AT OSGOODE HALL.

The Case of the Toronto Newsboy Coll Against the T. R. in the Court of Appeal.

The end of the month being settling day, even at Osgoode Hall, no less than four actions at the non-jury sittings were settled out of court—Playfair v. Reliance Marine Insurance Company, Haworth v. City of Toronto, McLaughlin v. Dixon and Talbot v. City of Toronto. The action of Fuerst v. Huntley, tried on Wednesday last, in which plaintiff sought to have the lands now in the name of defendant's wife sold to satisfy his judgment against defendant, was yesterday dismissed with costs by Justice Street. In Marshall v. Taylor the defendant did not appear and judgment went against him for $829 and costs. The defendant subscribed for stock in the Fort George Assembly (limited), and has not paid for it.

Court of Appeal.

The Court of Appeal reserved judgment in Coll v. Toronto Railway Company on the defendants' appeal from the judgment of Justice Robertson. The plaintiff is the father and next friend of Dennis Coll, the newsboy, 10 years of age. The action is for damages for injuries sustained by the boy, who, while selling Worlds to his numerous customers, was, as he alleges, pushed off a Yonge-street car by the motorman, and was permanently injured in the right foot. The jury brought in a verdict for the boy for $800, and for the father $103. The company contend that the evidence shows that the boy was pushed off by the eager purchasers of the newspaper, but, in any event, that even if the motorman pushed him off, they are not liable, because he was not acting within the scope of his authority. The instructions of the Toronto Railway Company to its officials are not to push anybody off the cars.

Monday's Lists.

Non-jury sittings, at 11 a.m.: Greenaway v. Wardley, Bell v. City of Toronto, Denison v. Kerr, Dickerson v. Radcliffe, Pettman v. Ferguson, Griffin v. Fawkes.

Divisional Court (Chancery Division), at 11 a.m.: King v. Nesbitt, Lee v. Lang, re Granger, Fisken v. Spe, Griffin v. Fawkes, re Jones v. Julian.

Another Suit Dismissed.

Mr. James Stratha, gatekeeper of High Park, sued the estate of the late Hugh W. Dillon, of 364 Dupont-street, for $80, the amount of a promissory note which he claimed was for money paid as premium on the life policy of $1000 left by the deceased. The will declared that the money was to be used on behalf of the three children, after expenses had been paid. The court decided that this did not include the promissory note, and dismissed the suit.

Trinity Medical College.

The introductory lecture of session 1897-8 will be delivered in the Pavilion, Horticultural Gardens, on Monday next, the 4th inst. at 4 p.m., by Rev. W. J. McCaughan of St. Andrew's Church. The lecture is sure to be interesting and profitable and all friends of the college and the public generally will be heartily welcome. See advertisement.

Art Sales.

Attention is called to the art sales advertised by Messrs. C. J. Townsend & Co. They are two of the most important sales that have taken place in Toronto for many years back, being the works of Messrs J A Fraser, A.R.C.A., and F McGillivray Knowles, A.R.C.A. Both of these gentlemen are so well known to the Canadian art public that their sales will undoubtedly attract considerable attention.

Church of the Redeemer.

Rev. G. A. Rix, the new curate of this church, will preach at both services tomorrow, and will also address the women's Bible-class in the afternoon. Mr. Rix has up to the present been rector at Cannington, and comes to the Church of the Redeemer very highly recommended. He made many friends here on the occasion of his previous short visit to this church.

It is reported that 160 loads of wheat are under contract at New York for direct export to English markets. Indications are that English millers are beginning to stock up.

Farmers in the Western States are feeding corn and oats sixty days ahead of the usual time, thus making unusual drafts on these crops. The drought is almost certain to reduce the winter wheat area, and another ten days of the same conditions will make the situation look bad.

TORONTO LIVE STOCK MARKET.

There were about 37 car loads of live stock arrived to-day, composed of 989 cattle, 1000 sheep and lambs, 25 calves and 1500 hogs. This is independent of what came in yesterday.

The trade for exporters was dull and very slow. Prices ranged from $4 to $4.40 per cwt., one load selling at the latter price, but the bulk of the sales were made at $4 to $4.30. One load of extra choice heavy cattle, weighing 1450 lbs., well finished and equal to the best American cattle, sold at $4.60, but this was an exceptional sale, as it is seldom there is as good a lot offered.

William Mayne sold to J. & C. Coughlin one load, averaging 1350 lbs. each, at $4.30 per cwt.

Joseph Gould bought one lot, weighing 1300 lbs. each, at $4.25 per cwt.

J. & C. Coughlin bought a very fine load, weighing 1350 lbs. each, at $4.40 per cwt.

Butchers' cattle were slow of sale and market dull, especially for the common grades, which were almost unsalable. One dealer brought three car loads of butchers' cattle here on Tuesday, and sold the last of them to-day.

C. Zeagman sold one load, weighing 980 lbs. each, at $3.20 per cwt., and two very nice heifers at $32 per head. Choice picked lots of butcher cattle were worth from $3.50 to $3.75 per cwt., and common to medium at quotations given below.

Heavy shipping bulls were worth from $3.50 to $4 per cwt. Light feeding bulls for the byres sold at $2 to $2.50, and a few choice $2.75 per cwt.

Feeders and stockers sold well, and trade was good. Prices for heavy feeders were a little off in sympathy with the export trade, and cattle weighing 1000 to 1200 lbs. sold at prices from $3.50 to $3.75 per cwt.

S. H. Reynolds of Bowmanville bought 51 light and heavy feeders for the farmers of Darlington, Whitby and Pickering at prices ranging from $3.45 to $3.75 per cwt. He also bought three car loads two weeks ago.

C. Zeagman bought two steers, weighing 900 lbs. each, at $3.40 per cwt.

H. P. Kennedy of Peterboro was a heavy dealer in stockers, feeders and lambs for the Buffalo market. He was shipping seven decks of cattle and lambs, and bought 50 feeders, averaging 1050 lbs. each, at $3.50 to $3.75 per cwt; also 100 stockers at $2.50 to $3.12½ per cwt., according to quality. The feeders were purchased for Ontario farmers.

Cows sold well at $25 to $42 each, about 15 being on the market.

Calves in good demand at $3 to $8 each.

At the close of the market there were seven car loads of butchers' cattle left unsold.

Sheep were dull of sale, and prices ranged from $3 to $3.50 per cwt. for ewes, the bulk going at $3.25; bucks $2.25 to $2.50, and a few at $2.75 per cwt. Lambs $3.75 to $4 per cwt., and $2.50 to $3.25 each, and slow of sale.

J. & J. W. Dunn will ship per C.P.R. seven double-deck cars of export sheep, 1100 in all, to-morrow.

Hogs—Market firm, prices steady, at $5.25 for fat and light hogs, and $5.50 to $5.75 for choice selections.
