A HOME BY THE SEA.

BY W. W. BOWERS.

Oh, give me a home, by the deep blue sea,
And I care not much which e'er it may be,
A palace grand, or a cottage wee,
I'd love it the same by the deep, blue sea.

A happy home by the deep blue sea,
And none to share it but her and me,
With books, guitar, and the waves melody,
I'd ever be happy in a home by the sea.

And when the moonbeams kissed the light, wild spray,
We'd walk on the beach and look at its play,
And the world to us, oh, nothing would be,
In our happy home by the deep, blue sea.

And we'd worship there by the deep, blue sea
'Neath the roof of Heaven's high canopy:
And our preacher would be, Nature's scenery
And our only choir, the deep voiced sea,

Then, give me a home by the deep blue sea,
And I care not much whiche'er it may be,
A palace grand, or a cottage wee,
I'd love it the same, by the deep, blue sea.

Music at a Death-Bed.

Bring music, stir the brooding air
With an ethereal breath.
Bring souls my fainting soul to bear
Up from the couch of death.

A voice, a flute, a dreamy lay,
Such as the southern breeze
Might waft, a golden close of day,
O'er blue transparent seas.

Oh no, not such that lingering spell
Would lure me back to life,
When my weaned heart hath said farewell,
And passed the gates of strife.

Let not a sight of human love
Blend with the song a tone;
Let no disturbing echo move
One that must die alone.

But pour a solemn breathing strain,
Fill'd with soul of prayer;
Let a life's conflict, fear, and pale,
And trembling hope be there.

Deeper, yet deeper in my thought
Lies more prevailing sound,
A harmony intensely fraught
With pleading more profound.

A passion unto music given,
A sweet yet piercing cry;
A breaking heart's appeal to heaven,
A bright faith's victory.

Deeper, Oh, may no richer power
Be in those notes enshrined,
Can all which crowds on earth's last hour
No fuller language find.

Away, and hush the feeble song,
And let the chord be still'd.
For in another land or long
My dreams shall be fulfilled.

VARIETY.

TASTES OF MEN AND WOMEN.—Men enjoy mountains, women enjoy waterfalls. There is no saying why it is, but the fact is positive. Perhaps it may be that men can toil up the rugged steep with greater ease, and therefore enjoy themselves the more when they reach the top. Perhaps its that there is something grand, and bold, and rough, and dangerous, in the nature of a mountain, which the masculine mind is alone capable of fully understanding. In waterfalls there is all the beauty of form, and light, and graceful motion, and harmonious sound, and cooling freshness, and ever-changing variety, that woman always loves; and there are over-shadowing trees, and an escape from the noon-tide sun, and the hum of insect life, and moss-grown stones, and soft, grassy banks. Waterfalls and their adjuncts have a kind of mystic influence about them that sets with all persuasive energy on the female mind; hearts like stones are worn down with their action, and the swain has often been indebted to the Naiad for the granting of his prayer.—Blackwood.

RECIPES.

Cure for Murrain.—Fill a bottle two thirds full of vinegar; put it in salt till it stands one inch deep, after being well shaken, and red pepper, enough to make it very hot. Let it be well shaken but pour off clear when it is used.

About a pint of this mixture has cured a cow after it had fallen and was supposed to be dying. Given in time, it is believed will never fail.

The murrain is an inflammatory disease. The contents of the stomach of an animal that dies with it will be found dry like powder. Other remedies that will remove inflamation may cure this disease, but this I know, is excellent.

To make the Hair Grow.—You may have some bald headed readers who would rather know how to bring out the "wool on the top of the head, the place where the wool ought to grow," than to know how to increase it on the back of a sheep. For their benefit, I send you a receipe, which I have tried with success, and I believe is superior to all the patent preparations "for beautifying, strengthing and promoting the growth of the hair."

Mix and grind together one teaspoonful of red precipitate two do. Venice turpentine, and one table spoonful of lard.

Rub the roots of the hair with this mixture three successive nights, at intervals of a week. An occasional use of a fine-tooth-comb, just before using this preparation, will be beneficial. It will be prudent to avoid exposure to the rain or heavy dew immediately after using it. A few weeks use will show its benefit. By a regular use in a few months, a fine head of hair will be produced.

Remedy for Blind Staggers.—Bore a hole in the curl in the horse's forehead with a small gimlet. As soon as the shell is penetrated, there will be a little puff of air, and in five minutes the horse will be well.

If any should think the remedy worse than the disease, let it be tried as a last resort. I know of a cure performed after the horse had fallen and was supposed to be dying. In ten minutes he was eating heartily.

APRIL FOOL.—The Albany Register tells the following story of an April joke, which is as good as any we have ever seen:—

"Speaking of the beginning of April, will any body tell us where the custom came from, which makes every body try to fool every body, on the first day of that capricious month? We saw a funny thing on the first day of April down in Green street. Did any body ever see any body have be an old hat on the side-walk, without giving it a kick? We do not believe such a thing ever happened. Well, a wag seized upon this characteristic, out of which to make a little amusement, on all fools' day. So he procured a boulder, weighing some twenty pounds or more, and placed it in the sidewalk, placed over it an old, battered beaver hat.

The first person who passed that way, was a portly, unsuspecting young man, who went whistling down as a hard road to travel, and as he came opposite the hat, placed so temptingly in his way, he gave it a rousing kick, expecting of course to see the hat skipping into the middle of the street. But it didn't move, and the kicker picked up his toe in both hands, and hopped about and became emphatic in his language, in a manner that made the perpetrator of the joke dodge round the corner. In a moment afterward, a gentleman came that way, with a cricket club on his shoulder, which he brought down with a swoop against the hat, expecting to see it take a host over the lamp-post on the adjacent corner. But it didn't, while the cricket club, as it rang against the stone, flew half way across the street, and the striker fell to dancing about, blowing his fingers as if they were cold, and using a good many words not found in any religious work of the day. We stood long enough to see a dozen or more assaults perpetrated upon that old hat that concealed the boulder, and then saw the attacking party get the worst of the bargain."

The Renowned Remedy!
HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

A MOST ASTONISHING CURE OF SCROFULOUS ULCERS.—A CASE CERTIFIED BY THE MAYOR OF BOSTON.

Copy of a Letter from J. Noble, Esq., Mayor of Boston, Lincolnshire.

To Professor Holloway.

Dear Sir,—Mrs. Sarah Dixon, of Liquorpond-st., Boston, has this day deposed before me that for a considerable period she was severely afflicted with Scrofulous Sores and Ulcers in her arms, feet, legs, and other parts of her body; and although the first of medical advice was obtained, at the cost of a large sum of money, she obtained no abatement of suffering, but gradually grew worse.

Being recommended by a friend to try your Ointment, she procured a small pot, and a box of the Pills, and before that was all used, symptoms of amendment appeared. By persevering with the medicines for a short time longer, according to the directions, and strictly adhering to your rules as to diet, &c., she was perfectly cured, and now enjoys the beast of health.

I remain, Dear Sir, yours truly,
August 12th, 1852. (Signed) J. NOBLE.

AN EXTRAORDINARY AND RAPID CURE OF ERYSIPELAS IN THE LEG, AFTER MEDICAL AID HAD FAILED.

Copy of a Letter from Mrs. Elizabeth Yeates, of the Post Office, Aldwick Road, near Bognor, Sussex, dated Jan. 12th, 1853.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I suffered for a considerable period from a severe attack of Erysipelas, which at length settled in my leg, and resisted all medical treatment. My sufferings were very great, and I quite despaired of any permanent amendment, when I was advised to have recourse to your Ointment and Pills, did so without delay, and am happy to say, the result was eminently successful, for they effected a radical cure of my leg, and restored me to the enjoyment of health. I shall ever speak with the utmost confidence of your medicines, and have recommended them to others in this neighborhood similarly afflicted, who derived equal benefit.

I am, Sir, your obliged and faithful servant,
(Signed) ELIZABETH YEATES.

A DISTRESSFULLY DISEASED ANCLE CURED AFTER BEING GIVEN UP BY THE FACULTY AT MALTA AND PORTSMOUTH HOSPITALS.

The following important communication has been forwarded to Professor Holloway for publication, by Mr. B. Dixon, Chemist, King-st., Norwich.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Smith of Great Yarmouth, dated January 19th, 1853.

To Mr. Dixon.

Dear Sir,—I send you the particulars of a cure effected by Professor Holloway's invaluable medicines: Mr. John Walton, late in Her Majesty's Service, in the British Fleet at Malta, had a very bad ulcerated ancle, and after having been in the Malta Hospital for six months, was sent to England as an invalid to Portsmouth Hospital, where he remained an inmate four months, there, as at Malta, refusing to have the limb amputated, he was turned out incurable. He then came to Yarmouth, and was under a medical gentleman for about three months, but his ancle became so much worse, that all hope was lost. At this period, by my advice, he tried Holloway's Ointment and Pills, which by unremitted application, healed all the ulcers, and restored him to perfect health and strength.

I remain, Dear Sir, yours very truly,
(Signed) JOHN SMITH.

SURPRISING CURE OF A BAD BREAST, NERVOUS DEBILITY, AND GENERAL ILL-HEALTH.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. T. F. Ker, Chemist, &c. Lower Moss-Lane, Manchester, dated February 12th, 1853.

To Professor Holloway.

Dear Sir,—I have great pleasure in forwarding to you the particulars of a very extraordinary cure of a bad breast, effected solely by the use of your celebrated Ointment and Pills. Mrs. Martha Bell, of Pitt-street, in this town, had been for a considerable time labouring under nervous debility, loss of appetite, and general ill health, accompanied by ulcerated wounds in the breast. She had had much experience in the use of all the known remedies for the cure of ulcers, but without any beneficial result, in fact she had nearly lost all faith and hope of a cure being effected. In this distressing and painful condition of body and mind, she was persuaded to have recourse to your invaluable Ointment and Pills, which she immediately did, and in the course of a very short time the effect produced was most astonishing; her appetite was speedily improved, the sores and ulcers in the breast gradually healed, and the nervous excitement of her system was wholly removed.

I remain, Dear Sir, yours faithfully,
T. FORSTER KER.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

SURPRISING CURE OF A CONFIRMED ASTHMA, AFTER FIVE YEARS' SUFFERING.

The following Testimonial has been sent to Professor Holloway, by a Gentleman named Middleton, of Scotland Road, Liverpool.

Sir,—Your Pills have been the means, under Providence, of restoring me to sound health after five years of severe affliction. During the whole of that period, I suffered the most dreadful attacks of Asthma, frequently of several weeks' duration, attended with a violent cough, and continual spitting of phlegm intermixed with blood. This so shook my constitution that I was unfitted for any of the active duties of life. I was attended by some of the most eminent medical men of this town, but they failed to give me the slightest relief. As a last remedy I tried your Pills, and in about three months they effected a perfect cure of the disease, totally eradicated the cough, and restored tone and vigour to the chest and digestive organs.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant,
Jan'y. 1st, 1853. (Signed) H. MIDDLETON.

A PERMANENT CURE OF A DISEASED LIVER OF MANY YEARS' DURATION.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Gamis, Chemist, Yeovil, to Professor Holloway.

Dear Sir,—In this district your Pills command a more extensive sale than any other proprietary medicine before the public. As a proof of their efficacy in Liver and Bilious complaints, I may mention the following case. A lady of this town with whom I am personally acquainted, for years was a severe sufferer from disease of the Liver and digestive organs, her medical attendant assured her that he could do nothing to relieve her sufferings, and it was not likely she could survive many months. This announcement naturally caused great alarm among her friends and relations, and they induced her to make a trial of your Pills, which so improved her general health that she was induced to continue them until she received a perfect cure. This is twelve months ago, and she has not experienced any symptoms of relapse, and often declares that your Pills have been the means of saving her life. I remain, Dear Sir, yours truly,

Nov. 23, 1852. (Signed,) J. GAMIS.

AN ASTONISHING CURE OF CHRONIC RHEUMATISM AFTER BEING DISCHARGED FROM THE HOSPITAL INCURABLE.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. W. Moon, of the Square Winchester.

To Professor Holloway,

Sir,—I beg to inform you that for years I was a sufferer from Chronic Rheumatism, and was often laid up for weeks together by its severe and painful attacks. I tried everything that was recommended, and was attended by one of the most eminent Surgeons in this town, but obtained no relief whatever, and fearing that my health would be entirely broken up, I was induced to go into our County Hospital, where I had the best medical treatment the Institution afforded, all of which proved of no avail, and I came out no better than I went in. I was then advised to try your Pills, and by persevering with them was perfectly cured, and enabled to resume my occupation, and although considerable period has elapsed since, I have felt no return whatever of the complaint.

I am, Sir, your obliged servant,
Oct. 8th, 1852. (Signed) W. MOON.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF DROPSY, AFTER SUFFERING FOR EIGHTEEN MONTHS.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. G. Briggs, Chemist, Goole, dated February 15th, 1853.

To Professor Holloway,

Sir,—I have much pleasure in informing you of a most surprising cure of Dropsy, recently effected by your valuable medicines. Captain Jackson, of this place was afflicted with Dropsy for upwards of eighteen months, to such an extent that it caused his body and limbs to be much swollen, and water oozed as it were from his skin, so that a daily change of apparel became necessary, notwithstanding the various remedies tried, and the different medical men consulted, all was of no avail, until he commenced using your Pills, by which, and a strict attention to the printed directions he was effectually cured, and his health perfectly re-established. If you deem this worthy of publicity, you are at liberty to use it.

I am, Sir, yours respectfully,
(Signed) G. BRIGGS.
