THIS article has turned out to be quite a success. It is intended to furnish a cheap and effectual remedy to the poor, but all classes have taken hold of it, and the sale is good. We have just completed a large lot in anticipation of an immense demand the coming season. The price is about that of Castor Oil, 12c., 16c., 24c. per bottle. It has no poisonous medicines in its composition, and can be given to children with the greatest safety. Invented and prepared by

Mrs. Spearing, I am as deaf as a post that stands
At the top of Fort Howe,
And never heard a word of a row.

But if I was twice as deaf, says Ellen Spearing
I could not but heard of Montgomery's,
Clearing.

It is a Sale of Silks, Satins, Ribbons, Hats and Dry Goods of all kinds,
At prices that will suit the most delicate minds.

I will try him again—there is no harm in trying;
There is no doubt his Goods are well worth buying.

His prices for Goods were never so low before,
And I must get my trumpet and hurry down to his store,

And for Velvets and Velveteens, Dress Goods Cottons or Lace,
Go to Montgomery's—that's the best place.

When I get my new trumpet, I will make a big sound,
And I will tell all my friends in the country to come down.

I will enter his store with ease and grace,
With my trumpet to my ear, and enquire is this his place.
