"I FEEL LIKE A NEW BEING"

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Brought The Joy Of Health After Two Years' Suffering

MADAM LAPLANTE

35 St. Rose St., Montreal. April 4th.

"For over two years I was sick and miserable. I suffered from constant Headaches, and had Palpitation of the Heart so badly that I feared I would die. There seemed to be a lump in my stomach and the Constipation was dreadful. I suffered from Pain in the Back and Kidney Disease.

I was treated by a physician for a year and a half and he did me no good at all. I tried "Fruit-a-tives" as a last resort. After using three boxes, I was greatly improved and twelve boxes made me well. Now I can work all day and there are no Headaches, no Palpitation, no Heart Trouble, no Constipation, no Pain or Kidney Trouble and I feel like a new being—and it was "Fruit-a-tives" that gave me back my health".

MADAM ARTHUR LAPLANTE.

What Society is doing

THE KNITTING BRIGADE

Up and down through our country wide,
(Clickety-clack! clickety-clack!)
Needles are plying busily.
(Over and back, over and back!)
The stay-at-homes and the travelers, too—
Go where you will, they're everywhere,
Knitting away with khaki wool,
Or gray, for a boy gone "Over There"!

Needles of amber, bone or steel.
Needles fashioned of silver, gold.
Wielded by soft and slender hands,
Or work-worn fingers, gnarled and old;
Mothers and sisters, sweethearts, wives—
Every one of us boasts a pair!
Ours is the task all women love,
To hearten their men gone "Over There"!

LAURIER EVADED CALL FOR HELP

Liberal Claims That Leader Favors Support of War Examined and Exploded

NO EFFORT TO ASSIST

Premier Borden Points to Reply to Hamilton Club as Indicating Attitude

St. Mary's Ont., No. 23—Since the Laurier campaign in Ontario got under way Laurierite candidates have been laboring to prove that their leader is just as earnest in his support of the war as Sir Robert Borden and his Unionist colleagues just as zealous in his effort to support the men at the front. Just how zealous he has been may perhaps be gauged by his response to the Hamilton Canadian Club's appeal for assistance in recruiting. Addressing an audience that packed the local theatre this afternoon Sir Robert Borden took up the challenge of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's interview defending his support of recruiting.

"I do not desire to say anything offensive, and I will not say anything offensive about Sir Wilfrid Laurier or any other man, but I must say this that as far as my knowledge goes—and if he is prepared to hsow I am wrong I will admit it aat once—I know of very little effort Sir Wilfrid Laurier has made to aid recruitinv in Canada durinp the past few years, and particularly in his own province."

Sir Robert said he had noted a recruiting address Sir Wilfrid Laurier had made in Quebec. In that address the Liberal leader had asked for recruits, but in the same utterance he had declared he had no confidence in the Government—a strange way of encouraging young men to offer their services to the government and the country—and he had reflected upon Great Britain for not aiding France against Germany in 1870.

"Was that calculated to bring the young men of Quebec to rally to the colors?" asked Sir Robert. "Then I had asked him to join in the National Service campaign in the summer of 1916, but he did not see fit to do so. That was one of the things I referred to in Halifax. The other he has not met, and inasmuch as he has alluded to my statement as a whole I am going to emphasize what I said at Halifax and make good my statement to the country. I propose to do that this afternoon in order that the situation in this regard may be fully understood by the people of this country."

BRANTFORD RED CROSS WORK.

The prices of wool for soldiers' socks and material for hospital garments have been continually soaring, and the local Red Cross funds are greatly depleted. In the face o fthis we must earnestly urge all those in arrears with Red Cross envelopes to promptly pay their monthly pledges.

Monday morning, notices will be mailed to those in arrears, enclosing Red Cross envelopes in case original ones have been lost. The month of December is not included in these.

This is a matter of vital importance, give it your prompt attention.

Brantford women have won much praise for both quantity and quality of their Red Cross work.

Do not be the means of slackening this work.
