THE BRITISH PERIODICALS
AND THE FARMERS' GUIDE.

LEONARD SCOTT & Co.,
No. 54, Gold Street, New York,

CONTINUE to publish the four leading British Quarterly Reviews and Blackwood's Magazine; in addition to which they have recently commenced the publication of a valuable Agricultural Work, called

"THE FARMERS' GUIDE TO SCIENTIFIC AND PRACTICAL AGRICULTURE."

By HENRY STEPHENS, F. R. S., of Edinburgh, Author of the "Book of the Farm," &c., &c., assisted by JOHN P. NORTON, M. A., New Haven, Professor of Scientific Agriculture in Yale College, &c., &c.

This highly valuable Work will comprise two large royal octavo volumes, containing over 1400 pages, with 18 or 20 splendid Steel Engravings, and more than 600 Engravings on Wood, in the highest style of the Art, illustrating almost every implement of husbandry now in use by the best farmers, the best methods of ploughing, planting, haying, harvesting, &c., &c., the various domestic animals in their highest perfection; in short, the pictorial feature of the book is unique, and will render it of incalculable value to the student of agriculture.

The Work is being published in Semi-Monthly Numbers, of 64 pages each, exclusive of the Steel Engravings, and is sold at 25 cents each, or $5 for the entire Work in Numbers, of which there will be at least 22.

The British Periodicals Re-Published are as follows, viz.:—

The London Quarterly Review, (Conservative.)
The Edinburgh Review, (Whig.)
The North British Review, (Free-Church.)
The Westminster Review, (Liberal.)

AND

Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine. (Tory.)

Although these Works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unusually attractive, from the serial Works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that Magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Caxtons" and "My New Novel," (both by Bulwer,) "My Peninsular Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood, after it has been issued by Messrs. Scott & Co., so that Subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.

TERMS:

	Per Annum.
