BRITISH IMPERIALS HEAR CANDIDATES

McBride, Church and Ballantyne Make Strong Bids for Mayoralty.

According to G. Wills, president of the British Imperial Association, the B.I.A. does not endorse any candidate for municipal honors, the desire being to hear all candidates and to give all fair play. The first of the three meetings to hear mayoral and controller candidates was held at Earlscourt Public School. G. Wills presided.

Ald. Ramsden (for controller) thought he was entitled to a step higher, after seven years' service in the council and was in favor of the new bylaws to come before the voters on January 1, especially T.S.R. purchase, which, he said, the people were a unit in supporting.

Asked if he was for compulsory vaccination, Ramsden replied that he was not in favor of anything compulsory.

A Critical Year.

Alderman Ball, in reviewing the work of the council, pointed out the fact that this year was one of the most critical in the history of the city, especially in the proposed bylaw to purchase the street railway. In addition to the appointment of three commissioners, there would be an arbitrator also appointed who would be responsible to the council. He advocated the erection of the arena because it would be a revenue producer, but was in favor of retaining the abattoir by the city because he thought it was in the interests of the people. Touching on the name of Earlscourt, Alderman Ball made it clear that he was for the retention of the name and so far as he was concerned it should never undergo a chance of name. (Applause). "If you say, 'Ball, you should step up,' it will be all right, after five years public work on the council, he said, and the meeting agreed that he should go up one!

Transportation Main Issue.

Controller Maguire convinced the voters that transportation was the one thing needed to improve the city of Toronto for no city can stand still, but must go forward. If you look at the street cars packed with humanity, a disgrace to the city, did it ever occur to you that cattle are not so badly packed as men, women and children are today? The owners of same should be brought into court and fined for overcrowding!

The T.S.R. corporation never lived up to its promises, it was the policy to look after the shareholders and the public could go hang. "And, remember," added Maguire, "the interests may yet try to prevent the bylaw being passed, they will seek to defeat it if possible. Vote and vote strong for its purchase on January 1."

Ballantyne for Public Ownership

J. H. Ballantyne, candidate for mayor, was 100 per cent. advocate of public ownership of the utilities, the labor party that he represented was in favor of all the bylaws except the non-payment of the commission, which savored of class legislation, he said. When Mr. Ballantyne said, "When I am elected mayor," there was considerable laughter and one present said, "Not this year."

James Simpson's Views

James Simpson spoke at length on assessment reform and contended that the T. S. R. should never have been sold to a private corporation by the city. The Telegram being guilty of the offence of opposing public ownership, he said. Mr. Simpson, in asking for support as controller, said that Earlscourt was his old historic fighting ground and he had many friends here.

McBride Optimistic

Controller Sam McBride opened his speech by saying he would be the mayor of Toronto in 1920—a mayor who will not need to be told to do things by newspapers. "I am running on my own record of 15 years, irrespective of all of them and when I'm mayor I expect they'll print an extra edition in red ink," he laughingly remarked, at which the meeting roared.

Speaking of the purchase of T. S. R., he declared that it was better that the 3 men should be unpaid as the high salaried men only got their job by political influence and "pulls." "When I am mayor," McBride repeated, "I shall see that Joe Gibbons, an honest, fearless and capable man, is appointed to the street railway board. The commission should be appointed by council and not by a newspaper, neither will the commission have the handling of a 5c piece. 'Thank God," said McBride, "the finances will be in the hands of Com. Bradshaw, a man the city of Toronto should be proud of. Simpson had referred to the benefits of the Hydro-Electric system and the value of pressing a button for the comforts of life, Cont. McBride taking this up said he hoped the button would be touched that would put him in the mayor's chair on Jan. 1.

Royce Park will be purchased for the people of this district, was the statement of Mr. McBride, and St. Clair avenue should have the best lights and the best roadway, he declared.

Poolroom License.

A new poloroom recently opened on St. Clair avenue was subject of some criticisms, Controller McBride stating that the permit to open this poolroom was not obtained thru proper channels, and it looked as if the police commissioners had had one put over them. It is claimed that few if any residents on St. Clair saw the petition, and that the whole thing was done sub rosa. The controller charged no one with being guilty, but said the whole thing looked queer, and invited those present to examine the papers at the police commissioners' office. He declared that he was with Sir Adam Beck in all of his Hydro radial system, contrary to what the press had said.

Mayor Church, who arrived late, was cordially received, and repeated his desire to see all the bylaws voted on this year which would mean so much to the city's progress. To The World, the mayor said: "Royce Park is under arbitration, and there can be no doubt whatever but that this property will be purchased within a very short time. It is already expropriated."

Football Moguls Help the Needy

The council of the United District League met last night, and, this being the last meeting of the financial year, the principle business was the preparation of the financial statement. Several grants were made to players from the Robertson Cup fund, who had had to receive medical attention on account of injuries received. F. Crawly, All Scots, received $40; R. Richards, Baracas, $25; Hamilton players, $20.25. Old Country were granted a donation of $88 to help defray deficit in games with Detroit Roses.

Final arrangements were made for the banquet. It was reported that a large majority of those invited had accepted. Clubs desirous of securing tickets for any of their members must have their applications in not later than Friday morning, Dec. 26, after which date positively no tickets will be sold.

The council discussed amendments to the rules. Some were endorsed by the council and the secretary instructed to prepare a list of same for publication. The same will appear in these colmnsu when completed.

SLOW BOUT.

Philadelphia, Dec. 22.—Harry Greb, Pittsburg heavyweight, had the edge on Clay Turner, New York, in a slow six-round bout here tonight. Greb was the aggressor thruout the contest.

MONEY FOR BENNY.

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 22.—Benny Leonard, lightweight champion of the world, gained a newspaper decision tonight over Abel, local welterweight, in ten rounds of fast boxing. Leonard gave an exhibition of speed and cleverness that out-did anything Abel had to offer.

LONDON CURLING.

London, Ont., Dec. 22.—Six rinks of London curlers paid a return visit to the Thistle Club tonight, where they were greeted with excellent sheets of keen ice and real good fellowship abounded. The home curlers won by a majority of ten shots, which about evened the score as far as play on the ice is concerned.

It could easily be seen that this sort of competition is preferred over the club bonspiels, where some trifling set of prizes is at stake. Playing the game for the game itself is really worth while. Rev. T. McCullough, formerly of Harriston and Port Hope, now a resident of this city, won his game by three shots from F. Herb. Hindmarsh, while Schoolmaster W. J. Snelgrove won by six shots from Majojr Dr. Brown, formerly of Lindsay.

NEW YORK SUNDAY PAPERS TO ADVANCE THEIR RATES

New York, Dec. 22.—Publishers of all newspapers in New York except two, who already have increased their rates, will advance the price of Sunday papers in the country districts to 10c on or before Jan. 4, in answer to the plea of the house committee on postoffice and post roads, that newspaper publishers immediately reduce consumption of newsprint paper 10 per cent. below normal to relieve the paper shortage.

This announcement was made today by the American Newspaper Publishers' Association, which added that publishers of all but one of the New York evening papers had decided to issue no editions on either Christmas or New Year's Day.

Restore Brantford Streets To Pre-War Brilliancy

Brantford, Dec. 22.—(Special.)—For three years past, Brantford business men have been with insufficient lighting in the business district, the wartime restrictions being held responsible for most of the time, because of the impossibility of securing parts. The parts arrived today, and by Tuesday night the street lighting will reach its pre-war mark.
