NEW SCHOONER.—C. and J. Robinson are pushing the work on the new schooner they are building for White, McDonald & Co., at the Narrows, Cambridge. This firm carry things through with despatch and the schooner will be a fine specimen of their work.

WILL NOT APPEAR.—A certain rev. gentleman in one of the larger rural districts is waiting anxiously the appearance of a communication respecting an episode with which he was connected at the opening of the house, which he sent to a certain local journal. His effusion was not vile enough to find space.

GETTING TO WORK.— G. S. Peters, who has been appointed road supervisor for the Gibson-St. Marys district, is preparing to do some work and there is every opportunity for much labor. Mr. Peters will endeavor to have affairs in a better state before the year closes. It is time something was done, is the general remark.

FOR INCORPORATION. — The Edgecombe Bros. ask for incorporation under the firm name of John Edgecombe & Sons with a capital of $50,000. The company are carrying on a rushing business at present in their accustomed neat and workmanlike manner, and their carriages are having a larger demand than ever before.

An excellent program of music has been arranged, in which a number of the leading vocalists of the city will appear. Refreshments will be served. Admission ten cents. Go and hear them.

THE ICE,— There has been no crossing here on the ice since Saturday last. Sunday a horse and light wagon with three men crossed at the Gibson wharf. The ice opposite the city took its first move on Wednesday and on Friday was pretty well broken up. It has thawed out this year, there being no rush of water to carry it away.

COAL FIELDS OF QUEENS.— Newcastle and vicinity on Grand Lake, Queens, will be a busy place this season, as the coal industry will be boomed. It is evident that till lately the fine beds of coal found there were not well known even to the people of this province. Now they have got a reputation in the United States and it is likely that the demand will be large.

TROUBLE BREWING.— Whether under the authority of the roadmaster, acting for city or wharf committee or not, the new wharf above the steamboat landing has been made a dumping ground all winter for all kinds of refuse, despite a stringent law to the contrary. Trouble is brewing for somebody and steps will be taken in a few days to find out who is responsible.

W. S. HOOPER.—It must be satisfactory for the friends of Storey Hooper to learn that his accounts were found correct and that nothing in connection with his office affairs shows that he was compelled to leave St. John. A report in circulation here on Monday that he was killed in Boston is found to be without foundation. His wife left St. John for Boston on Tuesday.

POLITICAL RUMOUR.— A political rumour is going the rounds of the press to the effect that after the conclusion of the Behring Sea arbitration Sir John Thompson is to be raised to the peerage and will remain in England as a member of Her Majesty's Judicial Council. In such an event Sir Charles Tupper will return to Canada and assume the premiership, while Hon. C. H. Tupper will replace his father as Canadian Commissioner in London.

THE DEAL BUSINESS.— Senator Snowball home. He reports the deal market very unsatisfactory. There is no demand in Ireland, in consequence of the curtailing of business in view of the probable adoption of the Home Rule Bill, and heavy stocks are held in England. With a market twenty-five per cent. less than last year, we have twenty-five per cent. more lumber to sell. What to do with it all is the question yet to be answered.—WORLD.

FOR BAPTISTS.— At a meeting of the several churches at St. John on Nov. 3rd last it was decided that it is desirable that the Baptist churches of this province form a separate convention to further the interests of the church on all lines and that each church be requested to send delegates, not exceeding three in number to a proposed meeting for a fuller consideration of all the issues involved; such meeting to be held in Brussels church, St. John, on May 31st at seven o'clock, p. m.

Allen, $100; Canon Brigstocke, $100; Rev. J. deSoyres, $200; Judge Peters, $200; Geo. E. Fenety, $100, and W. M. Jarvis, $100.

ARSON.

Charles Good of Kingsclear Arrested Last Sunday.

On Saturday morning last the barn belonging to the old Bulley hotel at upper Kingsclear was seen to be in a blaze, and by the time the neighbors gathered was so far consumed that nothing could be done to save the contents. The building was the property of Coun. A. E. Cliff. As no one had been at the barn in the evening, suspicions were aroused that the fire was the work of an incendiary. Mr. Cliff, with Emory King and others, noticed the tracks of a man going to and crossing from the barn, and with the aid of a lantern, they followed the foot-marks through the fields and over fences till the marks led them to the house of Charles Good.

On Sunday morning last Mr. Cliff came to town and secured a warrant for Good's arrest, which was put into the hands of policeman Philips, marshall Roberts and deputy sheriff Hawthorne, who went at once to Kingsclear. Roberts was sent into Good's house where he arrested Charles Good. The prisoner was brought here and lodged in jail.

On Monday he was brought before Mr. Marsh for preliminary examination, but at the request of George A. Hughes, counsel for prisoner, the enquiry was adjourned till Monday next, the 17th, the prisoner being remanded to jail in the meantime. The witnesses to be examined are Geo. Strange, Jos. Francis, Isaac Good, Agustus Peters, Emory King and some others whose names have not been learned.

The property destroyed consisted of the barn, twelve tons of hay, four plows, mowing machine, wheel rake, several steel harrows and other farming tools, aggregating about $600 on which there was no insurance.

The property will be remembered by those who have visited Kingsclear as situated near the long bridge just above John Kilburn's. It was at one time run as an hotel by Jacob Barker, and after his time by Arthur Bulley, now of Sunbury.

THAT LIEN BILL.

It Had No Connection Whatever With Laborers.

An endeavor has been made by opposition journals to make political capital for Dr. Stockton out of the fact that he introduced a lien bill in the local parliament. An attempt has been made to show that it was in favor of the laboring class. This is just the point wherein the bill was a failure. It was purely in favor of the contractor and the laborer was in no way to be benefited by it. Hon. Mr. Connell silenced Mr. Stockton when he asked, "What section of the bill favored the laboring class?" The doctor could not point to a single clause. If the bill had been to benefit the workmen it would have received the sanction of all, but that was exactly what it was not intended to do. By it a contractor could hold a building which his men had erected till he was paid for it, but there was no guarantee that he would be compelled to pay his men. The workman had no relief in case the contractor was dishonest. Those who speak in favor of the bill take care not to publish it.

Coun. Lawson's Charge.

The payment to Coun. Lawson, of Canterbury, of $136, for supplies to the poor of that parish, by the county council at its last session is creating considerable stir in that parish and an attempt will be made at next session of the council to have a complete investigation. Petitions are being circulated throughout the parish for that purpose and if the council burk the investigation it will be appealed to the courts. The bill was in dispute for some years and the ex-councillors for that parish protested against its payment when they were in the council. Even Mr. Smith the colleague of Mr. Lawson, made a protest, feeble it may have been, against the payment of the bill. It was, however, forced through to payment and now that Lawson has the money it is difficult to decide on just what steps are necessary to make him refund it if the investigation shows that he was not entitled to it. This system of storekeepers supplying the poor and charging their own prices is a bad one and is almost universal. It calls for a radical change.

A BANQUET.

Mr. Temple Called His Friends Together and Pitts Appeared Also.

On Tuesday evening Mr. Temple entertained a number of his friends at a banquet at his residence here. It was amusing to many to see in the announcement that followed the name of Pitts, as he "tanned the hide" of Uncle Thomas pretty remorselessly just before dominion parliament opened. It appears however that Mr. Temple has the erratic member for York on a string, and works him as he pleases in a sort of automatic style, or rather on a nickel in the slot principle.

It is presumed that he was enquiring how Mr. Temple voted on the Manitoba school matter, and the answer is apparently satisfactory, as there has appeared no great amount of political buncome from the man who mistakes Shakespeare for scripture and says his bible lessons backwards.

Blackville Division.

At a regular meeting of Blackville Division, Sons of Temperance, held on Wednesday night, D G W P James Dale installed the following as officers for the ensuing quarter: W P, Peter Coughlan; W A, David Scofield; R S, Mrs T Robinson; A R S, John Carney; F S, Rebecca Astles; Treas, James Bean; Chap, Wm Curtis; Con, Robert McLaggan; I S, John Curtis; O S, W U Underhill; Organist, Mrs Wm McConnell; P W P, Sarah Gradie. After installation a resolution was passed expressing the sympathy of the members with brother James Wetmore, jr., in his recent bereavement; and Messrs. James Dale and W. J. McLaggan were appointed a committee to prepare and convey to brother Wetmore a suitable letter in accordance with the spirit of the resolution.

POISONED.

Arsenious Acid Causes the Death of Geo. Crow.

A case of death under suspicious circumstances took place at Glassville, Carleton county, on Tuesday morning. Geo. Crow of that place feeling unwell called in Dr. Welsh who gave him a bottle of medicine and a powder to be taken. He took the powder and in a short time began vomiting and eventually died. Coroner Port was summoned. Dr. Welsh said he had ordered a Dover powder. The powder appears to be arsenious acid. An inquest was decided on and Dr. Curtis of Hartland conducted the investigation.

As a result of the inquest a verdict was rendered that the deceased had come by his death from poisoning, having taken arsenic from the office of Dr. Welsh by mistake.

The Babes in the Basket.

The entertainment in the Methodist Sabbath school room on Monday evening under the auspices of the Epworth League was well conducted and highly satisfactory. The musical reading, under the management of Mrs. Dr. Coulthard, was good in every feature. Most of the choruses were well rendered. Little Millie Tibbitts was encored. The piano selections by Prof. Dick was a strong feature. Miss Pollock, Miss Logan, and M. Lemont received much credit for their work. The affair was very pleasant all through and the attendance fully up to the average.

SECURING CONTRACTS.—Several of the large contractors of this vicinity have been at Houlton securing the building of all bridges, culverts, etc., on the Bangor-Aroostock Railway. It is not as yet learned what success they have had.

ELECTRIC LIGHTING.

Citizens Want More Light but Details First.

Many of the citizens were surprised on Wednesday to see in the St. John Globe's report of the committee proceedings at the local house, a statement that a bill was before the committee empowering the city council to issue debentures to the amount of $6,000 for the purpose of procuring an electric light plant to light the streets and public buildings.

The reason why the citizens expressed surprise was that legislation of this nature should be asked for by the council while the people knew nothing about it. No notice had been given respecting it. Its provisions had not been made known to the great majority of the citizens; it had been apparently sprung on the city, the originators themselves being more or less ignorant of the costs and results which must follow the passage of such a bill.

So far as can be learned, last year the old council appointed a committee to consider the question of electric lighting. That committee made application to an electric light company, and the company sent a representative here who gave the cost of lighting the city, for buildings, fuel, etc. The committee put little confidence in his estimates as they had information from cities with plants similar to the one in question, and they considered that the representative was more anxious to sell than to furnish reliable estimates. This ended their dealings in the matter. The new council continued a committee (self appointed) and no information has been given the people or the council by that committee respecting the subject. There have been meetings of the council—one in February, another in March and on April 4th. In the general committee meeting on the 3rd inst., when such questions are brought up, nothing whatever was said about street lighting. On April 4th, when the mayor was absent as well as some of the aldermen, a resolution was sprung on the meeting that a bill be prepared with the above provisions and laid before the house. It was carried by a vote of five to three. Ald's. Farrell and Gilman voted against the motion, not because they were opposed to electric lighting, but because they were certain that the taxing of the people at the rate of $6,000 without at least giving them the details and securing their approval was in the interests of the city.

Ald. Farrell and McNutt were asked by citizens whose first knowledge of the bill was gained through reading the Globe of Wednesday to go to the house and protest against the measure. They did so with the result that the legislative committee reconsidered its ruling and decided not to recommend the bill.

It was stated by a member of the company now carrying on the electric light business here that the cost would be in the vicinity of $20,000; that if the city secured the plant, at the end of two years the citizens would find that a private company could light the streets for the city at a far less expense, and that it would pay the city to let their plant lie idle and pay a company to do the work.

It is hardly necessary that the city council should take this hole and corner way of passing an important measure. If it is in the best interests of the city that such a plant should be secured then the citizens are surely entitled to some little knowledge respecting the matter before it is definitely settled.

STUDENT TEACHERS.

Their Entertainment at Normal School on Thursday Night.

The literary and musical entertainment given by the student teachers at the Normal school assembly hall on Thursday evening was a success and reflected much credit on those participating as well as on the faculty of the institution. At the hour of opening the hall was well filled with the best society of the city by special invitation. Mr. Langst presided. The program was as follows:

Opening chorus, Song of the Old Bell, School; Piano Duet, Misses Stewart and Jordan; Dialogue, Messrs. W. and H. Alward; Auto-Harp solo, Miss B. Babbitt; Vocal Duet, Misses Fowler and McLaughlin; Recitation, The Death of Dassa, Mr. Hartley; Double Quartette, Home Returning; Indian Clubs, Mr. Murray; Recitation, Bell of St. Noel, Miss Lingley; Solo, Miss McNally; Sheperdess Crook Drill, Misses Boyd, Buckly, Stevens, Cliff, Quinn, Ross, Carlan and Jordan; Violin Trio, Misses Babbitt and Howie, Prof. Cadwallader; Chorus, Soft through the fading Light.

Principal Mullen on behalf of the students thanked the audience for their attendance.

Where all the parts were so good it is difficult to say which were especially superior. The harp solo by Miss B. Babbitt was perhaps the best feature, as besides being novel it was very carefully executed and the encore which followed told plainly how it was received. The Crook drill was another very pleasing part and showed careful drill on the part of the young ladies. Mr. Murray's club swinging was much admired especially by the sterner sex. It was about as good an exhibition of that art as has ever been seen in this city. The Death of Dassa by Mr. Hartley, calls for more than a passing notice as is was very finely done. The choruses were well carried through and gave evidence that the present student teachers are as well if not better versed in music than any former class. It is to be hoped that before the terms ends, the students will again find time to prepare a similar treat, when it is certain more seats will be necessary.

Dr. Moore, ex-M. P. P., Stanley, had a well written article entitled Currents and Counter-Currents in Canadian Politics in the Saturday issue of the St. John Globe, that is well worthy of perusal. It is a fair and impartial statement with many solid truths.

Contempt of Court.

The proceedings instituted by Geo. F. Baird against J. V. Ellis, editor of the Globe, for contempt of court, came up in the supreme court on Friday. The case grew out of the Queens county election of 1887, when Mr. King got a majority of votes over Mr. Baird. Mr. Ellis, it will be remembered, at the time was found guilty in the provincial court but appealed to the supreme court of Canada but it was set aside. The decision reached on Friday was that the case be adjourned till Trinity term. Mr. Ellis was present with his counsel, Mr. Weldon.

A GAY LOTHARIO.

Was it a Brother or a Hubby? is the Question.

About four weeks ago a gentleman from Toronto arrived in St. John and put up at one of the hotels. His business was in connection with the organization of branch societies of one of the many "orders" in existence at the present day. At the hotel where he stopped there was a very pretty St. John girl who waited on the table. The man remained in the city a few days and went out over the I. C. R. on his work. The above are the facts in which nobody took any interest up to Saturday. On Thursday last the hero of this tale came again to St. John, and put up at the same hotel as formerly. He asked some information before registering, such as if he could hire the same room, had the dining room help been changed and a few other questions. All were answered to his satisfaction and he remained. On Saturday the heroine went out for a walk and returned with a pair of new shoes and other new apparel. Shortly after her return a truckman called for her trunk and shortly after that again both hero and heroine left on the Fredericton express. The man is about 30 years of age and well educated. The girl is in her 18th year and pretty. This is their story, so says the St. John Telegraph.

On the arrival of the express train at this city, a couple answering the above description boarded a city bus and were driven to one of the second rate hotels where they registered as man and wife. The lady was apparently frightened, so much so that she at once attracted the attention of the other boarders. The couple spent Sunday at the hotel and on Monday morning the heroine on enquiry was directed to the establishment of a well known dressmaker where she left an order. The dressmaker, as generally is the case, began to question her patron and learned that she and her brother were stopping at the —— hotel. However matters were allowed to take their course, and the couple left for parts unknown on Tuesday. It is presumed that they have gone to Chicago to take in the world's fair, the lady looking especially charming in the new travelling suit which she had ordered here on such short notice.

Gibson and St. Marys.

George Niles, son of Hubbard Niles, made a very narrow escape on Wednesday. He was riding a bicycle and fell off. Before he could get out of the way he was struck by one of the Marysville bus horses and received several bad cuts.

Sebastian White has purchased the Rolston house.

The pie social under the auspices of the Episcopal church on Tuesday evening last had some very fine features. The harpette solo by Miss Williamson of Fredericton was much enjoyed. There were solos by Miss Rose Ruel, Mrs. W. Tilley, Miss Bessie Friel, Miss Sarah Steele. One of the best parts of the concert was the tableaux, "Only a pansy blossom."

A. Sterling is home from McGill for vacation.

B. M. Mullin of this village has graduated at Bishop's medical college, Montreal, and received his degree of M. D. Mr. Mullin's many friends are pleased to learn of his success.

It is said the Dr. Barker's house has been sold for eleven hundred dollars.

The remains of the late William Slipp, of Kingsclear, were interred on Wednesday at that place. The funeral services were conducted by rev. J. McLeod. The deceased was one of the prominent farmers of the county and highly respected.

Deceased for some time worked in the establishment of Thomas Stanger, this city. She contracted consumption and had been confined to the house for some time. She was in her twenty-second year and generally esteemed. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon and was largely attended.

FREDERICTON IN THE WEST.—The Helena Herald of the 30th ult, says: "The Hennessey company, lessees of the Vaughan Beattie property (extension of the Peerless Jennie) continue in big luck in their development operations. They are down on the lead less than fifty feet, yet the richest ore in quality is being extracted, and four carloads of ore delivered at the East Helena smelter has realized upwards of $12,000. A complete new hoist is in position and Hennessey and his associates are going down deep. They have a lease running for a period of eighteen months and expect in that time to make a fortune Twenty per cent. of the value of the output is the share of the owners of the bonanza, Messrs. Vaughan and Beattie."

D. Hennessey, the manager of the company is a Fredericton boy and his many friends here are glad to hear of his success.

Marysville News.

The ice below the dam has run out, but that above the dam is still firm.

A very pleasant and largely attended pie social was held at the residence of ald. Elias White on Thursday evening, in the interests of the proposed sidewalk to the F. C. Baptist church. The amount realized from the sale of pies was $30.65, and from fancy work $10. All present expressed themselves much pleased with the affair. Thanks are due Mr. and Mrs. White for their kindness to all.

John Gibson's schooner, Galatea, lost a foremast and broke jaws of foregaff when off Cape Cod recently.

All particulars as to pedigree and terms may be had on application to the groom. This stallion carried off the honors at Toronto as the best bred Canadian stallion, and was brought here by R. A. Estey.

The Royal Templars of Durham have purchased a Karn organ from McMurray & Co. this week for their new hall which is now almost complete.

Tuat to build all the wooden bridges on the Bangor and Aroostook railway from Brownville to Houlton, a distance of ninety-four miles. There will be about twenty-five bridges on that section, and some of them are large structures, one being nearly seven hundred feet long. They will leave in a few days to commence operations. Mr. Tuat has the contract to build the whole line and expects to complete as far as Houlton this year.

A FORGER.—This city was visited during the week by Mailloux, the dominion ex-government employe, who is wanted for forgery. He was spotted at one of the second class boarding houses and left for River Du Loup, taking the C. P. R. at St. Marys.

The congregation of All Saint's church at upper Magaguadavic has purchased a very fine organ from McMurray & Co.
