—Eminence is not to be reached by a frantic struggle. The road to it is much more common place. He that would dazzle must first dig.

"That man may last, but never lives,
Who much receives, but little gives;
Whom none can love, whom none can thank,
Creation's blot, creation's blank."

—Virtue without talent is a coat of mail without a sword; it may indeed protect the wearer, but will not protect his friend.
