uncomfortable. That was the position of affairs on the Government benches. One of the most humorous things of the session was to see the manner in which Mr. McMullen had been shut off. His silvery tones had not been heard once this session. (Laughter.) Neither had he been seen with a blue book in his hands. (Renewed laughter.) Sir Charles proceeded to refer to the tariff question. Insisting that it would be the duty of the Opposition to secure an explicit statement of policy from the Government on this question before the session closed, he proceeded to place on record the tariff views of members of the Government while in Opposition.

Mr. Beausoleil closed the debate and

TO WORLD SUBSCRIBERS.

On Tuesday morning, after twenty thousand copies of The World's edition had been run off, a mishap, altogether unforeseen, occurred to our fast press. Through the courtesy of the proprietors of The Star, we were enabled to furnish the remainder of our edition to subscribers, though somewhat late, owing to new plates having to be cast.

The break in The World's press was a bad one, many of the parts destroyed having to be procured in Chicago. Since then we have been issuing The World by the courtesy of our friends of The Star, and we are still disabled. We expect, however, to be able to be in working order as usual in time for to-morrow's edition.

To our many individual subscribers in Toronto and elsewhere, and to our indefatigable news agents throughout Ontario and the Dominion, we have to say that, under the circumstances, we are doing our best. If your papers have reached you somewhat late during the past two or three days, we are sorry, but we hope, with the aid of the expert superintendent of our press room, to be in running order to-morrow.

We have received more than one complaint from subscribers, stating that they would rather go without their breakfast than their favorite morning paper, The World. We ask their forbearance for a day longer, and shall use our best efforts to hold their good opinions of The World as a purveyor of live news.

We might also add, without appearing vain, that The World's circulation has increased daily of late, to such an extent that the securing of even greater facilities for publication has become a live subject for contemplation.

THE ESTIMATES DOWN.

They are Approximately Mr. Fosters Figures With a Cut of $25,000 in the Toronto Harbor Vote.

Ottawa, Aug. 27.—(Special.)—The estimates for the current fiscal year were brought down to-night. It had been officially announced that the Government would accept the estimates prepared by Mr. Foster and the Fielding series shows this to be the case approximately. A comparison of the two sets shows an increase in pensions of $4500, superannuations $5000, subsidies to provinces $3500, redemption of debt $500,000 on the debentures falling due Dec. 1.

There are decreases under the heading of public works to the amount of $86,000. A vote of $13,000 for Picton postoffice is dropped, while the Toronto harbor vote was cut down by $25,000.

DEATH OF MR. JAMES GOOD.

The Well-Known Yonge-Street Merchant Expired Suddenly Last Night.

Mr. James Good, the well-known liquor merchant, died very suddenly at his residence, 8 Rosedale-road, last night. Mr. Good had been down to his business yesterday morning, and not feeling quite well remained at home in the afternoon. He appeared to be all right at ten time, but shortly before 9 o'clock he was attacked with pains at the heart. Drs. Burns, Johnson and Davidson were called in, but could do nothing for the stricken gentleman, who died in about half an hour after the attack came on.

For a short time past Mr. Good had been a sufferer from heart disease, but had never been seriously ill with it. Deceased was 52 years of age and a very well-known man in the city. He came to Toronto from Ireland in 1867 and has been in business here ever since. He was a member of the A.O.U.W. and attended St. Paul's Church, Bloor-street. He leaves a widow and two sons.

HAMILTON JOTTINGS.

What Transpired at the Finance Committee Meeting Last Night.

Hamilton, Aug. 27.—At the Finance Committee to-night Solicitor Mackelcan was authorized to engage counsel to assist him in the Spur Line matter before the Railway Committee. G. B. Jones' application on behalf of the Cold Storage Company was referred to a sub-committee. Ald. Hall and Colquhoun were appointed to confer with representatives of the Grand Trunk and T., H. & B. regarding the proposed stock market. A grant of $180 was made to the Y.M.C.A. Applications were received from H. Barr and C. N. Stewart for increase of salary.

The proposed five-mile team race, which should have been run off at the police games yesterday, will take place Friday night, entrance free, at the H.J.C. track.

The report that P.C. W. S. Clark fouled J. J. Egan of Toronto in the three-mile bicycle race was incorrect. Mr. Egan fell off his wheel. There is considerable rivalry between these two riders, and a match race is talked of.

LORD RUSSELL AT MONTREAL.

England's Chief Justice to be Dined at the St. James' Club.

Montreal, Aug. 27.—(Special.)—Lord Russell and party arrived here this evening from Kingston. The Chief Justice was waited upon by a deputation, and in all probability Lord Russell will be entertained at lunch at St. James' Club on Thursday next. On Saturday the party goes to Ottawa.

SIR OLIVER GIVES A HINT

Of the Coming Effort to Make the Senate an Elective Body

IN HIS MAIDEN SPEECH YESTERDAY

The Government to Try to Capture the English Dead Meat Market.

The Liberals Are Already Beginning to See the Difficulties in the Way of Their Proposed Tariff Changes—Dominion Millers Object to Any Tariff Reduction on Wheat—The Labor Unions at Sault Ste. Marie Want an Alien Labor Law—Personal and General Notes From Ottawa.

Ottawa, Aug. 27.—(Special.)—Sir Oliver Mowat realizes the truth of the old adage that more flies can be caught with sugar than with the finger. The proceedings in the Upper House to-day were certainly more interesting than in the Commons. It is not often that one hears a maiden speech in Parliament of a gentleman who for forty years has been in public life and for twenty-three years has held the position of Premier of the chief province of Canada. Our own little Ol evidently realized the seriousness of the situation. He knew that he was facing an adverse majority and he lost no time in endeavoring to please his opponents. He was the same tactful old politician as he has been for years in Toronto. Evidently he realizes the task ahead of him, and if honeyed words will tend to smooth his path in the senate they will not be missing. There were one or two points in his speech worthy of note. He referred at some length to the constitution of the Senate and stated that at the Quebec conference Hon. William Macdougall and himself were the only two representatives who favored an elective Senate. He intimated in an insidious manner that he hoped to secure the co-operation of the present Senate in trying to make it acceptable to the whole country. Only one inference can be drawn from this remark, namely, that before many moons are over a measure will be introduced for the reform of the Senate.

To Reach the English Market.

Conservatives and Liberal members alike are a unit in favor of furnishing the farmers of Canada with the means for placing perishable products promptly on the English market. They do not, however, like the scheme propounded by Mr. Porter of London. The Premier and Hon. Mr. Dobell were present at to-day's meeting of the committee. As was the case yesterday, the Western Ontario members opposed the granting of a subsidy of $125,000, annually for ten years to assist the project. Mr. Porter, one of the promoters, explained the details of the scheme, which have been previously published. It was pointed out by Mr. Lister that an annual subsidy on an expenditure of $1,000,000 for the building of an abattoir would pay the interest on the entire cost of construction and leave $75,000 over. Mr. Porter, however, claimed that the abattoirs would be only a part of the expense. There was the matter of steamship service, agencies in European countries, etc.

Mr. Cargill strongly favored assistance being given to the farmers, but he was opposed to the country contributing 12 1-2 per cent. on an investment of one million dollars. He would like the company to guarantee to the farmers an increase of four cents per pound on beef sold in the English market, as the prospectus promised. (Laughter and applause.)

The discussion continued for an hour and a half and was brought to a close by the Premier stating that the problem how best to capture the deadmeat market in England would be fully investigated, while he had no opinion to offer with regard to the scheme under consideration.

Luxuriance in the Northwest.

Prof. Macoun of the geological survey, who has returned from his summer botanical field work near Moosejaw, N.W.T., states that he never saw the vegetation of the Northwest so luxuriant as this summer. The prairie hay grass is, he says, fully three inches in height. The farmers state that the forage was never so good since 1882. The crop prospects are bright.

Bicycles for Ottawa Police.

The police commissioners to-day appointed Mr. W. F. Powell, second son of the late Sheriff Powell, to the position of chief of the Ottawa police. The commissioners instructed clerk to purchase four bicycles on the best possible terms so that the members of the force can control the outlying districts more readily. Scorching wheelmen, too, may look out now for trouble, as there are already half a dozen good cyclists on the force. It is not unlikely that a special bicycle squad will be organized in charge of a sergeant, and that a special detail of duty will be assigned to them. However, until Chief Powell has an opportunity of considering the matter, nothing definite will be known.

Liberal Tariff Difficulties.

The difficulties which are facing the new Government in connection with their tariff reform measure are beginning to crop up. Two deputations were here to-day getting in their work. The vinegar manufacturers, consisting of Messrs. Badgerow and Wilson of Toronto, Allan of Norwich and Marshall of Hamilton, interviewed the Government in reference to the excise duties on vinegar.

The Dominion Millers' Association also had a deputation here, which interviewed the Premier and Mr. Fielding. David Plews, C. B. Watts and J. L. Spink, Toronto, and W. H. Meldrum of Peterboro composed the delegation. They represented that it would be inadvisable to make any change in the tariff, so far as the duties on wheat and flour were concerned. The point was also made that any reduction in the duties would minimize the prospects of securing a reciprocity treaty with the United States. This contention, however, was not a unanimous one, some of the delegates being averse to going cap in hand to the United States.

The Mixing of Wheat.

The deputation also saw Sir Henry Joly respecting the mixing of grain. They claim that so long as the Government permits second wheat to be mixed with No. 2 hard the mixing should take place at Fort William, so that an Ontario purchaser of even a single car would get a fair average. At present when 10,000 bushels of No. 2 hard are shot into a vessel and other ten thousand bushels of second put on top, if this is elevated at Owen Sound or other ports the purchaser does not get a fair average of mixture.

Want an Alien Labor Law.

The Federal Labor Union of Sault Ste. Marie, through Mr. Dyment, M.P., petition Parliament for legislation placing Canadian workmen on a footing similar to the Americans under the alien labor law. The petition points out that Canadians at the Soo and other border towns are brought into direct and unfair competition with American labor, while the United States workingmen are protected against competition with Canadians, thereby inflicting a manifest injustice on Canadian labor.

That Proposed Twenty Knot Service.

Sir Adolphe Caron will ask if the Government purposes changing the policy of establishing a twenty-knot steamship service between Britain and Canada and substituting those for an 18-knot service.

Lord Russell's Visit.

Lord Russell of Killowen and his party will arrive here on Saturday and remain until Tuesday. The Chief Justice has been invited to accept a banquet to be tendered him by the Government at the Rideau Club on Monday evening, to which all Privy Councillors and legal members of the House on both sides will be invited. About 100 guests will be present.

Sir Charles and Mr. Glen.

The attention of Sir Charles Tupper was to-night called to the latest outbreak of F. W. Glen. Sir Charles considers it tantamount to a back-down on Mr. Glen's part. If that gentleman is in earnest and will put up $25,000 in the Bank of Montreal, Sir Charles will immediately cover it and enter action against Glen in the courts.

Mr. Birmingham Denies It.

A telegram was received from Mr. Robert Birmingham to-day saying that the statement that he is to resign the position of Conservative organizer is untrue. The news of Mr. Birmingham's ill-health was received here with regret and his friends trust that he will soon be fully restored again.

Personal and General.

E. A. Wills, secretary of the Toronto Board of Trade, was in town today.

Hon. William Paterson, Controller of Customs, arrived this morning from Owen Sound. He got a big reception on reaching the Liberal headquarters at the House of Commons. Mr. Paterson will not be introduced until next week.

Hon. A. G. Blair, Minister of Railways, is expected to arrive to-morrow.

Mr. Casgrain will ask if the Government is aware that the cruiser Aberdeen was placed at the disposal of the leader of the Opposition in the Quebec Legislature and Mr. Deschene, M.L.A., during the present month to convey them to the Magadalen Islands.

Mr. McInnes will enquire if the Government is aware that Chief Justice Davie was engaged in canvassing during the late election. If so, does the Government intend to enquire into the matter?

Sir Charles and Lady Tupper left for Toronto to-night.

Sir Frank Smith arrived this morning.

The formal motion appointing Mr. Brodeur Deputy Speaker of the Commons was passed to-night.

GET OUT YOUR SCHOOL BAGS.

The Schools Will Open on Tuesday Next—The Fee Question.

The summer holidays are nearly over for the youngsters and school re-opens next Tuesday, although there is a holiday on Wednesday, as it is school children's day at the Exhibition. During the holidays nearly $12,000 has been expended in repairs to Morse, Park, Wellesley, Ryerson, Parkdale and Elizabeth-street schools. Notwithstanding that many additions have been made, the accommodation is still inadequate for the number of scholars and rooms will again have to be rented.

At the meeting of the High School Board next Tuesday evening it is expected that the fee question will be discussed. It is claimed by some parents that the $32 fee charged pupils attending the fifth and sixth forms is excessive, as the Junction High Schools only charge pupils $10 in these two forms. The Toronto trustees think, however, that the class of instruction given in the two schools is not to be compared. There are about 900 pupils in the three High Schools in town, the income from their fees amounting approximately to $20,000. The teaching staff of the schools costs annually $47,700.

The Property and Supply Committees of the Public School Board meet to-day.

HATS FOR THE FAIR.

The Latest Fall Styles of England and America at Dineens'.

A double staff of hands have been busily engaged at Dineens during the past two weeks unpacking and getting in readiness the new fashionable headgear for fall wear. These include high-class American and English hats for men, and bicycle and walking hats of the latest New York style for ladies. In addition to this, large shipments of furs have been received and sample garments will be at once placed on view at the store at the corner of King and Yonge-streets.

Mr. Dineen particularly invites visitors to the Exhibition to pay a visit to the store and the fur show room. The class of goods kept by the firm is of the highest grade and at no place in Toronto, or perhaps in Canada, can a greater variety be seen.

To-day and to-morrow Dineens' expect to do a large trade in gentlemen's fall hats. All of the nobby fall fashions from England and New York are now in and are beginning to sell extensively. The styles are the very latest and Dineens' is the place to get a new hat to wear at the Fair. Anyone can be suited at Dineens' hat store, King and Yonge-streets.

Fires Yesterday.

At noon yesterday the firemen were called to Pullen's rag shop, which is an old two-storey frame stable at the rear of No. 6 Maud-street. The place was in flames when the firemen arrived, and $400 damage was done to stock and $100 to the building before the fire was extinguished. There is no insurance, and the origin of the fire is unknown. Mrs. Fitzgerald owned the building.

An unoccupied shed at rear of 345 Bathurst-street was set on fire by boys yesterday afternoon, and $30 damage caused. T. C. Vankoughnet owned the place.

Nurses Want Sunday Cars.

The nurses in the various city hospitals are almost a unit in advocacy of Sunday street cars. There are probably over two hundred of these ladies in the city, to whom the cars would be a great benefit. Those who are on night duty on Saturday, no matter how tired and weary they may be, have to walk in many cases three or four miles to get to their homes on Sunday morning and back to the Hospital at night, and those who come on to relieve them on Sunday morning have probably to walk to the Hospitals. This, the good ladies who are looking to the bodily welfare of hundreds, think is a hardship that would be done away with if Sunday cars were adopted.

A BLAZING MASS OF RUINS

Is the Palace of the Usurping Sultan, Said Khalid, at Zanzibar.

SHELLED BY BRITISH MEN-OF-WAR.

It Took Just Fifty Minutes for the Big Guns to Do the Work.

Many of the Rebels Were Killed in the Fusilade—British Marines Take Possession—The Late Sultan's Steamer Was Fired Upon and Immediately Sunk—The Usurper Seeks Escape in the German Consulate.

London, Aug. 27.—The Foreign Office has received despatches from Zanzibar stating that the usurping Sultan, Said Khalid, having refused to surrender this morning in accordance with the terms of the British Consul's ultimatum, the place was bombarded by the warships in the harbor, and after the bombardment was captured by the British sailors and marines who had been landed by the war vessels. Said Khalid was made a prisoner and will be deported to India. The despatches do not mention the loss on either side.

A later despatch says that Said Khalid and his leading adherents made their escape and took refuge in the German Consulate.

A Blazing Mass of Ruins.

Still later despatches say that at noon the palace and the custom house were a blazing mass of ruins. Sharp firing continues on the outskirts of the city, where a force of British marines, with 400 loyal Zanzibars, hold the main road. Other sailors and marines are bringing in the prisoners and collecting the dead for burial.

During the bombardment of the palace the steamer Glasgow, which is owned by the late Sultan, and carried a number of guns, was fired upon by the British warships and immediately sunk.

Firing Lasted Fifty Minutes.

London, Aug. 27.—Despatches from Zanzibar say that the bombarding of the palace lasted 50 minutes. The firing was done by the warships Racoon, Thrush and Sparrow. The followers of Said Khalid were stationed behind barricades and kept up a steady fire upon the British soldiers and marines until their position was carried.

All Americans Safe.

Washington, Aug. 27.—The Department of State has received the following cablegram this morning from Jordan Mohun, United States Consul at Zanzibar: "Khalid Bin Bargash, refusing to surrender, palace bombarded by English fleet at 9 o'clock this morning and totally destroyed. Many killed. He took refuge at the German Consulate. Afterwards Hamond proclaimed Sultan. All Americans safe."

Britain and Zanzibar.

London, Aug. 27.—Almost all of the daily papers this morning contain comments upon the situation in Zanzibar. Leading editorials in The Chronicle and Daily News favor the annexation of Zanzibar with a view to the suppression of the slave trade. The Times, however, considers this rather a doubtful policy.

Only One Britisher Hurt.

London, Aug. 27.—Later advices from Zanzibar say the loss of Said Kalid's force was heavy, but the exact number of the killed and wounded is not known. The only casualty on the British side was the serious injuring of one seaman. No material damage was sustained by the British war vessels.

Hamond, a cousin of the late Sultan, has been proclaimed successor to the Sultanate.

The Ladies in the Warship.

Zanzibar, Aug. 27.—Many of the British residents boarded the warships lying in the harbor before the bombardment began, all of the ladies taking refuge upon the St. George, the flagship of Rear Admiral Harry H. Rawson, but a large number of Europeans remained on shore. Most of the rebels stood to their guns pluckily and fought well, though after the first broadside was fired from the warships a number of the defenders of the palace fled to the outskirts of the town, where many robberies were committed. All of the persons on board the steamer Glasgow, which was sunk by the fire of the British vessels, were rescued by boats from the bombarding ships. Among them were a large number who had been wounded. Several Indian soldiers were killed during the firing. The Thrush was hit sixty-two times and the Racoon sixteen times by shots from the guns of the rebels.

THAT ALLEGED SETTLEMENT.

The Roman Catholic Organ in Manitoba Says it Is No Way Out of the Difficulty at All.

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 27.—(Special.)—The Northwest Review, the official organ of the Manitoba Roman Catholics, says, in a leading editorial: "Nothing but Separate schools will satisfy Manitoba Catholics. Rumors of a settlement, which would restore to us only the ghost of the shadow of our rights, have been industriously circulated. We are getting tired of this nonsense. If the so-called settlement is to be merely a make-believe, a bare permission for the clergy to visit schools and teach catechism, then it will be found to be no settlement at all, and the last error will be worse than the first.

THEY RAIDED THE BANK.

Violent Turks Armed With Weapons Take Possession of the Ottoman Bank in Constantinople.

Berlin, Aug. 27.—The Vossische Zeitung publishes a special despatch from Constantinople, saying that an attempt was made yesterday afternoon to start a revolution. A body of Armenians made an attack upon the banks and a number of houses in Galata and Constantinople, slaughtering the inhabitants of the dwellings and the occupants of the shops, and throwing their bodies into the streets. The police and military made no attempt to interfere with the mob. It is expected, the despatch says, that French troops will be landed in Galata.

The Bank Clerks Fled.

London, Aug. 27.—A special despatch from Constantinople says that yesterday afternoon a party of 40 men, armed with revolvers and bombs, forced their way into the Ottoman Bank, killing the gendarmes who were guarding the doors of the institution. The clerks employed in the bank fled and took refuge in the office of the tobacco regie, which is next door to the bank. The attacking party posted themselves at the windows and upon the roof of the bank and kept up a lively exchange of shots with the police. Riotous outbreaks also took place in various parts of Galata, the largest suburb of Constantinople, a number of shops being sacked and many persons killed and wounded. Up to a late hour last night the Ottoman Bank was still in possession of the band, which had seized it.

A bomb was exploded near the guardhouse in Constantinople, killing several soldiers and wounding a number of others. The British warship Dryad and the French and Italian guardships have steamed up to Galata. There is no doubt that the rioting is the work of the Armenian Revolutionary Society.

The Sultan Stepped in.

Paris, Aug. 27.—The directors of the Ottoman Bank in Galata, the business centre of Constantinople, have wired the manager of the bank's Paris office, that the disturbances which occurred there last evening, when the bank was attacked and seized by an armed band of rioters, are ended and that everything is well with the bank and quiet in the city, thanks to the energetic intervention of the Sultan.

They Wanted Reforms.

Washington, Aug. 27.—Minister Terrell cabled the State Department today that yesterday afternoon the Ottoman Bank of Constantinople was seized by a large band of armed revolutionists, who closed the bank, keeping over 90 employes prisoners, and announcing that their purpose was to secure reforms. They declared that unless these reforms were granted within three days the bank and inmates would be destroyed by bombs. At the same time dynamite bombs were exploded by Armenians in the streets at remote localities, killing about 30 Turkish soldiers. Last night about a hundred Armenians were killed, and at the same time of cabling, the Minister stated that all the houses in the city were closed. Minister Terrell added that, after negotiations, the revolutionists in the bank were placed on board a steamer to be conveyed to a foreign port, and the employes were released.

A General Massacre.

Berlin, Aug. 27.—The Vossische Zeitung's correspondent in Constantinople represents the outbreak of yesterday afternoon as a general massacre and says many hundreds of corpses are lying in the streets, and that a Turkish mob attacked the houses of Armenian inhabitants. The Porte's official account of the affair alleges that, after the capture of the Ottoman Bank, the Armenians showered bombs into the streets from the roofs or windows of the bank and other buildings, killing a great many passers-by. Among the persons who were thus killed were four ladies.

Hundreds Were Killed.

London, Aug. 27.—The Times tomorrow will print a despatch from Constantinople, dated to-day, saying that many hundreds were killed in the rioting, which began there yesterday afternoon. The city, the despatch says, is more quiet, but the excitement is intense and almost a panic prevails. The shops are closed.
