that the improper motives was in some measure due to my own management. I also believe that the country was of that opinion. My own constituents have so far approved of my public course, by giving me an increased number of votes each time that I have appeared before them, and I further believe that my late colleagues and myself, were ousted from office, not by the voice of public opinion, but by a politically dishonest, conspiracy, concocted in an upper chamber of the Barker House, that must always remain a blot in the attained the object which it was well understood at that time was his aim—being returned to the Assembly by one man, having voted for him three times, and another twice, and by the decision of a gentleman acting as Sheriff, whose integrity is unquestionable, but whose judgement—contrary to all parliamentary practice in this Province—is universally condemned. He, like the Sun, in his decline, was great in power, and in the exercise of political might. I believe that he has lost in charity with those who have gone before him, who have done everything which the Province can have to complain of, and yet have had political oblivion to which he has arrived, but that political oblivion to which he has arrived, but that political oblivion to which he has arrived, but that political oblivion.

I have the honor to be, Sir, your humble and obedient servant,

ROBERT B. WILMOT.

COMMUNICATIONS.

[FOR THE CHRONICLE.]

Eastport, 17th Sept. 1855.

Mr. Editor.—One short year has sped the year its course since the present Government came into power, and never did a new Administration enter on its duties with apparently brighter prospects, or the promise of a longer tenure of office. The old Government, having a remnant of the family compact, so far weakened the public confidence, and at its helm an unsteady hand, and one in whom no party could place any dependence, fell from its high position; but although there were various reasons why a change of administration was desirable, there was no wish on the part of the people of New Brunswick for a totally Radical Government. I believe that out of the present House of Assembly you could not select, taking them as a whole, a more incompetent or weather-cock set of politicians. They appear to have no fixed principles, excepting in looking after their quarter salaries. They individually protested that they did not want office or emolument—they merely threw themselves into the gap to save the country from the reckless extravagance of Messrs Partelow & Co.—and behold they have added tenfold to the public burden. We with many others regret, and deeply regret that the high and honorable appointment of a seat on the Bench should have fallen into the hands of Messrs. Brown, Smith, Steves & Co.; but shocking and serious as the matter is, we see it would out. We see an individual who could not again have been returned for his County—an individual who, I am afraid, will allow his prejudices to blind his judgment—who never commanded the respect or love of his colleagues, political or professional—and who from the commencement of his career determined that nothing should prevent the accomplishment of his base purposes, viz: to place himself in such a position that when his political professions were found to be a delusion and a snare, he would be out of the reach of punishment. But, Mr. Editor, does it not seem very singular that Mr. Charles Fisher, the Attorney General, and on whom constitutionally the ermine should have fallen, waived his right? Have the antecedents of Mr. Charles Fisher a tendency to cause people to suppose that he (Mr. Fisher) willingly and smilingly gave up his right to the Bench without taking into account any promises or bargains previously entered into? I say, will any sane man, who knows Mr. Charles Fisher, believe this? No, Mr. Editor: there is not an individual in the County of York, or in any other County, who is at all acquainted with Mr. Charles Fisher, who will for a moment believe it. I believe that, at the Barker House, a bargain and sale in anticipation was entered into—I believe that it was as wretched and unlawful a conspiracy as traitors were ever guilty of—I believe that for the base purpose of putting money into the pockets of some, and the desire of being raised above the punishment richly deserved (by them) an unholy compact was entered into, and the different great political parties in the Province made the cat's-paws for the moment. But the scales are now beginning to fall from the eyes of their dupes. The Orangemen have nailed their colours to the mast—the Protectionists have declared no Free-trade Government for New Brunswick—the Conservatives no Radical Executive—the Temperance men no sacrifice of our principles in order to sustain Mr. Tilley in the receipt of some £800 per annum—and last, not least, every loyal subject no terms with Annexationists and Papists. Now, Mr. Editor, to shew the high and unselfish character of Mr. Charles Fisher, I would mention one little matter that I have heard stated, and if is not true, the Courier, or Mr. Fisher himself, or some friend of his can clear it up, viz:—That Mr. Chas. Fisher, at the time of the change of Government, was Registrar of King's College, at a salary of £100 per annum; that upon Mr. Fisher becoming Attorney General, knowing that his being a member of the College Council and holding the appointment of Registrar were incompatible, and that he could not continue to hold it constitutionally, he wished to have his brother Edward, I think,) appointed; but finding that there was another applicant for the berth, and also finding that this applicant stood a better chance than his brother, this honorable and high-minded gentleman, being at the head of a Government that could carry everything in the Legislature, and were as a consequence all-powerful in everything else, managed to put off the meeting of the College Council. No meeting has ever since taken place; no business has to be done; and Mr. Charles Fisher, Her Majesty's Attorney General, is still Registrar of King's College, with his hundred a-year. If true, this little fact speaks volumes.

I remain, your obedient servant,

A PROTECTIONIST.

THE COMMON CLERK.

Mr. Editor,—We hear as yet nothing of the appointment made by the Common Council, of the Clerk, being abrogated by the Council above.—Among so many seekers, each one is desirous of a chance. If it is only for the vain and distant chance of the office falling to themselves individually. This, perhaps, is natural; but it is much to be hoped that the Executive Council will not so far forget themselves as to place the Common Council and their Clerk in direct antagonism, and the City business suffer in consequence, and this is a matter where they have not the slightest concern. The people have chosen their own Clerk, and if, as the Executive pretend, they respect the "well understood wishes of the people," they will leave the appointment alone. W.

Never marry for a fortune. We overheard a most unfortunate get the following sock-do-larger, the other day, from his better-half.

"You fool to nothing fellow!" said she, "what good do, had I not married you? Whose house was burning down, whose the pig-trough upset the spring rain, that the iron-hooped butter, but thou, when you married me?"

Dr. Neill's Invigorating Balm.

THIS admirable preparation is the most effectual remedy known for Baldness and falling off of the Hair, giving it a rich glossy appearance, unequalled by anything of the kind. It contains no alcohol or alkaline substance, (as all the washes do which are now used,) and will restore the natural colour after those articles have deprived the hair of it. We can refer enquirers to persons, both old and young, many of them who have been bald seve al years, and have had their hair stored by this preparation. It acts by assisting nature and will in no way prove injurious. Prepared and Sold by FELLOWS & CO.

MODEL MELODEONS.

NEWLY improved "MODEL MELODEONS," Sold at the Cabinet Ware-Rooms of the Messrs. J. & G. LAWRENCE, head of King Street. These Instruments have received the approbation of the best judges for the Durability and Beauty of the workmanship and excellent Tone.

St. John, N.B., March 27th, 1855.

Mr. STEVENS:

DEAR SIR.—It is with pleasure I make known to you the opinion of myself and many others of the MELODEON purchased from you a few months ago. This instrument manufactured by MASON & HAMLIN, has given the utmost satisfaction, both in TONE, TOUCH, and POWER, and I do freely, and cheerfully admit it is the best I have ever seen. Since the introduction of this instrument in our Choir Practice we find a great improvement, thereby sustaining the Voice, and procuring a perfect Tone to every Note.

I am dear Sir, yours truly,

Corner of King Street and Market Square

LIKENESSES TAKEN IN THE LATEST IMPROVED STYLE.

THE Proprietor would most respectfully call the attention of the Ladies and Gentlemen of this City to his Rooms, which have been tastefully fitted up, and he would remind the public that if they desire to procure a perfect PICTURE, it would be to their advantage to patronise his Establishment, as he flatters himself that he can produce Likenesses equal, if not superior to any Artist in North America.

Having served a regular apprenticeship at the Profession, (not having to abandon a former business, as some who are now practising the Art have done) and also having at a great expense obtained the latest improvements in Daugerreotyping, as well as the newest and most improved Apparatus, he is willing to challenge for $100 or $250, any Daugerreotypist in this City or America, to produce a picture, equal in tone, beauty, finish and appearance to that taken in his Establishment. The challenge to be decided by two of the most experienced Daugerreotype Artists in the United States.

THE HORSE,

In Health and Disease.

THE Subscriber begs to intimate to his friends and the Public generally that he is prepared to give his entire attention to all matters relating to the Purchase, Sale, and Treatment in Disease, of Horses entrusted to his charge. He does not arrogate to himself (as others have done) the sole right and qualification to give advice and administer Medicines in Veterinary cases, but simply refers to his many years experience and to the multitude of successful cases which have been confided to his care by the leading men of St. John and its vicinity.

NEW HORSE SHOEING AND GENERAL BLACKSMITH ESTABLISHMENT

JAMES SCRYMGEOUR—beg leave to state to the Public of New-Brunswick that he has commenced Business on his own account next to the Golden Ball corner, where he is prepared to execute all work in his line in a scientific and approved system.

MR. SCRYMGEOUR having served under the celebrated Professor Dick, and been taught the business of SHOEING in the most scientific manner and with all the modern improvements, he conceives himself fully master of his trade, and above making any attempt to imitate or adopt any other system. The method pursued by Mr. Scrymgeour is calculated when horses have been injured in their feet by bad shoeing, to remedy the evil, and restore them again to perfect usefulness.

The subscriber respectfully solicits a trial from the public, as they feel assured of giving simple satisfaction.
