LIVE STOCK MARKET

With receipts of 2531 cattle, the supplies were much lighter than a week ago, and with few good cattle offering, the market was strong and demand good for choice butchers, heavy weight steers and good feeders, and briefly summarized, the market was from 25c to 75c, and in the mind of some excellent judges, $1.00 higher, and would average up around 50c. Milkers and springers are holding steady and the prospects all round are much more favorable than a week ago.

The lamb market was steady, choice lambs selling from 14¼c to 14¾c; light, handy sheep, 9½c to 10c, heavy fat sheep and bucks 8c to 9c.

Choice calves sold from 16½c to 17c; medium, 12c to 14c; grassers and common calves, 6c to 7½c. The market for choice calves was off 50c, sheep steady and lambs steady.

There was a heavy run of hogs, 5023 all told, but the price held steady at 18½c, fed and watered; 18¾c, weighed off, and $17.50 to $17.70 f.o.b.

The packers are quoting 50c off for the balance of the week, and the market closed weak.

SPECIAL MARKET NOTES.

The Corbett, Hall, Coughlin Co. sold a load of extra choice steers yesterday, weighing around 1200 lbs. each, to P. Burns & Co. of Calgary, at $13.65, the very top of the market. The cattle were shipped in by Mr. Greenlees of Forest, Ont., and the Corbett, Hall, Coughlin Co. sold another load for the same shipper weighing 1000 lbs., at $11 per cwt., to Frank Hunnisett. Mr. Greenlees was naturally elated at the splendid prices obtained.

Personal Market Note.

For the first time since his recent illness, W. H. Shields of the well-known commission house of J. B. Shields & Son, and president of the Live Stock Exchange, was in his office for a short time yesterday. No man on the exchange is more genuinely respected or held in higher esteem than "Herb" Shields, and everybody was glad to see him around again.
