News from the Districts About Us

As Reported by Our Active Correspondents.

Accidents, Personal Intelligence, and Things in General.

HARVEY STATION.

Formation of District Agricultural Society No. 39—Other Items.

HARVEY STATION, Nov. 13. Mr. Alex Little, while edging boards in his mill, was severely wounded in the face by a bolt flying over the saw. He was attended by Dr. Keith and is doing as well as possible.

On Friday night last a large and enthusiastic gathering took place in the old church. It was a meeting called to form an Agricultural Society for district No. 39. Coun. R Little called the meeting to order, and after a few remarks explaining the object of the gathering, Mr. Thos Robison was appointed chairman, and A Heron, secretary, pro tem. Then the regulations were taken up and discussed by Messrs. R Thompson, Walter Piercy, sr, Wm White, Coun Mowatt, the chairman and several others, all being of the opinion that such a society was wanted and such we must have. Between 80 and 90 subscribers then put their names to the roll and appointed the following provisionary officers: Coun R Little, president; Coun J Mowatt, treasurer; and Thos Robison, secretary. The necessary fee was then paid in to the proper officer. On motion it was decided to send out agents to visit outlying parts of the district, and the following were appointed: Wm White for Magaguadavic and surroundings; Timothy Stack for Cork and Acton; and Wm Grieve for Central Harvey. This association bids fair to be the banner society of the county.

Mr. Lymon, a clergyman of the sect known as Plymouth Brethern, preached three evenings to fair congregations in Taylor's hall.

Mr. D Glendenning is putting up an ice house in the rear of his premises.

Mr. D Holland's house is moving along rapidly, and will be quite an addition to the town.

The C P Railway Co have telegraph poles lying along the track here ready for erection. Several of the farmers are in a maze of wonder as to where they are to be placed. If poles are put in position without some compensation being made there will be "wigs on the green."

Wm McCullough and D Robison have put a good threshing machine on the road, and are ready and willing to satisfy all who desire their efforts.

Our new station agent, Mr. G. McKiel, gives the best satisfaction to the public; and the people are well pleased at having got such a worthy successor to Mr. DeVeber.

On Wednesday evening next the church concert will take place. Don't miss it.

All the young men have gone to the woods, the majority of them to Maine and New Hampshire.

Mr. Robt Wilson is no doubt the champion partridge shooter, as he has thus far this season captured one hundred and eighty.

The cold snap of last week froze the lakes, but the warm sun has opened them again.

Mondays and Thursdays the genial face of our worthy mail carrier, as regularly as the sun, is seen with his good horse and mail bags setting out on his long trip to the pleasant vales and verdant fields of Brockway. Bad roads do not daunt, nor heavy rains dampen his courage, and he gets through despite of wind or wet. The people on his route say that he is the best carrier that has been on the road, and in justice to Mr. Craig a larger stipend should be allowed.

Some of our people were using sleighs and sleds on Saturday. We had a heavy fall of snow for the season, but it has disappeared.

RICHMOND.

Changeable Weather—Cows Killed—Matrimonial—Railway Repairs.

RICHMOND, Car. Co., Nov. 19. The weather has been cold-r, and not so wet, during the past week. Monday and Tuesday were fine bright days, and it froze quite hard. The majority of folks thought that it was going to freeze up for sure, but they were doomed to disappointment, for on Wednesday it thawed out again. On Friday it rained a little, and Friday night it snowed some. There was not enough snow, however, to make good sleighing, but on Saturday a few ventured out with their sleds, and the merry jingle of the sleigh bells, which have been silent for so long, was once more heard in our midst. The roads are at present very rough, and there is neither good sleighing or waggoning.

The train, a few days ago, killed two cows for a family by the name of Curlin.

Miss Marion Laverty, daughter of Mr. John Laverty, was wedded to Mr. Charles Blackie a few days ago. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Kenneth McKay, of Houlton.

New railway bridges have been recently put in on the Houlton branch by the company.

FROM THE TOBIQUE.

Some Interesting Items From a Newsy Section.

ANDOVER, Nov. 17. Business appears to be very brisk here. The merchants need not complain for want of ready customers. G. T. Baird, M. P. P., is doing a large supply and general business. The hotels are crowded. Mr. J. W. Crawford, manufacturer of tin and sheet iron wares, is very much rushed just now to fill his numerous orders. He has enlarged his premises, and thinks of taking a business partner.

There is talk in the town of his taking another partner—one for life—in the near future, whose name bears a striking similarity to that of his business partner.

Mr. R. Hurley, of Munise, died last Sunday night, after a prolonged illness. Mr. Hurley was a successful businessman and did a large business for a number of years. He was a man of strict integrity and his death is universally regretted.

Mr. J. R. Larlee, of the Victoria hotel, is doing a rushing business boarding railway men. In addition to the hotel business, Mr. Larlee has a large amount of law business to transact, he having been recently appointed Parish Court Commissioner for the town. He intends to open an office in the village soon to carry on his increasing law business.

Yesterday was pay day on the new railway. As usual quite a number of the men were off on drunks. The rum, it is said, was brought from the "Fort." What about the Maine liquor law?

There is a good deal of activity in lumbering circles here and the coming winter promises much for the lumbermen and others interested in this principal industry. Beveridge & Co., Geo T Baird, M P P, J Babbitt and others are operating extensively on the Tobique. On account of the recent heavy rains work just now is badly interrupted as the brooks and swamps are full of water.

Mr. G. W Murphy has enlarged and otherwise improved his hotel during the past season. Murphy's hotel is one of the best on the upper St. John and is liberally patronized by the travelling public.

The concert given last evening by the Andover brass band was a success. There was a large attendance. This band has made very rapid progress during the past summer and they have a very fine set of instruments which cost $700. The dance after the concert was kept up till an early hour on Saturday morning, and was greatly enjoyed by the young people of the village.

A pie social was held on Thanksgiving evening in the temperance hall at Andover. The object was to raise money to have a course of lectures during the coming winter. The attendance was large and a respectable sum of money was raised.

(From Another Correspondent)

PERTH CENTRE, Nov. 19. Our thriving little town is ever on the "boom." As a mark of the future prospects of our town we must note the laying of the foundation for the Free Baptist Church of this place on Saturday. The site has been chosen on the lower corner of Mr. Nelson Topham's lot, and it is a very pretty spot.

The Rev W. A. Morang, our beloved pastor, is now conducting mission meetings in Lowell, Mass. He expects to leave there for home in a few days.

That enterprising lady, Mrs George T. Baird, has now a movement on foot, that of raising money by little school girl canvassers, which will end in the erection of a fine Sabbath School hall and public hall upstairs.

The Tobique Valley Railway is now being pushed forward vigorously, and people living along the Tobique are jubilant over the thought that by this time next year the iron horse will be snorting and puffing past their doors. Nearly three miles are now completed, so we are informed.

JACKSONVILLE.

Personal Intelligence—Temperance Lodge—Building Improvements.

JACKSONVILLE, CAR. CO.—Miss Mary Everitt, of Fredericton, and Lana Everitt of Kanseclear, have been visiting relatives in this village.

Miss Lillie Holmes, who has been teaching school at Lindsay for the past three months, is now at home enjoying a few weeks vacation.

Gilbert Kitchen and Stillman Everitt have returned home from Montana, after an absence of six months.

Our lodge is still prospering with Mr. H. Emery as chief templar, supported by two of our active temperance workers, viz: Morris Plummer and Hurd Seely.

Jas. Simonson, Esq., and Thomas Sawyer have each been making improvements in their dwelling houses.

Mrs. Stephen Taylor left for Boston a short time ago, to remain during the winter.

Miss Laura True, who has been ill for some months, is, we are sorry to say, still failing.

DOAKTOWN.

Lumbering—Butchers from St. John—Home from the States—Other Notes.

DOAKTOWN, Nov. 17. Weather falling; alternate rain and snow; high winds very unpleasant for outdoor work, which cannot be done to advantage.

Considerably activity in the lumber woods.

Several butchers have been here from St John and gathered up beef cattle.

Oats have been a poor crop, hay badly saved; potatoes fair but inclined to rot in cellars.

Mr. I. T. Mercereau has returned home from the U. S. after an absence of over a year. He had an eye injured, perhaps lost the sight.

Hebron Council of Temperance has procured an organ for their hall; they intend giving an entertainment on Wednesday night 21st inst to procure funds to pay for the same.

Mr. Samuel Freese shipped by the N. & W. R the entire outfit of seats and wainscoating pulpit for the new Baptist church in Blackville.

H. Doak's grist mill has been very busy this season as all other mills on the river were injured by the freshet and unable to grind.

There are a good deal of oats passing over the N. & W. R from P. E. Island.

R. Orr and James Brown carry the mail three times a week and a daily mail may not be looked for for some time.

NASHWAAK.

Accident — Personal Intelligence — Other Matters.

NASHWAAK, Nov. 20th Two car loads of Island oats arrived here last week for the lumber parties on the Nashwaak.

Mr. David Munroe gave his foot an ugly gash with the narrow axe the other day, while making timber. The accident will be likely to lay him up for a long time.

Mrs. Jas. S. Young started for Derby on Saturday last by Northern & Western train on a protracted visit to her daughter's at that place, accompanied by Miss Maudie, daughter of Mr. Solomon Youngs.

On thanksgiving day our people expressed their gratitude by hauling oats from Zoar Station. Meetings for the purpose were being conducted in the evening.

Four inches of snow fell here on Saturday morning.

AVERY'S PORTAGE, YORK CO.

School Examination—Those Who Took Part in the Exercises.

AVERY'S PORTAGE, Nov 19.—Our school examination took place Wednesday the 14th. The recitations, readings and exercises made the afternoon pass rapidly away. The programme for the recitations was as follows: "Curfew shall not ring to-night," by Miss Nellie McCarthy; "Look at Home," by Cora Palmer; Dialogue by Nellie Brown, H. Buber and May Avery; "The Little Seamstress, by May Avery; "Afternoon Call," by Minnie Combs and May Avery; "little Dr.," by Minnie Combs and Cora Palmer; "Little sir Giles," by Bessie McKoy and a number of others. The pleasing countenance of Mr. Richard Burley, an active and energetic trustee, was most conspicuous among the visitors, and who furnished the teacher, Miss Georgia Hoben, with candy to treat all assembled at the close of the school. Miss Hoben called up a class of five to her desk, and in her modest way presented each with a nice prize. Miss Nellie McCarthy's prize was a photo album, and was for good behavior during the term. There were others received prizes for regular attendance. Miss Hoben closed the school by singing "Auld Lang Syne."

WILLIAMSTOWN, CAR. CO.

A Big Budget of Personal News—Other Notes.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Nov. 14. This has been an uncommon fall for ploughing. Some have their ploughing all done and manure hauled out. Most all the men around here are busy getting their winter's wood. About fifteen men are getting it in a fallow belonging to Thomas Emery. It is a rare chance, as wood is getting to be quite scarce on most all the farms in this section. T Porter and W. McWaid are out there with their sawing machine, doing good work.

Stanley Savage, and Johnson Emery have gone to the lumber woods.

Wm. Savage intends going with his team soon. He has an extra good team. Herbert McEgan, James Gowan, and Wilmot Savage are going with him. They will work for Hale & Co. Hayward Savage has been there for some weeks. Warren Simmons is their cook.

Measles have been around here again, but no cases proved fatal.

Mrs. Clarke, an old resident of Houlton, Maine, but lately staying with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Prior, died a few weeks ago at a good old age. Her daughter, Mrs. Russell, from Lynn, Mass., visited her a short time before her death.

Our graveyard still remains in the same condition that it did a year ago, namely, as commons, with no fence, and the shed at the meeting house not finished, but they are trying to finish it. It seems as if the horses were more cared for than the resting place of the dead.

The Sabbath School hour has been changed from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m.

Rev. J. Sellar intends holding a series of meetings at Lakeville next week, assisted by Rev. Dr. Sterling.

Mr. Fred Nelson and wife are leaving his parental home and moving into the house on the McEgan homestead.

Miss Cassie Savage has gone to Lyneus, Maine, to stop with her aunt, Mrs. Dr. Byrd, and attend school there.

We expect to hear horns, if not the wedding bells, from Lakeville soon, as there are two houses being fitted up now, one of them a new one.

Mr. Frank Carvell is moving back to Lakeville. He teaches at Centreville.

We expect a new neighbor in a new house here in the spring.

Knitting parties have been all the rage lately in the lower district, Miss McIntosh proving the smartest knitter. She is from Kingsclear.

Howard B White, merchant of Centreville, has taken his third or fourth drove of cattle to the Brighton market lately.

CANTERBURY STATION.

An Interesting Budget From Our Correspondent as Usual.

CANTERBURY STATION, Nov 19. We have not been heard from for some time but, while our days glide smoothly along in rapid succession, our lives have been so quiet, so free from incident or change, that we really and truly had nothing of interest to communicate. It is an ancient feeling of the human heart that knowledge is better than riches, and it is deeply and sacredly true. Tis noble to seek education, beautiful to find it and beneficial to those around us to make the proper use of it, for the fire of the human mind is like the fire which the Persians burn on the mountains. It flames night and day, is immortal and not to be quenched. The ubiquitary dispensing of knowledge should be the theme of every philanthropic mind. This, doubtless, was the motto of that young lady when she entered one of the principal emporiums, and with an irresistible smile, politely asked the gentleman in attendance if he would show her room paper suitable for a boudoir, something that would not be antagonistic to the residue of the paraphernalia in the department. We presume the residue must have been verdant. Mens sana in corpore sano. Ex uno disce omnes.

Messrs. Smith and Merrithew have their new mill running. Mr Maurice Mills, of Amherst, N S, is engineer, and Mr Lee, of Milltown, sawyer.

The attendance at school for the past three months has been small and irregular, caused by the prevalence of measles, whooping cough and chicken pox.

It is an ineffable pleasure to chronicle the return of Mr Thomas B Jarvis, who has spent the past three years in the Western States, principally in Colorado. Mr J relates interesting accounts of the various cities he has visited and graphically describes Colorado Springs as a magnificent city, situated eight thousand feet above the level of the sea, the air light and the climate delightful. Being extremely partial to fine, dry weather, we indeed feel quite envious when informed that there has only been three showers of rain out there since last spring, and those quite light.

Mr Edward Depowe's health is improving slowly.

The snow storm of Friday night was succeeded by beautifully clear, cold weather.

Mr E C Freeze, of Fredericton, paid an official visit to this community last week. Hope was predominate that it would be convenient for him to meet with Councils R T of T, but it was not convenient for him to do so.

Once again has come the Reaper and has taken to the upper fold Annie, the two year-old daughter of John and Catherine McGillicuddy, of Skiff Lake. Mr and Mrs McG have the sympathy of their numerous friends in this their sad bereavement.

UPPER HAYNESVILLE.

Narrow Escape—Mr. Price's Death—Leaving for the Lumber Woods.

UPPER HAYNESVILLE, Nov. 10. We have had another snow storm and it makes us feel sure we are to have another winter soon.

The Sabbath school ended last Sunday.

The young men are leaving one by one to spend the winter in the lumber woods.

Mrs. Geo. Vessey had a narrow escape from being killed last Wednesday. She was thrown from a double farm wagon backwards, alighting on her head and shoulders. She was unconscious for a while. She received no very serious injuries. Although it was an accident it was more by good luck than anything else that she was not killed.

We are very sorry to inform the public of the death of Mr. Wm. Price, who was killed on Wednesday last. Mr. and Mrs. Price had left home about 3 o'clock a. m., intending to go to Fredericton. When a short distance from home something about the whiffl-trees got wrong, and the horses being young and spirited, got frightened and became unmanageable. The tongue dropped, stuck in the side of the road and tipped the wagon up so as to throw them out. He was thrown against a frozen lump of ground which smashed his brain in. Mr Price was found soon afterwards in an unconscious state, in which he remained until he died. He lived until 3 o'clock p m. the same day. Mrs. Price escaped without any injuries.

GRAND FALLS.

Station House Improved—New School Building—The Weather up River.

GRAND FALLS, Nov 20. The interior of the station here has been greatly improved during the fall. The walls have been nicely painted and the office papered and enlarged. Mr. A R Hallett is still the agent in charge and is deservedly popular.

The new brick school building at St. Basil in connection with the convent and hospital of the Roman Catholics is nearing completion. The building is a very fine one and reflects great credit on the people of the locality.

The weather here to-day is very cold and ice is forming in the river very fast. The prospects are that the river will close at several places above the Falls to-night.

Several new buildings have gone up during the past summer at Edmundston and the village presents a lively appearance.

LAKEVILLE, CARLETON CO.

Skating on the Lake—Religious Services—Returned Home.

LAKEVILLE, Nov 20. The weather is proving exceptionally cold for the season but Jack Frost has rejoiced the hearts of the skaters by the work he has performed upon the surface of the lake, which now presents the appearance of polished glass. Already is heard the sharp ringing of skates mingling with the joyous voices of the skaters.

Service was held here on Thanksgiving day at 11 a m by the Rev. J E Freewelling. Quite a large congregation was present to return thanks to the Giver of all good for past blessings.

The Rev. J Seiler and Dr. Sterling have commenced a series of special services in this village.

We are pleased to announce the return to our village of Mr. and Mrs. Blearvell. Their numerous friends join in giving them a hearty welcome.

Mr Charles Armstrong has purchased a very fine Percheron Morgan horse from Dr Simons of St John.

Measles have been prevalent in the community among the younger part of the population, but in only one case has the disease proved fatal. The infant son
