ALBERT LIME

THE A. B. LIME AND CEMENT CO'Y

Are now prepared to furnish their

Best Quality Selected Lime

By the Car Load at all STATIONS on the ALBERT and INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAYS.

This Lime differs from all other Brands in the market—having peculiar cement qualities, which hardens it like stone, and makes it impervious to the action of water. It requires no cement to improve it, and is the CHEAPEST in the market for all purposes.

For Agricultural purposes it can be furnished by the car load in bulk, CHEAP, and is the best as well as the cheapest fertilizer known.

All orders should be addressed

THE GOLDEN AGE.

Once on a lovely summer's night,
When the moon was hid but the stars were bright;
Tired with a long day's toilsome tramp,
Weary and worn, I had gone to camp.
I was so tired that I could not sleep,
Though my body was weary, my mind would keep
Thinking of all I had ever read,
Of that age which so long ago had fled,
That time of which the poets have told,
The age of reason—the age of gold,
When men were good and nature's hand
Scattered her gifts o'er a smiling land—
No toil, no strife,
But a peaceful life—
Earth was a copy of heaven above,
For love was law, and the law was—love.
Then, as I lay there under the trees,
Whose boughs swayed soft in the evening breeze,
Through the crossed branches I saw a bright star,
Remote from the others, shining afar,
It seemed like a beam from the courts divine,
And I thought, as I watched it twinkle and shine,
Yon star that glows in heaven serene,
These and all other days has seen;
If it would speak, it could surely tell
If men ever lived and loved so well,
And, then, methought that one bright ray
Dropped from the star to where I lay,
Connecting like a golden wire,
My inmost soul with that far off fire;
And breathing gently on my ear,
Sounds like these I seemed to hear:
"From my throne on high,
I have seen glide by,
The ages lost to view;
And I have kept trace
Of the human race,
From the first of men to you.
But all the way,
I grieve to say,
The tale has been the same—
Folly and strife
In each man's life,
And the record is one of shame,
For worthless self
And good of self,
Men always plot and scheme;
And an age of gold,
In times of old,
Is but a poet's dream."
The voice that I heard was low and sad,
And my heart was filled with pain,
And I cried, "will a golden age ne'er come?
Must we always toil in vain?"
And, then, there came on my golden wire,
A sound of music sweet:
And a song was sung in the starry realms,
That no mortal could repeat.
But my heart was calmed and my spirit soothed,
By the message of that song,
For it said that a golden age would come,
And the time would not be long.
For God, who loved poor fallen man,
Would save them by his grace;
And the blessings of pardon, and peace, and love,
Would descend on all our race.

Every Spring.

HOW AN AFFLICTING ANNUAL VISITOR WAS DRIVEN FROM A WEARY WOMAN.

Plain and simple mechanics are not liable to get out of order. Complicated watches, intended not only to keep the time of day, but to mark the movements of the moon and stars, are certain to need frequent repairs. Husbands and fathers often fail to see that their wives and daughters are more delicately organized than themselves, requiring corresponding care when they are well and assistance when they are ill. Yet much better for woman's fine system is a trustworthy medicine, ready at all times for use, than a deal of tinkering by semi-educated local practitioners.

"Every spring," said the wife a well known employee of the Grand Trunk Railway, Montreal, "I have been for some years past troubled with nervous debility and weakness. It was the burden which so many women are called upon to bear, although none the lighter for that.

"Advice and dosing, to be sure, I had in plenty; still, on each returning spring my sickness came as regularly as the buds and blossoms.

"You seem better now."

"Oh yes; I consider myself almost or quite well, and it came about in this way. A lady living on St. Catherine street this city, commended to my attention Sulphur and Iron Bitters. It gave me strength and life. My sister, living in Brockville, whose disease was nearly the same as mine, was equally benefitted by the same thing."

Crushed by the Cars.

A little son of John Spinks, Toronto, had his foot crushed by a G. T. R. Express train some time ago. Two doctors attended him without benefit, and amputation was proposed, but Hagyard's Yellow Oil was tried, which gave prompt relief and effected a speedy cure, even removing all stiffness of the joint.

Pilgrimage to the Holy Land.

[N. Y. Telegram, Feb'y 27th.]

DEPARTURE OF PRIESTS AND LAYMEN—TO VISIT JERUSALEM AND OTHER PLACES.

When the steamship l'Amerique, of the French line, swung into the North River from the pier at the foot of Morton street this morning, bound for Havre, she carried with her eight secular priests and three laymen from the Province of Quebec, who left their several fields of labor in Canada for a pilgrimage to the Old World. The hour set for the sailing of the vessel was five o'clock, but few besides the reverend gentlement were astir at the time. All but a few of the passengers went on board last night. The travelling priests and their companions occupied adjoining staterooms on the left of the saloon. Their names and their respective parishes are:—Vicar General Thomas F. Barry, of Caraquet, N. B.; the Rev. Joseph A. Babineau, of Tracadie, N. B.; the Rev. John B. Lafortune, of St. John the Baptist, Montreal; the Rev. L. Provancher, of Caprone, Quebec, the director of the pilgrimage; the Rev. B. C. Bochet, pastor of Tingwick; the Rev. Thomas Quinn, of Kingsey; the Rev. C. Noel, Vicar of St. Joseph of Levis, and the Rev. J. B. Rioux, pastor of St. Monique, Montreal.

The laymen are Messieurs Gabriel Ledoux, of the parish of St. John Chrysostom; A. Rho, a portrait painter, of Becancour, who will remain in Rome to study; and M. Lefabvre, a Montreal vinegar manufacturer.

The Rev. J. A. Babineau is the chaplain of the lazaretto at Tracadie, where he has twenty-six patients suffering from leprosy to attend to. The Rev. J. B. Rioux, after the pilgrimage, will proceed to Belgium to join the Order of Redemptorist Fathers.

The Rev. L. Provancher stated that the object of the pilgrimage was to venerate sanctuaries in the Holy Land and to pray for the deliverance of the Catholic Church from the troubles of the present day. They will first visit Havre, Paris, Lourdes, Rome, Egypt and Jerusalem, and intend to spend Holy Week in the latter place. They will also visit Bethlehem, St. Sabas, the Dead Sea, Jordan and Jericho. While in Rome they will visit the Pope.

The pilgrims arrived in this city on Sunday last, and were the guests of the Rev. F. Tetreau, pastor of the French Canadian Church of St. John the Baptist, in Seventy-sixth street, near Third avenue. The Rev. Father Tetreau, with his assistant, escorted the party to the vessel and remained with them until the departure. The pilgrims expect to be gone about four months.

Among the other passengers who sailed on the Amerique were Messrs. Juan Bustamento and F. Chacon, of Silva, members of the Spanish Legation at Washington, D. C.

General Notes and News.

The British have buried 2,300 rebels dead around Teb.

If you want fast colors and brilliant shades use the popular package Star Dyes.

Snow of a blood red color fell in North Carolina last week.

A Double Benefit.

James Moore, a prominent resident of Leamington, writes that he cared himself of Dyspepsia of a year's duration by one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and two bottles cured his wife who had been for years a sufferer from the same disease. He conscientiously recommends it to all suffering from similar troubles.

Worms cause feverishness, moaning and restlessness during sleep. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is pleasant, sure, and effectual.

A four year old child, whose parents reside in the vicinity of Truro, weighs 170 pounds.

Is 'there anything more' annoying than having your corn stepped upon? Is there anything more delightful than getting rid of it?' Holloway's Corn Cure will do it.

The British cleared the villages near Tokar and recovered the rest of the guns and rifles taken from Baker Pacha. Osman Digma was not present in Friday's battle.

Did She Die?

"No! She lingered and suffered long, pining away all the time for years,

"The doctors doing her no good;"

"And at last was cured by this Hop Bitters the papers say so much about."

"Indeed! Indeed!"

"How thankful we should be for that medicine."

A Daughter's Misery.

"Eleven years our daughter suffered on a bed of misery,

"From a complication of kidneys liver, rheumatic trouble and Nervous debility,

"Under the care of the best physicians,

"Who gave her disease various names,

"But no relief,

"And now she is restored to us in good health by as simple a remedy as Hop Bitters, that we had shunned for years before using it."—THE PARENTS.

Father is Getting Well.

"My daughters say:

"How much better father is since he used Hop Bitters."

"He is getting well after his long suffering from a disease declared incurable"

"And we are so glad that he used your Bitters."—A LADY of Utica, N. Y.

The manufacturers of Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders inform us that their powders will effectually prevent hog cholera and all other diseases in hogs, and that they will increase the size and weight one-quarter.

J. H. Robinson and Frank Brackett, of Bangor, caught in Sebec Lake, a few days ago, a speckled trout which weighed twenty-seven pounds, was three feet in length, nine inches through and measured eleven inches across the tail. It is one of, if not the largest, trout ever caught in the Sebec waters.

If there is a person in this county who does not know of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment we hope this paragraph will reach that person's eye and that he will write us for particulars of it. It is more valuable than gold, silver or precious stones.

Frosting for cake that will not crack.—The white of one egg, six heaping tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar, one teaspoonful of flavoring. Put a tablespoonful of the sugar upon the white of egg, and begin to beat with fork or egg beater. In three minutes add another spoonful, and so on till the sugar is used. Then add the flavoring and whip till the frosting stands up stiff and can be cut with a knife.

A Favorite Everywhere.

Wherever introduced Hagyard's Yellow Oil finds friends. It is the old reliable household remedy for external and internal use in all aches, pains, lameness and soreness of the flesh. A. L. Geen, a prominent druggist of Belleville, says: "It is a great favorite here, and has a good sale."

Foaming sauce.—Beat one cup of sugar with one half-pound of butter until light and creamy, add the well-beaten yolk of an egg, then the stiff beaten white and beat vigorously, stir into a wine-glass of water and flavor very gently, and set the bowl over the teakettle until it thickens a little, but do not let it over-heat or boil.

Danger Traps.

Neglected colds are the fatal traps that ensnare many a victim beyond possibility of rescue. Take a cold or cough in time and it is easily conquered by that safe and pleasant vegetable remedy, Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. Asthma, Bronchitis and pulmonary complaints generally soon yield to its healing influence.

N. McRae, Wyebridge, writes: "I have sold large quantities of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil; it is used for colds, sore throat, croup, &c., and in fact for any affection of the throat it works like magic. It is a sure cure for burns, wounds, and bruises."

Sponge Cake.—Four eggs, two cups sugar, three cups flour, one teaspoonful of soda, two cream of tartar, and half cup hot water. First break the eggs into a basin, add the sugar and beat till light. Then put in the flour and cream tartar
