Live Stock Market

With receipts of cattle totaling approximately about 5000 head on the Union Stock Yards yesterday, and a strong, insistent demand for the better class of butcher cattle and good, breedy stockers and feeders, coupled with the entry into the buying arena of new blood in the firm of Rogers & Halligan, there was a good, healthy, all-round trade on the exchange yesterday.

While a good deal of the offerings were of rather poor quality, there were many cars of good, useful cattle, and these all sold readily, butchers, as already stated, being in good demand, with not enough to supply it. Butcher cows, canners and cutters were wanted at better prices.

Briefly summarized, we would say about the market yesterday that it was fully from 10c to 15c higher for the better class of butcher cattle, with a steady market for butcher cows and a strong enquiry for breedy feeding steers for distillery feeding purposes. The receipts were practically all cleaned up and prospects are good for a steady market.

There were some, and good judges, too, who figured the advance on feeders and stockers at from 25c to 40c per cwt., and there were, no doubt, individual cases where the summary was borne out by actual transactions over last week.

Milkers and springers continue strong in price, with a good, steady market for all offerings.

As stated, the firm of Rogers & Halligan were steady buyers of good feeders on the exchange yesterday for distillery purposes at Walkerville. Rumor credited the firm with being anxious to secure quite a large order, but just how many The World is not in a position to say.

Sheep and Lambs.

There was a fair, good run of sheep and lambs, about 3600 all told, with a steady to strong market. Choice lambs sold at from $16 to $16.35; light sheep at 12½c to 14c lb.; heavy, fat sheep and bucks at from 9½c to 11c lb.

Calves.

Choice veal calves sold at from 15c to 15½c lb.; medium calves at 11c to 13½c; grassers and common calves at 6½c to 9c, and heavy, fat calves at 8½c to 11c lb. The lamb market was a little stronger than at the close of last week's trading.

Hogs.

The price for hogs yesterday at the Union Stock Yards Exchange was 16¾c lb., fed and watered, the w f.o.b. cars, and 16½c lb., fed and watered, the w f.o.b. cars, being the same as last week's closing price.

Total Receipts.

Total receipts yesterday were 361 cars, consisting of 4890 cattle, 199 calves, 1435 hogs and 3593 sheep and lambs.

Market Notes.

W. H. Stewart of Powasson, Ont., and who was on the market yesterday, will have 200 choice yearling breeding ewes on sale at the Union Stock Yards next Monday. This will afford farmers an excellent chance to get some good stock.
