This Man Wears GLASSES
but you hardly notice it at first sight and most of the time he is totally unconscious of it himself.
That's the difference in a nutshell between well-made glasses and poor ones.
Glasses made and fitted by a good optician not only correct your defects of vision, but are comfortable and sightly, harmonizing perfectly with the features. They improve rather than detract from the appearance.
Our glasses are made to meet your individual requirements. The lenses are accurately ground to your prescription, cut to the correct shape and size. The mounting or frame is carefully selected and adjusted to fit you with perfect comfort. That's good optical service, and it costs no more than the other kind.

THE PROBS

Toronto, Jan. 13.—The disturbance mentioned yesterday has moved to the Ottawa Valley, causing strong winds with snow and rain in Ontario and Quebec. Very cold weather continues in the Western Provinces.
FORECASTS:
Northwesterly gales with a change to decidedly colder, snow flurries. Friday, fair and very cold.

CARROL HEIRS SEEK TO UPSET HIS WILL

Woodstock, Jan. 13.—About $18,000 is involved in a writ that was yesterday issued by Montalieu Nesbitt of this city on behalf of the heirs of the estate of the late Dr. Carrol of Ingersoll, against the town of Ingersoll and J. L. Patterson, executor of the estate.

A declaration is asked for that the deceased died intestate as to certain portions of the estate. This portion of the estate was bequeathed to Ingersoll for the purpose of a Protestant hospital, but the heirs are claiming the estate, declaring that the corporation has no right to the share. One contention set up is that under the municipal act the town of Ingersoll has no power to run a hospital, and therefore the heirs seek to upset the will and to secure their share of the property.

TWO LARGE ITALIAN STEAMERS ARE MINED

Rome, Jan. 13.—Two Italian steamers, the Brindisi and the Citta di Palermo, have been sunk by mines in the Adriatic Sea.

Half of the passengers on board the Brindisi were lost. The crew were saved. Nearly all on board the Citta di Palermo, which was an armed vessel, were saved.

The Brindisi was sunk January 6 and the Citta di Palermo January 8.

The steamers were being used as transports.

The Brindisi was a vessel of 8,000 tons, and was owned in Naples. The Citta di Palermo was of 3,341 tons, owned in Palermo.

ONONDAGA COUNCIL

Onondaga, Jan. 10.—This being the day fixed by statute law for the first meeting of Townsnip Councils, the members elected to represent Onondaga Township met in the town hall at 11 p.m. namely A. B. Rose, Reeve; and Councillors A. Barton, M. Hunter, Quintan McBlain and T. Walker, the two first named councillors being new men.

After individually qualifying and taking the declaration of office before the clerk, the Reeve was called to take the chair.

Before proceeding to business, the Reeve gave a few appropriate remarks regarding the work for 1916.

The minutes of the last meeting of 1915 were read and approved.

A communication was received from the Hospital for Sick Children, soliciting aid. In response the treasurer was authorized to send a cheque for $5.

A by-law was passed appointing Messrs C. Edwards and W. Brown as auditors, also one appointing Thomas Howden a member of the board of health to act in conjunction with the Reeve and Dr. Maw, the Medical Health Officer. Messrs S. Deagle, Sr. and A. Mitchell were appointed health inspectors.

The by-law appointing township officers was also passed.

The Reeve signed his order on the Treasurer for the following amounts: viz.: The Children's Hospital, Toronto, $5; Brewster & Heyd, re Township and County assessment, $20; Arrell & Arrell for legal advice, $15.57, and D. W. Moore for municipal statements $2.50.

The Council then adjourned to meet in Middleport on Monday, Jan. 24th at 1.30 p.m.

The Ringing Message of Emperor N on Russia's New Yea

By Special Wire to the Courier.
London, Jan. 14.—Reuter's Petrograd correspondent says that Emperor Nicholas, in an imperial order to the Russian army and navy on the occasion of the Russian New Year's Day proclaimed that there can be no peace without victory. The order follows:
"The year 1915 has passed and it was filled with memorable instances of sacrifice by my glorious forces. In a hard struggle with an enemy strong in numbers and rich in all resources, they have harassed that enemy and checked his invasion, their breasts forming an invincible shield of protection for the fatherland."
"On the threshold of the year 1916, I send to you my greetings my brave warriors. In heart and thought I am with you while you battle in the trenches, imploring the air of the Most High on your work, your valor and your courage. Remember this: Our beloved Russia cannot be assur-

Brantfordites were delighted this morning to see that the names of Lt.-Col. M. A. Colquhoun and Lt.-Col. C. Nelles appeared in the list of military honors.

Lt.-Col. Colquhoun was born near Barrie and came to Brantford 22 years ago to be with the Massey-Harris Co. His many excellent qualities made his promotion rapid and he became foreman of the machine shop in that large establishment, occupying the post with marked success. He
