ing on the lower side. At the corner above, the American flag was flying from a pole in the front of the custom house.

No place was to be had, but through a friend we succeeded in obtaining lodgings at the City Hotel, at $12 a week each, board $20 dollars a week additional. A room containing two cots, two chairs and a table, was given to two of us; some of the passengers less fortunate, paid $3 in another place for the privilege of sleeping on the floor. The fare was ample and of excellent quality—fine fresh bread, cream, capital butter, and California beef, which is the best in the world.

Speculation commenced with the moment of landing. The most ingenious and successful operation was made by Mr. Fitz, of New York, who brought 1,000 weekly and 500 daily Tribunes. He sold the whole lot in less than two hours, at one dollar apiece. Hearing of this, I took about a dozen papers, which I had used to fill up crevices in packing my valise, and sold them for $10 to a man who wanted to retail them. I was satisfied with the wholesale price. Papers of a late date, I am told, bring $5 at the mines.

I set out for a walk before dark, and climbed a hill back of the town, passing a number of tents pitched in the hollows. The scattered houses spread out below me and the crowded shipping in the harbour, backed by a lofty line of mountains, made an imposing picture. The restless feverish tide of life in that little spot, and the thought that what I then saw and would see, will hereafter fill one of the most marvellous pages of all history. The feeling was not decreased on talking with some of the old residents, (that is of six months standing), and hearing their several experiences.

The receipts at the Custom House of San Francisco for the month of July, were about $110,000, and they will probably for August reach $175,000.

Exporting a Bar Room to California.—Among other exports to California, we learn that the frame of a building for a hotel has lately left this city for San Francisco, accompanied by all the materials for an extensive bar-room. An experienced bar tender of this city has been engaged to follow the establishment, his wages being fixed at $200 per month.—Boston Traveller.

The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Pennsylvanian, says some of the most enthusiastic young men here propose the immediate formation of a "Turkish Regiment," to sail for the Dardanelles the moment news reaches here that the ball is opened, in reality.

At the agricultural fair in Hartford, Mrs. Sigourney, the authoress, took the premium for silk stockings.

CHICAGO AND MILWAUKIE.—The increase of population and trade in these two cities will appear from the following statistics:

In 1840 Chicago had 4,853 inhabitants—in 1848 it contained 19,725. In 1843 there were shipped from Chicago 628,967 bushels of wheat and 10,782 barrels of flour—in 1848, only five years later, there were shipped 2,169,000 bushels of wheat, and 45,200 barrels of flour. The first shipment of wheat was in 1839, and the first export of beef was in 1838. In 1848 the export of beef and pork was 29,200 barrels. In 1842 the export of wool was 1,500 pounds, and in 1848 it was 961,100 pounds. In 1836 the value of the aggregate exports was $1,061, and in 1849, $10,709,333.

The growth of Milwaukie is still more rapid. In 1835 it had but one frame building, and in 1840 only 1700 inhabitants—it has now over 16,000. Its first export of wheat was in 1844; it exported in 1848, 1,031,268 bushels.

THE FUNERAL OF THE COMPOSER STRAUSS.—The Berlin Correspondent of the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser says:—

"On the 28th of September, the funeral of John Strauss, the celebrated composer and the favorite of the Vienna public, was attended by an immense concourse of people. One writer estimates the crowd at 80,000. The violin of the deceased was laid on a black cushion by his side, as the sword of a warrior is by him. Bands of music accompanied him to his grave. John Strauss was known throughout Europe as a composer. He excelled in the light gay style so much in favor at Vienna, and was the pet of all classes in the community.

INTERESTING STATEMENT FROM THE EMPIRE STATE!

Schuylerville, N. Y., April 30, 1847.

Mr. S. W. Fowle—Dear Sir—A desire to benefit the afflicted, has induced me to make the following statement of facts. My son, now seventeen years of age, has been afflicted, during his whole life, with a constant cough and pain in the chest, accompanied with night sweats and a hectic fever, which produced great emaciation and debility. During this time he was attended by many physicians of the highest repute, whose prescriptions gave but temporary relief. All our neighbours who saw him regarded him as one who was rapidly approaching an early and premature grave. I was prevailed upon by a friend to try WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. He commenced its use, and the FIRST bottle gave him astonishing relief, and after using four bottles, his disease was overcome, and he was restored to sound and permanent health. WM. PETTIT.
