[FOR THE CHRONICLE.]

ANNAPOLIS ROYAL, N. S.,
June 30th, 1853.

MR. DURANT,

DEAR SIR,—Saturday, the 29th instant, the Port Royal Division Sons of Temperance Tea Soiree came off, and I assure you a brilliant affair it was. To give you a graphic description would be quite out of my power; a cursory glance may suffice. On the green in front of the County Court House was erected a large evergreen building (appropriately termed the Forest Palace) capable of seating six hundred persons. The tables, fourteen in number, were beautifully ornamented with every description of flowers that are now in their delightful season of the year in bloom, and the rich plum cake tastefully decorated with wreaths of splendid roses, &c. The day was very fine; a pleasant breeze from the southward made the air cool and delightful; but how to describe the assemblage on this never-to-be-forgotten day is past my power. It is estimated that three thousand persons were present, and the number of fine, and I may truthfully say, elegant females surpassed anything of the kind that I ever witnessed. The healthy and rosy hue that tinges the lovely cheeks of our fair daughters were never better displayed than upon this joyous occasion; and in fact, men, women, and children made a most respectable appearance. I was sorry that a larger number did not come from St. John; but those that did favour us with their company I hope were paid for their visit in the enjoyment of the day, and the few hours stolen from their business will not be missed. I trust those social meetings will become more frequent, and an opportunity often given by owners of steamboats to our St. John friends to visit our county. I sincerely hope they all arrived to their several homes in safety. It was expected that our respected Governor Sir Gaspard would have extended his tour to this place. A committee was appointed to wait upon his Excellency and invite him to the Soiree. By the way, it is a matter of astonishment to every one that the salute was not answered from the steamer "Pilot." This is the second time that it has occurred. I have forgotten to mention that the fire-works set off in the evening were very good, and a large number of the party waited in town to see them. I am, &c. A.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—On the evening of 4th inst., a young man, William Young, ship-carpenter, formerly of Prince Edward Island, was unfortunately drowned at the Landing, near Watson's Wharf—the deceased, was a stranger in St. Stephen, and the night being very dark, it is supposed that the darkness, combined with his ignorance of the dangerous place, resulted in his premature death.—St. Stephen's Patriot.

"HANNAH CORCORAN."—We have received from Mr. B. O'Brien, a copy of this interesting new publication, and shall notice it more fully next week.

BANK STOCK.—Twelve Shares Commercial, was disposed of yesterday at 12 pr cent. premium.

☞ We beg to return our thanks to Mr. Stephen S. Wiggins, Grand Lake, for the names of Fifteen new subscribers for the Chronicle.

Mr. Stephen S. Wiggins, is an authorized agent for the Chronicle.

☞ The Mail for England to meet the sailing of the steamer at Halifax, will be closed at the General Post Office, on Monday evening at 7 p. m.

CITY CUSTOM.

JAMES GARRETT & CO., would call the attention of their City Customers to a lot of French Satins and Silk Vestings, superior to anything of that description of goods heretofore offered for sale in this market. They will be made to measure at from 30s. to 35s.

Married.

On Saturday morning, at St. John's Church, by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Fredericton, the Reverend Charles Lee, third son of the Hon. Thos. C. Lee, Receiver General of this Province, to Sarah Elizabeth, eldest daughter of H. Bowyer Smith, Esq.

On the 5th July, by the Reverend W. Smithson, Mr. George R. Ligley, Merchant, of Indian Town, to Miss Catherine Munro, of Portland.

On Sunday evening, by the Rev. W. Scovil, A. M. Mr. Robert Gerrish, to Miss Mary Rubins, both of Sand Point, district Portland.

On Wednesday evening, at the residence of Mr. John Anderson by the Rev. A. McLeod Stavely, Mr. John M. Anderson, of this City to Sarah Jane, eldest daughter of Mr. George McCulloch, St. Andrews.

Died.

On Saturday morning, after a lingering illness, Margaret, wife of William McAulay, in the 38th year of her age.

On Monday morning, after a severe illness, Lavinia, wife of Mr. James H. Van Buren, and youngest daughter of Mr. Edward Jones, in the 21st year of her age, leaving a disconsolate husband, with a large circle of relations, to mourn their loss.

On Saturday morning, the 9th inst., Mr. Jas. Shannon, aged 81 years, a native of the County of Tyrone, Ireland.

On Wednesday evening, after an illness of six weeks Mr. William P. Fowler, Clothier, aged 27 years. Funeral on Sunday next, at 2 o'clock, from his late residence, Leinster Street, when friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend.

On the 14 inst., John Albert, the eldest son of Mr. Daniel Lasker, Portland, aged 3 years.

Departed this life on Monday, the 27th June, Mary, wife of Mr. Thomas Kindered, aged 49 years, leaving a husband and five children to lament their loss.

At Studholm, Sussex Vale, on Tuesday, 12th inst., Margaret McArthur Fraser, only child of Mr. Donald Fraser, aged 15 years and 9 months.

At Long Reach, Parish of Greenwich, (K. C.) on the 6th inst., Mr. Thomas Richards, aged 85 years. Mr. R. came to this Province with the Loyalists in 1783, and settling shortly afterwards in what was then a wilderness, soon acquired a comfortable home and a competency,—the sure reward of honest industry,—and was ever ready to assist his less fortunate neighbours and to relieve the wants of the poor. He was firmly attached to the principles of the Church of England, and died in full assurance of a glorious immortality, through the merits of the Redeemer, leaving to eight children and numerous relatives and friends another evidence of the admonition—"Mark the perfect man and behold the upright, for the end of that man is peace."
