...meeting of the Stockholders of the Char-County Bank took place on the ...inst ke into consideration the expediency of ing the Capital of that institution into nch of the Bank of British North Ame-, and thereby complete a negotiation end into by a Committee previously appoint from the Shareholders with Mr. Carter, the missioner from the Court of Directors in don, when a Majority were in favor of measure. It having been made a queswhether a majority had the power to quish the Charter, the question was sub-ed to professional Gentlemen, and their nion being in the negative it has since n resolved upon to procure a Branch or ency of the Bank of British North Amea, independent of the Charlotte County nk in prosecution of which resolution, essrs. Wilson and Rait, undertook to pro-re subscriptions for the requisite amount, d it is most satisfactory for us to announce at in a few hours the list was filled. Ap-cations have been made for a larger sum hich could not be complied with. We have s the prospect of having an introduction Capital to the extent of £40,000 Sterling hich we are convinced must be of much neral service to the mercantile interests in is Town. We may be here allowed to re-ark in our opinion it is a fortunate circumance, that the refusal of the Charlotte County nk to meet the views of those who have the terest of the place at heart, as the result, we ave every reason to believe will be even more vorable than if they had given compliance: nd it is pleasing to observe that many of e Shareholders in the one have largely subcribed to the other; the best of feeling may onsequently be anticipated between the wo institutions, and rivalry entirely excluded.

To CORRESPONDENTS.—We cannot assume the responsibility attached to the Publication of communications under feigned signatures, unless the writer furnish us with his name, which shall be kept perfectly secret, if not demanded by any one who may be aggrieved.

The voluminous contributions from St. James and St. David have already swelled into such a mass of matter as we are fearful to encounter.—We observe that the exciting case of Miss Rogers is brought before the Assembly and we shall probably have the report in full, which renders it of no use to publish Mr. Mitchell's letters at present, particularly as they have evolved their first subject into a party account of the inquiry.

The very long, very clever, and very severe letter of JOHN KING is received—and also all Mr. Mitchell's series to No 6 inclusive.

Pharos's lines will appear in our next.
