AT THE ASSIZES.

Conviction of Catherine Rhodes—The Commission Room Case to Be Tried Next Assizes—Business Will Proceed.

The trial of Catherine Rhodes for forgery was finished yesterday. She was found guilty of passing a forged note, but not of forging it. The jury urged that mercy be shown her on the ground of her previous good character and that she had probably been induced to commit the crime by others. On Mr. Murdoch's application a reserve case was granted, because the note passed was a Dominion bill and the Receiver-General had not been called to give evidence. She was allowed out on two sureties of $500 each.

A legal technicality was discovered in the indictment against Smiley, Pirie and Orpen and another had to be prepared, on which the trial proceeded. Mr. Murdoch, acting for the defence in this case also, asked for time to visit New York in order to work up evidence for the defendants. His Lordship Judge Falconbridge gave orders that the case be left over till the next court in order to grant the desired time. Mr. W. R. Riddell, for the Crown, asked that the pool rooms be ordered closed by the court until the case was settled, but the request was refused.

Thomas Williamson, lately extradited on a charge of forgery, will be tried this morning. This is the last case to come before the court at this session.

RESTRAINED THE SENATOR.

Before Mr. Winchester, acting master in chambers, yesterday the motion for interim alimony in the action of Henry Maybee against Sarah Maybee came up, but was enlarged for one week to allow of the cross-examination of the defendant upon his affidavit filed on the motion. The defendant denies that he is worth as much as his wife alleges. Maybee, who is a resident of Toronto, buys and sells cattle on commission.

Before Chief Justice Galt yesterday, W. Cassels, Q. C., on behalf of Samuel J. Ritchie of Akron, O., president of the Central Ontario Railway Company, moved to continue the injunction restraining Senator H. B. Payne of Cleveland, Ohio, from attending the general meeting of the railway company and voting upon certain stock held by him. The stock, it is alleged, was transferred to the Senator under an agreement not to transfer the same without the consent of Ritchie, and he was to vote for five directors, three of whom were to be nominees of Ritchie. Altogether there are some 7500 shares, and Senator Payne has kept adding to the shares obtained under the above agreement until he is now the holder of 4500 shares and has the controlling vote.

In opening, Mr. Cassels said that the object of the Senator was to elect at the general meeting, which takes place to-day, friends of his own as directors, and to oust Ritchie from the presidency of the road and get the control of the company's interest into his own hands.

Mr. D'Alton McCarthy, Q.C., appeared on behalf of Senator Payne and contended that the injunction should be discharged.

The evidence on the motion was very contradictory, and after listening patiently to the argument of the case for some hours his lordship made an order continuing the injunction as to certain of the shares held by the defendant till the case can be tried and the matters in dispute settled.

The effect of the order is in the meantime to take away from Payne the controlling vote.

President Ritchie and Secretary Fraser of the railway company were attentive listeners during the argument.

In the old alimony suit of Haddon v. Haddon the judgment was amended by consent of parties and Mrs. Haddon awarded $30 per month alimony instead of $60.

The motion to strike Solicitor A.W. Wilkin off the rolls came up before Chancellor Boyd yesterday. Wilkin claimed that Mrs. Edgington, the complainant, was indebted to him for legal services, and a taxation was directed of his bill against her, the motion to be enlarged meantime.

The Late Captain Jackman.

Many old friends were at the funeral of Captain Frank Jackman, sr., yesterday. He had hosts of friends in life, and a large number were at his obsequies. He was one of the best known lake captains in Canada. He died suddenly Monday at his residence, 226 Berkeley-street. He was at work in the forenoon, and while on his way to work in the afternoon complained of pain in the region of the heart. He returned to the house and shortly afterwards expired from heart failure. He had sailed on the lakes for over 40 years, and in 1865 made a voyage to Port Natal, South Africa, in the Sea Gull, a boat built to carry about 14,000 bushels of grain. He took a general cargo to Africa, and occupied 18 months in making the trip, as he was detained there for three months. He was accompanied by Captain James Jackman, his nephew, and Captain May. On his return he retired from sailing and for a time directed his attention to vessel building. He did not continue long as a builder, and resumed sailing. He was employed on the Albion, Matilda Jane, Marco Polo, Omar Pasha, Mary Grover, Watertown and other boats. For the past few years he was captain on the tug Dolphin, which is employed in the harbor improvements.

The following supplementals will be admitted in September: Chemistry—C. F. Colter, W. A. Sangster, H. P. Thompson, S. E. Siegel, L. J. Wells. Physiology and Materia Medica—L. J. Wells.

These results do not include the standing in metal work, which will be fixed at the meeting of the Board of Directors in July next.

A Concert of Sweet Sounds.

A Lenten service of song was given last evening in the Church of the Redeemer by the choir of the church, assisted by Mr. Sims Richards. Mr. Giuseppi Dinelli presided at the organ, and his various selections were rendered with good effect. The solo "Hear My Prayer," by Miss Gaylord, was well received, as were also those by Miss Kleiser and Miss Beach. Mr. E. W. Schuch's "The Lost Chord" and Mr. Sims Richards' "Sound an Alarm" were highly appreciated by the large audience. Miss Jardine-Thomson was unable to appear on account of illness.

Proof of Scotch Loyalty.

There is now on exhibition at Messrs. Hart & Co.'s the address of condolence to be sent by St. Andrew's Society to the Queen. The address is bound in full morocco, with very attractive silver tooling. There are three leaves, the first being a beautifully illustrated title page; the second the body of the address, and the third the signatures of the officers of the society. The volume reflects great credit on the skill of Messrs. Hart & Co.

Cricketers' Concert.

The West Toronto Junction Cricket Club held their annual concert on Tuesday evening. It was a complete success, the hall being crowded and the enthusiasm great. Mr. T. Tait was to have presided, but at the last moment was unable to come. Miss Johnson gave one of her excellent readings, and Mr. Douglas Bird's singing met with much favor. Mme. De Chadenedes and Mr. Harry Rich were also accorded a favorable reception.

James Cullen, Pool's Island, N.F., writes: "I have been watching the progress of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil since its introduction to this place, and with much pleasure state that my anticipations of its success have been fully realized, it having cured me of bronchitis and soreness of nose; while not a few of my 'rheumatic neighbors' (one old lady in particular) pronounce it to be the best article of its kind that has ever been brought before the public. Your medicine does not require any longer a sponsor, but if you wish me to act as such, I shall be only too happy to have my name connected with your prosperous child."

Cheering the Invalids.

The buglers of the Q.O.R. gave a very pleasant entertainment to the inmates of the Home for Incurables. The most amusing part of the program was the production of "Judge McGinty's Court," an Irish comedy, which kept the inmates in roars of laughter. The Colonel, on behalf of the home, thanked the boys for their splendid program, after which they sang "God Save the Queen" and had some light refreshments, leaving about 10.30 o'clock feeling as though they had done some good.

As Parmelee's Vegetable Pills contain Mandrake and Dandelion, they cure Liver and Kidney Complaints with unerring certainty. They also contain Roots and Herbs which have specific virtues truly wonderful in their action on the stomach and bowels. Mr. E. A. Cairncross, Shakespeare, writes: "I consider Parmelee's Pills an excellent remedy for Biliousness and Derangement of the Liver, having used them myself for some time."

How They Appreciated Him.

A pleasing event occurred last evening in West Toronto Junction at the Occidental Hotel, when Mr. McArthur of the firm of McIntosh & McArthur was banqueted and presented with a gold-headed cane by his friends, the occasion being his removal from town.

Corns and soft corns cannot withstand HollowAy's Corn Cure; it is effectual every time. Get a bottle at once and be happy.

WE SHOULD CHANGE WITH THE SEASON!

Purification, Cleansing and Recuperating.

Springtime with its changeful and variable weather is now with us. While nature is changing its garb and dress and showing signs of a new life men and women of all classes should at once begin to cast off the impurities which the system has imbibed during the winter months.

Over-heated and badly-ventilated houses largely contribute to the sick list. The demands of society so steadily pursued in winter, necessitating late hours and sudden changes in temperature, have brought on serious ills and alarming diseases that always show up at this time.

The system needs purifying and cleansing, the nerves need bracing up and the digestive organs require toning and strengthening. That horrid and miserable dyspepsia must be banished, those fearful headaches must be got rid of, the sallow cheek must be made to bloom with health—all these depressing ailments must be cured before men and women can enter into the enjoyment of spring and summer weather.

The great question now with many is the kind of medicine that must be used to bring about desired results. There should be no hesitating on this score. Thousands of our wisest people have in past seasons decided this question. They have found that Paine's Celery Compound has no equal as a spring medicine. Its effects are always so satisfactory at this season that physicians themselves prescribe and recommend it without hesitation.

Paine's Celery Compound guarantees a cure; no other remedy can honestly give such a promise or warrant good and true results.

No Canadian home should be without a bottle of Celery Compound at this time, and all should know that very often the money expended on a single bottle is sufficient to do away with the expensive attendance of a physician.

FROM TOLEDO'S ARSENAL

Interesting Collection of Weapons of the Spaniards.

Mr. J. Enoch Thompson, the Spanish Consul, has on exhibition a very fine collection of Spanish weapons made in the famous arsenal of Toledo. There are a large number of swords of excellent workmanship, some very exquisitely ornamented. Among others may be mentioned a sword with a waved blade, and others with Arabic characters on the blade. There is a specimen of the combined spear and battle-ax which did such yeoman service in the wars of the 16th century. The whole exhibition, with its curious and valuable weapons, is most interesting and should be well visited during the week during which the public will be admitted.

All for a Barley Corn.

LaFontaine, in one of his fables, tells of a barnyard fowl that scratched up a gem while scratching for corn. Not knowing its value he gave it to a stonecutter for a barley corn. Thus do many persons throw away the priceless pearl of health. A "trifling" cough is neglected, then comes consumption, then death. Stop the cough or look out for a coffin. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure catarrh in the head, bronchial or throat affections, or lung scrofula (commonly known as the consumption of the lungs). If taken in time and given a fair trial, it will cure or the money paid for it will be refunded. It is the only guaranteed cure.

The New Principal of Woodstock.

The Senate of McMaster University has appointed Mr. Joseph I. Bates, B.A., Ph.M., as principal of Woodstock College. The new principal has been acting principal of the college since the death of the late Principal Huston, M.A., and has been for years teaching in the college. His brother, Rev. S. S. Bates, is pastor of College-street Baptist Church, Toronto.

Service of Song and Readings.

A most attractive program has been prepared for the service of song and readings in Carlton-street Methodist Church to-night. There will be readings by Mr. S. H. Clark, cornet solos by Mr. H. L. Clarke, oratorio choruses by the choir and solos, quartets, etc., by Mrs. Scrimger-Massie, Mrs. Fred G. Cox, Mr. Sims Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Cameron, Master Theobald F. Gibson and others. Silver collection of 10 cents and upwards.

C.P.R. Tourist Excursions.

Although the C.P.R. has lately increased the service of tourist excursions to run weekly instead of fortnightly they still find the demand keeps up, and each Friday when this car leaves Toronto there is very little space to spare. Berths can be reserved any length of time in advance and tickets purchased at C.P.R. Ticket Office, 24 York-street.

The Rebellion of 1837.

Mr. James Bain of the Free Library is to occupy the attention of the Historical section in the Canadian Institute building on this (Thursday) evening. Subject: "The Rebellion of 1837, as Seen by an English Officer." An interesting paper and discussion are expected. Doors open to all at 8 p.m.

In Office For the Year.

Cronyn; second vice-president, Mr. Edward Capp; secretary, Mr. H. O'Malley; treasurer, Mr. H. Anderson; curator, Mr. Soanes; fourth year councillor, Mr. R. J. Murphy; third year councillor, Mr. W. Robertson; second year councillor, Mr. W. D. Scott.

Oh, What a Cough! The signal Will you heed the warning? perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c, to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails.

Re City v. C.P.R. Arbitration.

Messrs. Frank Cayley and Frank P. Lee gave evidence yesterday afternoon before Arbitrators Judge McDougall, Horace Thorne and A. H. Marsh, on behalf of the city, in the matter of the arbitration between the city and C.P.R. on the upper part of Riverdale Park property, north of Winchester-street.

St. Matthew's Ward Liberal-Conservatives.

The officers elected were: President, John Greer; vice-president, J. B. LeRoy; secretary-treasurer, R. H. Sparks; executive, Messrs. Jennings, Woodcock, Summerhayes, W. J. Smith, Peirce, McCague.
