

Contents

CHAPTER IX

THE RIVER

Hammersmith—Picnics at Barn Elms—Laud's rooms—Pepys—Sir Thomas More and the King—Turner and Carlyle—The bay at Lambeth—A picture of Westminster in 1751—Shakespeare and Bankside—London Bridge—The Tower—The Upper and Lower Pool—St. Katherine's by the Tower—Elizabethan ships—Boy-king Edward VI. dying at Greenwich	151
---	-----

CHAPTER X

GREAT MEN

Chaucer in Thames Street—Baynard's Castle—Tower Royal—Residence at Aldgate—The King's Mews—Westminster—Spenser—The outburst of literature in Elizabeth's time—Executions on Tower Hill—Old London Bridge—At school in the mansion of The Rose—Essex House—Friendships with Raleigh and Sydney—Death in King Street, Westminster—Milton—His ten residences in London—At the sign of the Spread Eagle—St. Bride's Churchyard—His austerity—Scotland Yard—Petty France—His daughters—Closing scenes—Dr. Johnson—No Londoner by birth—His narrow means—Work at Clerkenwell Gateway—His love for Fleet Street—Taverns—Learned men—Excessive tea-drinking—Dickens—Hardships in early life—The blacking factory—Great changes in London—Lists of other great men	167
---	-----

CHAPTER XI

COMMONPLACE SCENES

Bow Street—An A.B.C. shop—Gradual extinction of the small shop-keeper—Waterloo Station on a foggy day—Character of the Londoner—Street scenes—The Oval—Varieties of fog—Manners—The London policeman	201
--	-----

INDEX	219
-----------------	-----