ST. LAWRENCE AND PRODUCE MARKET

General Trend of Prices on Domestic Stuff is Easier.

The wholesale produce market for the most part is showing a weaker feeling, the potato trade especially being very unsettled and as low as 75c a bag in lots is quoted in country points. Locally the market hangs around $1 to $1.25, but there is such a wide range in prices that it is difficult to get a line on just what the potato market is doing or is likely to do. The weather is singularly favorable for shipping them to the big centres, and opinion is divided as to the future. The natural trend in butter and eggs is toward easier prices with liberal receipts.

We quote prices as follows:

Butter and Eggs, Wholesale.

Wholesale prices to the retail trade:

Eggs—

Quite a lot of hay is coming in, but the price is easier at the figures quoted, No. 1 timothy selling on the St. Lawrence market at from $35 to $36 a ton, with an extra choice load bringing $37 a ton; No. 2 mixed is selling from $33 to $34. Little or no straw is coming in.

Would You Invest $100 to Win $10,000.00?

Naturally, you are going to say, "Of course I would, provided I stand a reasonable chance to win, and will get an honest run for my $100."

We Have No Stock For Sale

The proposition is a simple one, strictly legitimate, and the large possible profit is not exaggerated.

The CANADIAN-TEXAS OIL SYNDICATE, composed of and managed by well-known business men of Toronto, have just secured a most valuable 2,000-acre oil lease in the midst of the North Central Texas Oil Field, in Coryell County, surrounded by drilling wells. This lease has been divided into 400 Five-Acre Lease units.

A limited number of these 5-Acre Oil Leases are now being sold for $125.00 each. But this price will quickly advance to $150.00. Oil Leases in the proven fields of Texas have been known to increase in value almost overnight from $25 per acre to $4,000 per acre.

The Canadian-Texas Oil Syndicate are ready to begin

Drilling a Well Now

You will not have long to wait to have your lease proven up. The enhancement in acreage values following the completion of an oil well adjoining your lease means thousands of dollars in profits.

The BASS PETROLEUM COMPANY paid $1,500,000 for forty acres in Stephens County recently.

The RYAN PETROLEUM COMPANY paid $2,000,000 for sixty acres in the Burkburnett field.

$100,000 was paid for a single acre in the North-West Burkburnett Field.

$10.000 per acre has been repeatedly paid for proven acreage. Remember also that when you buy a 5-acre lease from the Canadian-Texas Oil Syndicate you ABSOLUTELY control the property YOURSELF.

This is one of the cleanest cut propositions ever offered the investing public.

Considering the small initial investment required to sit in and share in the large possible profits, the hazard is practically nil. Nothing like it has ever been offered the buying public. REMEMBER, we have only a small number of the 5-acre leases left; first come, first served. Write, wire or call in person.

PLAY THE SCOTTISH CUP GAMES TODAY

Big League Clubs Have the Advantage — Chelsea Meet Newcastle U.

By W. H. Scott.

The second round of the Scottish Cup opens in the land o' cakes this afternoon, when some rare clashes are down for decision. Taking the draw as it stands, the big league teams appear to have all the advantage, since the most the amateurs can expect in the next round will be three teams. Motherwell have a walkover in their game with Renton, while Rangers have also an easy task with Morton. The clash at Partick, where Hibernians provide the opposition, is about the best game on the card, and the Hibs will do well to force a draw.

Celtic should make easy meat of Vale of Leven, while the unfortunate Dumbarton might meet a snag in Elgin City. Albion Rovers are in easy with Mid-Annandale, while a good game should result from the meet of Solway Star and East Stirlingshire, with the latter just getting the edge. Bo'ness should beat Armadale, while the Academicals should force a draw at Broxburn. Stevenston United may go down to East Fife, while Queen of the South will just about win from Nithsdale. Kilmarnock will find strong opposition from Aberdeen, since the "Smelly" Aberdeen is a great team in cup games. The Clyde and Hearts game should be a corker, and well left alone, as no line can be drawn on their league form, and anything might happen in this clash. Ayr United have an easy thing on with Dykehead, and the "sandbag and jam town" will clean up Stenhousemuir. Clydebank will beat Alloa.

The game of extreme interest in the first division is the great match at Newcastle, where Chelsea, the team of all the talent, provide the opposition, and, by the way, will go down. The Stamford Bridge boys have never been very successful on their previous visits to the Tyne. Burnley are at home to Aston Villa, and the Witton lads may take a point back to Birmingham. Bolton Wanderers entertain Bradford City, but the Yorkshiremen will get little change out of their visit. Derby County should exchange places at the bottom of the table when they meet Oldham, who are a most disappointing side this year. Everton will have to go all the way to beat Manchester City, while Huddersfield should improve their position at the expense of Blackburn. A local Derby will be staged at Manchester, where the United mix up with Liverpool. Billy Meredith's boys will have their work cut out to beat the Pudlians, and I expect the latter to get away with a draw.

The Second Division.

Birmingham, who are at home to Notts County, will find the latter tired stuff since the County can hardly have recovered from their hard cup games with Everton. The Wednesday, who travel to the seaside, will find Blackpool a tough proposition, while Bristol City will do well if they at least draw with Leicester. Cardiff should go to the top of the table after their meet with the Potters, but the Hammers will find Leeds United more than they can handle. Notts Forest, who hook up with the Wolves, may find the latter easy going, while the Orient may snatch the points from South Shields.

Third Division Games.

Crystal Palace, who top the division, visit Grimsby, who had the honor of shifting the Saints from the same position, and it is quite possible that the fishermen might make the table more open by like treatment to the glaziers. Grimsby is a hard team to beat at home. Brighton and Hove are at home to the Saints, who will go down, while Watford should come within reaching distance of the leaders after their match with Swindon, since the latter are not to be relied upon. All the other home teams in this league should win their respective games.

The complete schedule is as follows:
