EXCELLENT PRICES MARKED SHORTHORN AUCTION YESTERDAY

"Rosewood Baron," a Bull, Brought Its Owner $700.

SELLING WAS BRISK

Class From Agricultural College Attended—Many Made Purchases.

A stock sale of unusual interest was held under the auspices of the Western Ontario Consignment Sale Company at the barns which formerly belonged to the Fraser House yesterday. Among those present were Professor Waide Tool and the fourth-year class in agricultural option of the Ontario Agricultural College. The cattle, which were all Shorthorns, were pure-bred animals. Capt. T. E. Robson auctioneered.

The sale commenced at 1 o'clock, and was opened by a speech from Professor Day. He remarked that there was room for more first-class bulls in this country. Capt. Robson also briefly addressed the gathering. "A bull is half the herd, and a poor one will spoil the herd. A man who will improve his stock is a benefit to his fellowmen and to the country," he declared.

At first the buying was slow, but as the crowd began to grow larger selling became brisk. Rosewood Baron, a bull owned by William Waldie, brought $700. Daniel Trestern of Glencoe was the purchaser. The cow that sold for the highest price was Rosebud Myrtle, owned by John Gardhouse & Son. The animal, which sold for $610, was bought by A. J. Fox of Harrow.

Other sales which passed the $300 mark were the following: "Primrose Kate," a cow, owned by R. S. Robson & Son, of Glencoe, to J. A. Latimer of Woodstock, for $465; "Nonpariel Snowdrop," a cow owned by W. Waldie, to F. W. Scott of Highgate, for $405; "Hillside Lass," a cow owned by Oestricher Bros., to John Newman of Paris for $400; "Augusta Queen," a cow owned by H. Lee, to W. C. Rosenberg of Tiffin, for $400; "Broadhooks Ramsden," a bull, bred by Kyle Bros., of Drumbo, to Harry Forbes of Tupperville for $400; "Athelstane Rosemary," a cow owned by William Waldie, to John T. Gibson of Denfield, for $385; "Glen Crescent Crimson Flower 9th," a cow owned by Kyle Bros., to A. Langstaff of Tupperville for $350; "Marshmallow," a cow owned by Oestreicher Bros., to H. A. Sex of Kerwood for $345; "Averne 23rd" a cow owned by R. and S. Nicholson to R. S. Robson & Son of Glencoe, for $335; "Nonpariel Beauty," a cow owned by William Waldie, to M. Littlejohn of Highgate, for $325; "Improver," a bull owned by George Gier, to William M. McAllister of Auburn, for $315; "Mary Anne of Lancaster 18th," owned by E. Brien & Son, to R. S. Robson & Son of Glencoe, for $310.

Among other principal purchasers not mentioned above were: G. R. McDermid, Ridgetown; Harry McGee, Toronto; R. J. Newman, Muirkirk; George Smith, Embro; James R. Fallon, Brantford; Fred Elgie, St. Marys; R. S. Douglas, Ilderton; D. M. Sutherland, Glencoe; Minhinnick Bros., Embro; John Miller, Ashburn; H. Edwards, Komoka; R. W. PROGRESS BULLETIN OF MIDDLESEX VICTORY LOAN

Following is the second progress bulletin issued by County Headquarters in the Victory Loan campaign. It shows the exact amount subscribed by every township, up to and including November 4.

Look it over carefully, Mr. Farmer, and see where YOUR district stands. Get busy and help increase the total of your township. You know you live in the best county in Ontario, and why not prove you live in the best township by subscribing heavily to Victory bonds, and raising that township's standing?

Here's where you stand:

	Total Objective.	Should have Subscribed Nov. 4.	Amount Actually Subscribed.	Percentage Actually Subscribed.	Percentage Should have Subscribed.

The average percentage of the objective reached in Middlesex the first seven days of the campaign is only 18.79%, the percentage that should have been reached is 38.88%. Middlesex is behind all the other counties in the province. This situation must not be allowed to continue. With more than one-third of the time gone it will be necessary to make extra effort for the balance of the campaign in order that Middlesex may occupy its rightful place and uphold its traditional position for wealth, prosperity and loyal to the Dominion.

MR. CANVASSER—IT'S UP TO YOU!

MILITARY OFFICIALS NOT TO BLAME FOR H. R. STRIDE'S DEATH

Such Was Finding of Court of Inquiry, Says Headquarters.

That no blame whatever can be attached to the military authorities for the death of Harley Ross Stride of Dunwich was the finding of the court of inquiry appointed by the general officer commanding this military district to investigate the case.

In view of the interest aroused by the publication of the finding of the coroner's jury which inquired into the circumstances surrounding his death at Iona Station, the following statement has been obtained from the military authorities of this district regarding the case:

Ordered Court of Inquiry.

"As soon as the report of the circumstances reached military headquarters at London, the general officer commanding ordered a court of inquiry to 'inquire into and report on all the circumstances surrounding the arrest, treatment while in the service, and decease of No. 3140190, Pte. Harley Ross Stride, 1st Depot Battalion, W. O. R.'

"The court consisted of Major D. G. P. Forbes, 1st Depot Battalion, W. O. R.; Capt. J. S. Atkinson, 1st Depot Battalion, W. O. R., and Major W. A. McIntosh, O. C., A. M. C. Training Depot No. 1. This court made an exhaustive inquiry at Iona, St. Thomas and London, examining as witnesses all those who came in contact with Pte. Stride from the moment of his arrest till his discharge, together with the members of his family and his attending physician at the time of his death, and after careful consideration made the following finding:

"1. That the arrest of No. 3140190, Pte. Hanley Ross Stride, was perfectly regular under the M. S. A.

"2. That the treatment of No. 3140190 Pte. Harley Ross Stride, while in the service in all respects was good, and that the procedure in having him boarded, categorized and finally disposed of, was carried out as promptly as the requirements of the service would permit.

"That No. 3140190 Pte. Harley Ross Stride was not placed on fatigue work, parades or drills while under the military authorities, and that the food supplied him was of good quality and plentiful in quantity.

"3. That No. 3140190 Pte. Harley Ross Stride died on the night of October 12, 1918, at his home near Iona Station of broncho-pneumonia, and that his final acute illness developed after he had been given indefinite leave.

"4. That no blame whatever can be attached to the military authorities for the death of No. 3140190 Pte. Harley Ross Stride.

"It may be noted that the sub-paragraph of paragraph 2 above is in direct conflict with the finding of the coroner's jury. The jury's finding was apparently based on the statements alleged to have been made by Stride to his parents, which everyone knows are not evidence, whereas the finding of the military court is the result of sworn evidence of all those with whom Stride came into contact from the time he was arrested until he was discharged.

"The proceedings and finding of this court of inquiry are available for perusal by anyone who may be interested in the case."

HUNS EXPOSED IN STARTLING PLAY AT MAJESTIC THEATRE

Dorothy Gish in "The Hun Within," an Artcraft Production.

COMEDY AND WEEKLY

"Jack" King, "the Boy With the Voice and Songs," in Vaudeville.

"The Hun Within," a startling exposure of the German spy system, was shown at the Majestic Theatre yesterday afternoon and evening to capacity audiences. The star of this production, Dorothy Gish, was never featured in a play more suited to her particular style of acting.

The photoplay is one of the most thrilling, independent of its spectacular features, ever produced.

The story deals with the fortunes of a young American girl who loves the son of Henry Wagner, a German-American, who came to this country years ago to escape the autocratic rule of the German kaiser. Wagner is a staunch patriot, and when his son returns from Germany just before the outbreak of the war, he becomes a tool of Knippen, a German spy, who makes the Wagner home his headquarters. Beth learns of a plot to destroy a United States transport by means of a bomb, and when the spies ascertain this, they make her a prisoner.

Beth gets out of the trouble in which she is involved only when Frank Douglas, a secret service operative, who loves her, but whom she has treated rather coldly, comes to her rescue. They prevent the destruction of the transport by sending a wireless message to the captain—and just in the nick of time, too. When Wagner learns of his son's treachery, he upraids him, only to be shot for his pains, but this results in the arrest of the spies after they have been saved from lynching at the hands of a mob. All ends happily for Beth and Douglas, who now realize that they love each other.

In addition to the above production, a Harold Lloyd Comedy, "Swing Your Partners," and a Majestic News Weekly film are presented.

In vaudeville, "Jack" King, "the boy with the voice and the songs," was tendered another enthusiastic reception. Mr. King is possessed of a magnificent tenor voice, clear as a bell and of wonderful range and carrying power. "Jack" is also possessed of personality that wins him encores galore. Mr. King came direct from an engagement at the Majestic Theatre, Detroit.

"THE HUN WITHIN"
Girl—Dorothy Gish, George Fawcett and Stan Pitt
A Paramount-Artcraft Star

At the Majestic again today. Also a Harold Lloyd Comedy, a Majestic News Weekly, and "Jack" King, the golden-voiced tenor, in select songs.

STOLEN MONEY FOUND IN BAG BURIED IN LEAVES

TORONTO, Nov. 6.—Covered with leaves, a bag containing $9,000 in bills was found by detectives this afternoon in a yard at the read of a house on Garden avenue. With this find the police have recovered all but $150 of the $20,000 stolen from the Buffalo express train on October 23.

Shackled with handcuffs, John Lett, one of the three men under arrest in connection with the robbery, was taken by detectives to Garden avenue, and after a lengthy search found the money. The bag had been thrown over a fence and was lying between the fence and a chicken house. It had not been disturbed, and the leaves that partly covered it from view had been blown over it by the wind.

AMERICAN CONSUL AT CHARLEROI IN BELGIUM KILLED BY ALLIED SHELL

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 6.—The American consul and seven British war prisoners have been killed by the bombardment of Charleroi, southwest of Namur, in Belgium, according to Berlin dispatches received here.

Iron Recommended After Influenza.

Doctors recommend that people take iron to build up the blood after an attack of Spanish Influenza. One of London's best-known physicians remarked several days ago that hundreds of people who have had influenza will contract pneumonia this winter if they do not build up their systems properly. The germs of this dread malady impoverish and poison the blood, and as a result the system is left in a weakened condition. The limbs feel weak, and the man or woman recuperating from "Flu" find they have no inclination to perform their duties. The best and most modern way known to science to take iron is in the form in which it is put up in Tonal-Iron Capsules, the new French gelatin remedy, and hundreds of people are using it after an attack of influenza with excellent results. These capsules are soft and dissolve very quickly in the system, and all the iron they contain is quickly absorbed. This remedy also contains several other non-narcotic stimulants, and creates an appetite, as well as working on the bowels, liver and kidneys. Tonal-Iron Capsules are guaranteed by the manufacturers, and are sold by all druggists in Canada and the United States for $1 a box, or mailed anywhere in Canada on receipt of the price. Tonal-Iron Company, Box 134, London.
