IN AN OYSTER!

Michigan Man Finds a Long Lost Gold Finger Ring.

Galesburg, Mich., Dec. 2.—One day early in October, Maxwell Tillbaugh, of Grove street, while eating oysters, encountered some hard substance, which proved to be a worn gold ring of peculiar workmanship, and bearing on its inner surface the initials "M. B. T." Forty years ago Mr. Tillbaugh came to Michigan from Nantigo, Md., leaving his parents and two slaves, one of the latter having been his nurse in his childhood, and also a great favorite with his mother. Singular to relate, he recognized the ring as one given by his mother to the favorite servant above-mentioned, more than 40 years ago, during which interval both his parents have died and he himself grown wrinkled and gray-haired.

More as a matter of experiment than in the expectation of any result, Mr. Tillbaugh wrote to Maryland, and has just received a reply. The ring was bequeathed by the former colored nurse to a granddaughter, and the latter is now employed in opening oysters by one of the great packing companies on Chesapeake Bay. Upon being interviewed by the postmaster at Nantigo, the girl remembered the loss of the ring, but could not tell when or where it occurred. It was more than 40 years since Mr. Tillbaugh had seen the ring thus strangely brought once more to his notice.

The Railways.

Thos. Marshall, of Walkerville, for many years freight agent of the Lake Erie & Detroit River Railroad, has been appointed general freight and passenger agent.

The lease of the Burlington system to the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railway Company for a term of 999 years has been consummated at Burlington. Papers in the case were filed there.

"There will be absolutely no change in the management and operation of the Great Northern and the Northern Pacific Railroads under the Northern Securities Company," said Henry White Cannon, of New York, a director of the Great Northern and the Oregon Railway and Navigation Companies. "The Northern Securities Company is purely a financial proposition, and has no existence outside of New York and New Jersey. It does not seek to control the operation of the roads, nor to dictate their policy as to rates. There is absolutely no call for remedial legislation, as no law of anti-trust, state or national, has been violated."

The work of double tracking the Michigan Central from Detroit to Jackson, which has been in progress for two years past, is now practically completed, and there is but a few hundred feet of distance between the two cities that is not double tracked.

UNHAPPY QUEEN!

Money One of the Causes of Wilhelmina's Estrangement From the Prince Consort.

London, Dec. 2.—Information from The Hague describes the semi-official denials of trouble between Queen Wilhelmina and her prince consort as entirely mendacious. As was stated a month ago, while the queen was seriously ill, the young couple did have serious differences and are now gravely estranged.

The Dutch people, as might be expected, have ranged themselves fiercely by their young queen's side and the prince dare not show himself in public, so widespread and passionate is the feeling of resentment. Moreover, he has taken no pains to conceal his contempt for Dutchmen and would doubtless cheerfully accept a lump sum down and a yearly allowance by way of solace for retirement into private life in Germany. He is known to have sent a complete statement of his case to the German emperor, but if Kaiser Wilhelm should venture to interfere actively he would raise such a storm in Holland as would not be easily allayed.

Prince Henry's main grievances are said to be, in order of importance: Queen Wilhelmina's niggardliness in the matter of money, her disposition to keep him in the position of a lapdog, and the persistent manner in which the Dutch ministers have treated him as a person of no importance.

His position resembles somewhat that of the present King of England's father in the early days of his union with Queen Victoria. But Prince Albert was a man of intellect and tact; and, although Englishmen never loved him, they quickly learned to respect him. The Dutch queen's consort apparently possesses none of the qualities absolutely indispensable to successful maintenance of such a delicate position. So trouble sooner of later was inevitable.

HARD TIMES IN GERMANY!

Period of Inflation Succeeded by Depression---Thousands Facing Starvation.

Expedition to Explore Unknown Portions of Africa---Great Enthusiasm at the Devonian Dinner, Where General Buller Presided.

Berlin, Dec. 2.—Just a year and a half ago trade was booming in Berlin and throughout Germany. Today all is dull and depressed, and no business is being done. Eighteen months ago the scenes on the Berlin Boerse were such as were never known before. People almost fought in their eagerness to buy shares. Bankers grew rapidly rich, and so great was their business that in many cases they bought adjacent houses and doubled the size of their banks. Brokers grew rich also, and bought fine houses, race horses and yachts. Everything flourished.

Today all is changed. The bankers are doing no business and in many cases have much depreciated stock upon their hands, which they would gladly get rid of. Brokers are lying low, wondering how they are going to find money to keep up the houses and horses which last season they had plenty of cash to buy. The boerse is half-deserted and business there is well-nigh dead. The piteous lament of women and of the workman's family today rises from one end of the manufacturing portion of the country to the other. Thirty-five thousand workingmen are idle in Berlin alone. All over the country is the same cry, and everyday masters are reducing the number of their hands, because there is not work for the hands to do. And with all this the poor people have winter upon them.

NOT SOLD.

London, Dec. 2.—The Right Hon. W. J. Pirrie, head of the great Belfast shipbuilding firm of Harland & Wolff, denies that he has sold his interest in the White Star Steamship Line to an American syndicate.

SMALLPOX EPIDEMIC IN LONDON.

Statistics published today show that since the present outbreak of smallpox in London 116 persons have died of the disease, 233 have recovered and there are 420 cases under treatment. Sixty per cent of persons who had not been vaccinated died, and 20 per cent of those who had been inoculated. There were 57 doubtful cases. The first case was reported on May 20.

MISSIONS IN CHINA TO COMBINE.

The representatives of the three great missions in China, the American Board of Foreign Missions, the London Society and the Presbyterian Board are engaged in carrying out the most important scheme for co-operation in the history of missions in China. The consolidated missions will be called the North China Educational Union. They will embrace theological and female schools, and the college at Tungchou. Rev. Dr. Sheffield, of the American Board of Foreign Missions, will be president of the united societies.

DECLINE IN SECURITIES.

The stupendous fall in British Government, railroad and industrial securities since the South Africa war commenced is almost without precedent. In two years, the Bankers' Magazine says, the net decrease in the value of 325 selected listed securities, amounts to the enormous total of £143,946,000. Consols, which the day before the Boer ultimatum were quoted at 105¾, are now 91 13-16, whereas, in the same period, several foreign government stocks and American railroads rose in value about £47,000,000. The decrease in fourteen British and Indian government funds amounted to £76,392,000. The common stock of nineteen British railroads lost in value in the war period over £68,000,000, while the decline in railroad debentures and preferences brings the total loss to over £100,000,000.

NEW EXPEDITION TO AFRICA.

William Fitzhugh Whitehouse, jun., of Newport, R. I., who has been in London the past week testifying in an arbitration case connected with the Whitehouse Abyssinian expedition of 1900, intends to start in a few weeks on a fresh expedition to the heart of Africa, accompanied by Capt. Powell Cotton, of the Northumberland Fusiliers. They intend to go in a Belgian gunboat up the Congo to Basokok, thence through the Pigmy forest to the north, avoiding the usual forest route, to Uganda, and then push on and explore the unknown portions of Lake Albert. The chief objects of the expedition are to obtain big game, but it will also include practical surveys from which valuable geographical results may be expected. Mr. Whitehouse hopes to return in about nine months.

MISS STONE'S CASE.

In answer to a cabled message of inquiry sent by the Christian Herald to President Washburne, of Robert College, Constantinople, concerning Miss Stone, the following reply was received: "Bebek, Nov. 30.—Christian Herald, Bible House, New York: Stone negotiations suspended. No immediate prospect of release. Satisfactory evidence she has been well treated. "(Signed) WASHBURN."

This is taken by the paper to show that the reports that Miss Stone had been murdered by the brigands are unfounded.

ANOTHER OCEAN CABLE.

The cable steamer Faraday has finished laying a cable between the Azore Island and Ireland for the commercial Cable Company. This completes the fourth cable of that company between the United States and England.

THE DEVONIAN DINNER.

The Devonian dinner, at which Gen. Buller presided at the Hotel Cecil Saturday night, was the scene of great enthusiasm, and a remarkable tribute to the personal popularity of the discredited general. But it passed off without any actual anti-government demonstration.

Long before the hour fixed for the reception the great courtyard of the hotel was crowded with Bullerites. The arrival of Gen. and Lady Buller was the signal for enthusiastic cheering.

The most dramatic scene was in the banquet hall, where Gen. Buller, as presiding officer, necessarily proposed the health of the King, by whose order the general had been retired from the army.

A remarkable demonstration ensued. For several minutes there was deafning cheers, the waving of handkerchiefs and singing. It is doubtful if London has ever seen a more hearty or more equivocal response to the toast to the King.

DISAPPOINTED HIS ADMIRERS.

I. N. Ford cables as follows: Gen. Buller has disappointed his admirers. They cheered him tremendously at the Devonian dinner last night, and assured him of their unstinted admiration for his brilliant services to the British Empire and their unshaken confidence in him as a skilful and gallant officer, but he adopted a cautions tone, and failed to tell anything more about the historic message which he sent to Sir George White in Ladysmith, after the battle of Colenso. He excused himself on the ground that he was precluded from entering into any discussion of the subject, but, in view of what had already taken place, it seemed scarcely likely that he would have been stopped by mere considerations of discipline from revealing the whole truth about the heliogram, if he did not realize that his case was a bad one.

$26,000 FOR A BOOK.

Messrs. Quaritch, the well-known book collectors, have just received the highest sum ever paid for a single volume. They have sold a copy of the Psalmorum Codex, printed by Fust & Schaeffer in 1459, for $26,000. The purchaser is said to be Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan.

DILLON'S ADVICE.

John Dillon, M.P., addressing an Irish league demonstration at Loughrea on Saturday, counseled the evicted tenants to take back the farms by storm, and that they should fight and suffer if necessary. He said the league funds would be given to assist those who showed a soldier's spirit.

RUSSIA AND CHINA ARE OUT.

The foreign office in London confirms the report that the Russo-Chinese Manchurian negotiations are broken off. The officials attribute this more to the opposition of the Chinese envoys and the death of Li Hung Chang than to the objections of Japan.

POOR CAMBON.

Much amusement has been created by the French ambassador's ordeal at the Thanksgiving dinner under the auspices of the American Society in London. Throughout the evening M. Cambon was obliged to listen to perfervid expressions of Anglo-American brotherhood, which, toward the end of the dinner, developed into enthusiastic prophecies that the world would be controlled by English-speaking peoples, without a single reference to France except by Henry White, United States d'affairs, who officially disowned this thoughtless treatment of the chief guest.

CABLE NOTES.

It is believed that the end of dueling in Germany is near. The sentiment of the people condemns the practice.

According to the Daily Mail the National Club of London has fallen foul of Hall Caine, the novelist, who is a member of that club, for opening a Roman Catholic bazar on the Isle of Man, and making a speech, in which he spoke approvingly of the Roman Catholic Church. The committee of the club has been summoned to consider the matter, and a resolution has been passed denouncing Mr. Caine's conduct, and demanding an explanation from him.

From Panama comes the news that the surrender of Colon to the government struck the Liberals like a thunderbolt, and that they are still unable to realize the fact that the city is again in the hands of the federal authorities.

Society is delighted with the announcement that King Edward intends to completely change the system of holding drawing-rooms. Not only are they to be held at night, but admission to them is to be secured by invitation, instead of by application through the Lord Chamberlain, as formerly.

"BULLER SUNDAY"

At Least 50,000 Persons Gathered in Hyde Park at the Demonstration Arranged by Gen. Buller's Sympathizers.

London, Dec. 2.—"Buller Sunday" passed without serious incident. The government had taken every precaution to prevent disturbances, including the issuing of orders prohibiting officers or soldiers from taking part in the demonstration. A large body of police, many of whom were mounted, were stationed along the line of the procession's march, and notably in front of the war office.

The trades' unions and workingmen's societies, with bands, assembled along the line of the embankment in the afternoon. There were thousands of spectators. Owing to the difficulty of marshaling the large bodies of men, the profession was late in starting. It was headed by a huge banner, on which was a portrait of General Buller. The procession traversed Northumberland avenue, Pall Mall, St. James' street and Picadilly to Hyde Park.

The windows of clubland, especially of the service clubs, were crowded with sight-seers. At Charing Cross several mounted policemen rode up to the head of the procession and attempted to seize a plaster bust of General Buller. The man carrying the bust dashed it to the ground. This incident caused much indignation, but the leaders were able to restrain the paraders, some of whom wished to attack the policemen.

Opposite the war office there was considerable groaning and cries of "Shame!" from the men in the procession, but otherwise the proceedings were without interest.

When Hyde Park was reached it was almost dark. Speeches from several platforms, representing England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Devonshire and the colonies, were made. The confusion was so great as to render the words of the speakers almost inaudible, but amid a roar of cheers, a resolution of sympathy for Gen. Buller was proposed and adopted with great enthusiasm and a wild waving of handkerchiefs and hats.

Features of the demonstration were the passing of collection boxes for a workingmen's memorial to Gen. Buller and the large sale of Buller busts and favors of the general.

It is estimated that at least 50,000 people were present at the demonstration in Hyde Park. This makes it the biggest thing of its kind which has occurred for many years.

The Day's Deaths.

Winnipeg, Dec. 2.—Mrs. Langtry, matron of the Salvation Army Rescue Home in this city, is dead. She was formerly stationed in Toronto.

London, Dec. 2.—The death is announced of William Bateman Hanbury, second Baron Bateman, in the 76th year of his age.

London, Dec. 2.—Charles William Hylton Molineux, fifth earl of Sefton, is dead. He was born in 1867.

Bordentown, N. Y., Nov. 30.—James W. Allen, who was postmaster here under President Harrison, and who was at one time postmaster of the United States Senate, died here today, aged 76 years.

AN EXTRADITION CASE.

Windsor, Ont., Dec. 2.—The extradition proceedings in the case of John Watts, jun., who was arrested in Windsor a few days ago on the charge of kidnapping 2-year-old Catharine Watts, were begun before the magistrate Saturday. Attorney Murphy contended that the father of the child was the bona fide guardian, and that his taking her could not be made a criminal offense in the United States unless it was a felony in the eyes of the Canadian law. "If you can show that Watts has the right to the child," said Magistrate Bartlett, "your client will be a free man; otherwise he is liable to seven years' imprisonment." Mrs. Watts said that the divorce gave her custody of the child and $30 allimony money per month, Watts being allowed to visit the little girl on a certain occasion. On Nov. 14, 1900, she said he took the child away in a buggy and was to return her, according to agreement, the same day. That was the last she saw of the child. Watts is proprietor of the Windsor steam laundry. He came to Windsor a short time ago. He is reputed to be wealthy. Mrs. Watts, whose maiden name was Mary E. Harrison, belongs to a well-to-do family in Richmond, Ill. She was married to Watts in 1895.

CANADIAN YEOMANRY.

Men Already Volunteering for the Third Contingent.

Title of the Corps Suggested by the War Office—Mounted Police Will Have a Show.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, Dec. 2.—The government has decided to give mounted policemen leave for one year without pay to any who may desire to join the Canadian Yeomanry for South Africa

TRANSPORTATION.

Ottawa, Dec. 1.—Word is expected tomorrow from the imperial authorities in regard to the arrangements for the transportation of the Canadian Yeomanry to South Africa. It is expected that the militia department will be instructed to engage a transport, as in the case of the Canadian division of the South African Constabulary.

YEOMANRY AND THE PATRIOTIC FUND.

The executive committee of the Patriotic Fund Association meets on Tuesday next to consider whether the Canadian Yeomanry, who are about to be dispatched to South Africa shall be admitted to the benefit of the fund. There has been expended up to date $220,000, and a balance of some $150,000 remains. Relief still continues to be granted at the rate of one beneficiary a day. The number of those who received grants in October was 25. Grants are made only after the strictest inquiry.

THE TITLE.

It is learned that the title, "Canadian Yeomanry," applied to the mounted corps to be sent to South Africa, was suggested by the war office.

Col. Evans, the commandant, had a long interview with the controller of mounted police, Lieut.-Col. White, in regard to the arrangements for recruiting in the west.

The minister of militia and defense has authorized an allowance to N. C. officers and men employed as special attendants in militia station hospitals as follows: Cases of contagious or infectious disease, requiring the isolation of both patient and attendant, 25 cents per diem; other cases of serious illness 15 cents per diem.

PLENTY OF MEN.

Toronto, Dec. 2.—In all probability the number of recruits, 55, that Toronto is required to furnish for the Canadian Yeomanry will be supplied, if necessary, two or three times over. A number of applications have already been received at the district office. Several officers have applied for commissions in the regiment, and these applications have been forwarded to headquarters at Ottawa.

KILLED IN ACTION.

Ottawa, Dec. 2.—A cablegram from Cape Town states that J. Marchand, 2nd Cape Pioneer Railway Regiment, was killed in action at Villiersdorp, Nov. 20, and asks that the deceased man's sister, Miss Marchand, Reeves River, St. Lawrence, be notified.
