upon any particular phase of the proposal they will report to the committee, which may pass a resolution dealing with the matter for presentation to the conference. It was also agreed at this afternoon's session that each delegation at the committee meetings may have present a naval adviser as well as the secretary of the delegation

POLITICAL LEADERS ADVOCATING FREE TRADE IGNORANT OF TARIFF WORK IN OTHER COUNTRIES

"2—Abrogation of commercial treaties by the war and the consequent withdrawal of reduced rates included in such treaties.

"3—Tendency toward economic self-sufficiency and resulting demand for protection of essential industries for national reasons.

"4—Unfavorable trade balance and consequent desire to discourage imports.

"5—Desire to increase revenue from customs.

"6—Retaliation for trade restrictions and tariff increases on part of other countries, also desire to induce movements for the conclusion of new commercial treaties.

"7—General movement for tariff revision in order to meet new economic conditions."

The report then deals in detail with tariff legislation of the following countries:

Argentina—The principal change is the twenty per cent. horizontal increase made last year.

Australia—A new tariff for the protection of industries created or expanded during the war as well as the encouragement of new industries calculated to increase the economic independence of the country.

Belgium—In 1920 the government was authorized to increase up to 300 per cent. the specific rates of duty for one year. This year the limit of increase was raised to 600 per cent.

British India—The upward revision of the tariff of British India is ascribed to fiscal need of the country and the desire for protection to promote the development of native industries. This year further tariff increases were made.

Chili—This year Chili has provided for horizontal increases of 50, 60 and 100 per cent. of import duty.

France—France has abrogated her commercial treaties. A change in tariff impositions has been made to increase protection.

Germany—The capacity to make tariff changes by Germany have been greatly curtailed by the Treaty of Versailles, but the abrogation of commercial treaties and some tariff changes have increased protection.

Italy—A new tariff adopted this year considerably raises the tariff rates.

Japan—This year Japan put into effect temporary legislation to provide additional protection to certain industries. A general tariff revision is overdue.

New Zealand—Few changes have been made awaiting the report of a tariff commission.

Portugal—Tariff changes have been confined to exemptions for articles of necessity, like foodstuffs, and increases in duty or import restrictions on non-essentials or luxuries.

Spain—An entirely new tariff was put into effect this year with greatly increased rates of duty.

Great Britain—Dyestuffs, optical and chemical glass, automobiles, watches, clocks and musical instruments carry a duty of 33 1-3 per cent. There has also been adopted an anti-dumping provision and authorizes the imposition of a duty up to 33 1-3 per cent. on goods of any kind other than food or drink, or the product of the British Empire which are sold or offered for sale in the United Kingdom at the cost of production, or at prices which, by reason of the depreciation of the currency of the country of origin, are below prices at which similar goods can be profitably manufactured in the United Kingdom.

Canada—Of Canada the report calls attention to the unsettled tariff conditions here, and also that this country has to meet the problem of currency depreciation.

This summary of tariff legislation shows that every important country, but Canada and New Zealand, has, since the war, increased its customs duties and almost invariably for protection of industry. New Zealand tariff revision is awaiting the report of a tariff commission, and Canada's tariff policy the decision of the electorate.

GRACE MORENO SENTENCED TO LIFE IN PRISON

Montreal, Nov. 15—That in his address to the jury he made no reference to "pig's blood nor English blood" is the feature of a statement issued tonight by Alban Germain, K. C., for the defence in the trial of Grace Moreno, sentenced today to life imprisonment in connection with the death of James John Rowe, ex-service man, stabbed to death by the woman in an altercation over a five dollar bill.

The trial of the Moreno woman was quite overshadowed by the sweeping denunciation of her counsel uttered by Mr Justice Monet today. His Lordship declared that in cross-examination Dr. Derome, medical examiner on a statement that the blood found on the knife alleged to have been used by Grace Moreno, was human blood. Mr. Germain had not been afraid to say to the exclusively French-speaking jury that the blood was not human blood, but the blood of a pig—that of an Englishman. The judge condemned this statement as gross, incongruous and ignoble. He further stated that Mr. Germain had "struck the presiding judge of this court below the belt" in challenging the right of the judge to give his opinion concerning the interpretation of the proof.

Mr. Germain in his statement tonight says: "The statement attributed to me by Mr. Justice Monet is untrue. I never made any reference before the jury to "pig's blood nor English blood." I have a witness to this, my partner, Rene Theberge, who was beside me at the time, I believe the judge was acting in good faith, but he certainly misrepresented the facts. The members of the council of the bar are my judges and I am asking them to investigate the matter and pass judgment according to the evidence.

In the opinion of members of the Montreal Bar present in the court of King's Bench, it is many years since one of their number has been subjected to such unqualified censure as was pronounced by Mr. Justice Monet.

Well Known Cork Citizen Shot

Dublin, Nov. 15—Alderman Barry, a well known Cork citizen interned in Ballykintar camp, was shot dead today. The circumstances of his death are not clear, but it is believed the shot was fired at a lorry containing several of the interned men, including the alderman, leaving the camp.

The sentry has been arrested and an investigation ordered.

STRUCK BY AUTO.

While trying to recover his hat, which blew off his head, John Mabee ran out on to the roadway on Prince Edward street at about 8.20 last evening and was struck by an automobile driven by Clarence Lumney. Fortunately the car merely grazed the man. He was taken to his home, where he was found to be suffering from shock and a shaking up as well.

LATE ARREST

To date this week has been a most arid one in police circles, no arrests for drunkenness have been made since last Friday.

Archibald Penny was the sole arrest last night, he was brought in on a warrant charging him with threatening to shoot Madeline DeLong.

AT THE HOSPITAL

Harris Gilbert is reported to be slowly recovering from injuries received fom highwaymen last week.

Isaac Patchell, who fell some thirty feet from a staging on Prince Edward street Monday afternoon, was reported to be resting more comfortably. He is still in a critical condition.

Arthur Post, the 13-year-old boy who was injured by the accidental discharge of a 22 rifle at his home on Pokiok Road Monday afternoon underwent an X-ray examination at the hospital, but no trace was found of the bullet, it was thought might have penetrated his skull, and it is believed that the bullet merely grazed his face.

IS IMPROVING.

The condition of John Hayden, the Broad Cove fisherman from Digby county who had his arm so badly wrenched in the winch of a fishing boat that it was found necessary to amputate it on his admittance to the Infirmary Monday evening, is reported to be improving.

Contributions To Party Funds Have Innings

Interjected Into Premier Meighen's Meeting at Headingly by Progressive.

Winnipeg, Nov. 15—(Canadian Press Staff Correspondent)—Somewhat unexpectedly, the subject of party fund contributions to political campaigns was interjected into Premier Meighen's speech at his meeting in the village of Headingly, some twelve miles from this city, this afternoon. The Prime Minister aroused the opposition of a man called William Kelly, who deals in agricultural implements at Headingly, by some of his remarks in regard to the United Grain Growers, and Mr. Kelly interrupted to ask where the party funds of the Premier were being raised.

"They don't come from the Wheat Exporting Company," replied Mr. Meighen, referring to a previous statement which he has made to the effect that the profits of the Wheat Export Company had been used to finance the Grain Growers' Guide and further the political ambitions of Mr. Crerar and H. W. Wood.

"Where do they come from?" insisted Mr. Kelly. "Those who subscribe to them can tell if they so desire," the Premier answered, and Col. Harry Mullins, a prominent farmer of Portage La Prairie district, remarked that he had contributed to them.

"I contributed to them, too," said the Prime Minister.

The Premier then countered by asking Mr. Kelly a question:

"What is Mr. Crerar's grain policy?" he asked.

"Never mind the policy. Get on with something else," replied Mr. Kelly.

"There you have Crerar's grain policy," replied Mr. Meighen, amid some laughter.

Mr. Kelly interrupted at another point, when the Prime Minister was telling the purpose for which the United Grain Growers had been formed and insisting that this company had not fulfilled these purposes.

"Has that company remedied the abuses which it was organized to remedy?" asked Mr. Meighen.

"Yes," replied Mr. Kelly, firmly.

The Premier declared that the United Grain Growers had gone on the grain exchange and committed all the sins of other grain companies. "They put $100,000 of their profits in the Grain Growers' Guide," he said.

"They did not," retorted Mr. Kelly.

"Then is the evidence of Mr. Rice-Jones before the cost of living commission wrong?" queried the Premier.

Mr. Kelly repeated his statement that the United Grain Growers had put no money in the Grain Growers' Guide. "It wasn't in the Guide," he insisted.

"Where was it?" countered Mr. Meighen.

"You find out," Mr. Kelly replied.

"Well, didn't Mr. Rice-Jones tell the truth?" pressed the Premier

"He may have," answered the interrupter.

"Oh, oh, he may have," said the Premier.

Mr. Kelly went on to say that the evidence of Mr. Rice-Jones before the cost of living commission had not been given for political purposes.

The Premier replied that it had been given and that there was no reason why it should not be used in any way.

During the progress of his speech, the Premier said that there seemed every prospect of an early drop in freight rates.

Weekly Meeting of The W. C. T. U.

Will Hold Sale on November 27—Mrs. E. M. Whittimore Gave Talk on Her Work.

The weekly meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held yesterday afternoon at the Orange Hall, Mrs. David Hipwell, president, in the chair. The meeting was opened with the reading of the 27th psalm by the president and prayer by Mrs. Seymour and Mrs. H. N. Lawson. The committee in charge of the pantry sale reported that the Imperial Lobby had been secured for November 27 and the sale would be held on that date, the proceeds to go to the fund for the relief of the poor. In conjunction with this sale a fancy sale under Mrs. Seymour will be conducted for the Protestant Orphans Home.

Mrs. E. M. Whittimore was then introduced by the present and gave a most interesting talk on her work among women in connection with the "Door of Hope" homes and many helpful suggestions for the successful carrying out of rescue work were offered. At the close of the address Mrs. Hipwell expressed the appreciation of the ladies for the splendid talk given by Mrs. Whittimore. The meeting was closed with prayer by Rev. O. P. Brown.

PIMPLES ON FACE DIDN'T LIKE TO GO OUT

Those nasty little pimples that break out on the face and other parts of the body are simply indications that the blood is out of order and requires purifying.

There is only one way to get rid of this obnoxious skin trouble, and that is by giving the blood a thorough cleansing which can best be done by that old reliable blood medicine and when the blood is purified the pimples will vanish and you will have a clear, healthy complexion.

Miss Mary E. Flanagan, R. R. No. 3, Stella, Ont., writes:—"I suffered for about two years with pimples and blotches breaking out on my face. The doctor said it was caused by bad blood My face was so bad I didn't like to go out among a crowd of people. One day I was talking to a friend, and she advised me to get a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters and try it. I just took three bottles, and there was not a blotch or pimple of any kind left. Some of my friends asked me what I had used and I said, 'Burdock Blood Bitters chased them'."

B. B. B. has been on the market for the past 45 years, so you are not experimenting with some new and untried remedy.

Tells Dyspeptics What To Eat

Avoid Indigestion, Sour Acid Stomach, Heartburn, Gas On Stomach, Etc.

Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble, say medical authorities, are due nine times out of ten to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach. Chronic "acid stomach" is exceedingly dangerous and sufferers should do either one of two things.

Either they can go on a limited and often disagreeable diet, avoiding foods that disagree with them, that irritate the stomach and lead to excess acid secretion or they can eat as they please in reason and make it a practice to counteract the effect of the harmful acid and prevent the formation of gas, sourness or premature fermentation by the use of a little Bisurated Magnesia at their meals.

There is probably no better, safer or more reliable stomach anticid than Bisurated Magnesia and it is widely used for this purpose. It has no direct action on the stomach, and is not a digestent. But a teaspoonful of the powder or a couple of five grain tablets taken in a little water with the food will neutralize the excess acidity which may be present and prevent its further formation. This removes the whole cause of the trouble and the meal digests naturally and healthfully without need of pepsin pills or artificial digestents.

Get a few ounces of Bisurated Magnesia from any reliable druggist. Ask for either powder or tablets. It never comes as a liquid, milk or citrate, and in the bisurated form is not a laxative. Try this plan and eat what you want at your next meal and see if this isn't the best advice you ever had on "what to eat."

MANY CHILDREN SICK, HOW TO TREAT THEM

The kiddies will get their feet wet, catch cold, get croup and give their mothers lots of trouble. With the first cough or sneeze, rub the little one's chest with Nerviline, rub it on plentifully, it can't harm. Then make a gargle with Nerviline and water, and have the child gargle for five minutes. Just at bed time, give the child ten drops of Nerviline in hot sweetened water. The result is fine, and next morning child is better. Nerviline is a great protection in the home. Large 35c. bottles at all dealers.

York-Sunbury Solidly Behind The Government

Conservatives Well Organized and Success of R. B. Hanson, K. C. is Assured.

Special to The Standard

Fredericton, Nov. 15—With nomination day but one week away, the campaign in York-Sunbury, in the interest of the Meighen Government candidate, R. B. Hanson, K. C., is looking better and better. The elimination of a third party from the field makes the contest one on straight party lines which for a generation, with one exception, has resulted in the return of a Conservative in this county. The election on December 6th, will prove no exception. The withdrawal of the Progressive from the field has added great strength to the Government party and a big majority is expected.

The meetings in various parts of the county in the interest of R. B. Hanson have been well attended. Organization is being perfected. In Fredericton and adjacent towns the usual efficient committees are busy.

The meeting to be addressed by Sir George E. Foster and the candidate at the Gaiety Theatre, Thursday, is expected to be the meeting of the campaign. Sir George is known as one of Canada's orators and one of the outstanding statesmen of the day. The fact that he is a former Fredericton man will add to the interest in the meeting. Lady Foster also will be heard with interest if she addresses a woman's meeting.

One Party ONLY Can Represent An United Canada

In the coming election, the success of Mr. King's party can be achieved only by the maintaining of a solid Quebec bloc, this "Bloc" having been created by the opposition of that province in 1917 to Conscription as a means of winning the war.

Can a party in power with more than half its voting strength drawn from one province be said to truly represent the great Dominion as a whole?

Decidedly not, particularly when the racial appeal is being kept alive in this election for the purpose of vote-getting in practically every Quebec constituency.

"This is an election of revenge" is the burden of the Quebec Liberal speeches of the campaign.

And Quebec's domination in the event of a Liberal victory is made the more certain by the fact that Mr. King will not be in the next House and that two or more Quebec leaders in any case stand head and shoulders above him in their claims to leadership of THEIR OWN PARTY.

If Mr. Crerar could win, and his chances are infinitely better than Mr. King's, it will be because he will succeed in carrying a solid West with scattered seats in the other provinces, thus placing the government of Canada in the hands of one class from one section and that class dominated by an American born, Wood of Missouri.

"I honestly think you do not realize the extent of the national peril you are creating," wrote Dr. Michael Clark, himself a Liberal, to Mr. Crerar early in the campaign.

The one party which can bring to Ottawa a majority truly representative of every province but dominated by none is the National Liberal and Conservative party. New Brunswick can protect her rights and contribute to the Unity of Canada by helping to
