M'CLARY NINE TOOK THE SERIES

Won the County Championship From Strathroy's Team.

McClarys yesterday annexed the county championship by defeating Strathroy in the final game of the series.

It was a duel between Earley and Deneau. The former got a bad start, and the latter had a very bad ending. McClarys have caught the garrison finish fever, and with the score 4 to 2 against them in the ninth, they lit on to "Rube" Deneau and hit him heavily, scoring four runs. The Strathroy boys were blanked in their half. Earley pitched great ball after the bad first.

THE TURF.

HILDEBRAND PUNISHED.

New York, Sept. 13. — A. L. Aste's Alwin, a 12-to-1 shot, easily won the Ocean View Handicap at Gravesend today, with Merry Lark, 10 to 1, and Oxford, 15 to 1, third.

Alwin went to the front and led his field by a length to the stretch, where he drew away and won by six lengths. The fight for the place was close, Merry Lark winning by a head.

Jockey Hildebrand was today fined $200 by the stewards and set down for the remainder of the week. His offense today was his rough work on Odd Ella.

YESTERDAY'S WINNERS.

At Gravesend—Cederstrome, 40 to 1; Balzac, 3 to 5; Sufficiency, 5 to 2; Alwin, 12 to 1; Footsmook, 15 to 1; Yorkshire Lad, 12 to 1.

At Fort Erie—Cobmosa, 3 to 1; Jim Ferrin, 3 to 1; Jungle Imp, 2 to 1; Jean Lee, 7 to 5; A. Muskoday, 8 to 1; Silurian, 8 to 1.

Eat When Hungry.

The best place for visitors to obtain a good meal is at the Olympia Restaurant, Dundas street. An extra good meal is served this week. Don't go to the Fair grounds before having your dinner. If you require a lunch we can serve you quickly. 17k

IT HAS MANY OFFICES.—Before the German soldier starts on a long march he rubs his feet with tallow, for his first care is to keep his feet in good condition. If he knew that Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil would be of much better service he would throw away his tallow and pack a few bottles of the Oil in his knapsack. There is nothing like it.

But few men who attend strictly to their own business die from overwork.

Many a man looks heavenward only when he is anxious to get a line on the weather.

CHOLERA and all summer complaints are so quick in their action that the cold hand of death is upon the victims before they are aware that danger is near. If attacked do not delay in getting the proper medicine. Try a dose of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, and you will get immediate relief. It acts with wonderful rapidity, and never fails to effect a cure.

SNAP-SHOTS AT VARIOUS SPORTS.

Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, and 'is football players were smitten at Berlin, yesterday. Deah me! 'Ow crude! Berlin should have known bettah! Our old country cousins do not perform so well when they strike a town where they play real football. The Englishmen beat Hamilton, but that's nothing.

R. Burns, of Toronto, won the Ontario championship, from Boys, of Orillia.

Delbars, the Forest pacer, took a record of 2:12 1-4 at Detroit yesterday. That's going some.

Flanagan, the New York policeman, when he gets tired of work (?) yawns, picks up the 16-pound hammer, and tosses it several feet farther than the record. The other morning he tossed it 175 feet. Stop that, Flanagan, or they will make you work hard.

Joe Gans wants to fight Nelson now. Now, Joe, we had quite forgotten about you. Let's see, the last man you fought was Jimmy Britt at California. We can taste that yet. It certainly was the worst ever. No, you have been in too many fakes already. You're a very good fighter, but that Baltimore crowd behind you are too crooked to sleep comfortably, any way but standing up. None of your game for ours, Joe.

The Toronto Telegram man is real savage when he works off this passage. We admit that the circumstances justify it to a degree, but a term in the penitentiary for getting money under false pretenses would help some. Here is the blood-curdling wish of that ink-slinger:

"By the way, there aren't many of us who would go into black were we to wake up some fine morning and find that the Toronto ball team had played the star part in some awful railroad disaster."

George Ballard, last year's quarter-back, has been appointed captain of the senior team of the Hamilton Tigers. Ballard learned the snapback game at 'Varsity, and is a very heady player. He is aggressive and a first-class tackle.

Young McLeod teamed a fine race yesterday with Joe Leiter at the Fair. This boy is driving better every time out, and for a youngster he's good. He will make a great driver.

Jack London, the celebrated novelist, has a long account in the New York papers, in which he says the "abysmal brute" in Nelson won the fight against Britt. That's a fine line. The abysmal brute was busy in Britt likewise, but Nelson kept the busier. These literary gents are great at the prize-fight game. Jimmy had the more mind, but Nelson had the punch. Below are the paragraphs that explain the whole business:

"Fighting with his intellect and with his body as well, Britt was knocked out because his body was not strong enough to keep his mind poised in control and directing his body. When the body was weakened the mind was overthrown, and his cleverness and his intelligence counted for nothing.

"Not so the Dane, the abysmal in him fought on. It was the will of life itself. The fleshy life as a thing apart from the mind, and the spirit that moved in on him, and that outmoved the same kind of life that was in Britt. Britt is the finer human, Nelson is the finer fighting animal.

"Nevertheless, all hail to both of them. They play the clean game of life, and I, for one, would rather be either of them at Colma than a man who took no exercise with his body today, but instead waxed physically gross in the course of gathering to himself a few dollars in the commercial game."

The conclusion is all right, but that "abysmal brute" part has us sitting up at nights.

BERLIN ON BIG END, TWO TO ONE

English Football Team Defeated by the Waterloo Boys—A Hard Game.

Berlin, Ont, Sept. 13. — The Pilgrims, the English football team, now touring Canada, were defeated by the Rangers here this afternoon, after a closely contested game, by a score of 2 to 1.

The game was witnessed by fifteen hundred people, there being a good many visitors from surrounding towns. A great many citizens took advantage of the quarter-day holiday, which had been proclaimed, and the Athletic Park contained a large assembly of spectators.

The game was called at 4:40, and it was 6:30 before time was called

After ten minutes' play the visitors scored a goal after much hard work, and the score remained 1 to 0 until half-time.

The visitors are husky men and play the game for all they are worth, but if you traveled the whole British Empire you couldn't find a more gentlemanly lot of players. The game was devoid of all roughness.

The second half belonged to the Rangers, although the Pilgrim still played their prettiest, but Waggoner got a pretty shot and scored for Berlin before the second goal was scored. There was some heavy bombarding on England's goal, Sir Charles stopping many.

The second goal was scored this way: The ball was kicked across the touchline, thrown in; Waterson kicked to Brinkert, and a clever shot scored Berlin's second goal.

The visitors claimed an offside, but the referee decided otherwise.

Sir Charles, who is a clever goalkeeper, lost this by the sun dazzling his eyeglasses, but it was a fair goal, and Berlin was happy, as they had beaten the all-England team. The line-up:

Pilgrims—Goal, Sir Charles Kirkpatrick; backs, Milnes, Walmesley; half-backs, C. W. Storey, Bamsdale, Mittall; forwards, Raine, Fletcher, Coopland, Woodward, Wright.

Rangers—Goal, B. W. Brown; backs, Rudnell, Scherer; half-backs, Sheriffs, Cochrane, Knell; forwards, Brinkert, Dumart, Waterson, Reid and Wagner.

Referee Harry Brown gave splendid satisfaction. The visitors were banqueted tonight at the Walper.

BRITAIN WOULD GAIN

Thunderer's Correspondent Advocates Canadian Preference.

London, Sept. 14.—The Times correspondent, in the course of an article on immigration into the Northwest, thus sums up the probable results of a preference for Canadian wheat:

It would divert the whole British immigration, which now goes into the United States, to the best section of a prosperous colony, vastly increase the northward drift of prairie farmers across the 49th parallel, and by threatening the transference to Canada of one of the pivotical industries of the United States, compel Washington to offer a reduction of American tariff, which was devised as a weapon against Canada. Great Britain would increase the supply and a better class of settlers from Europe would create a new great market for British manufacturers.

An Addition to Our Spacious Store...

Perhaps, when you have been strolling along Dundas street lately, you have noticed that the store next door east to us, has been undergoing repairs. Possibly the sign—SMALLMAN & INGRAM'S—in the window has attracted your attention. Maybe you have felt a little curious—wondered what departments were to be located in this addition. Well it is now the home of the Linen, Cotton, Fancy Goods, Wash Goods and Flannel Departments.

To many of our friends and customers—especially those that have visited us within the last few months—this addition to our already spacious establishment will not come as any great surprise. They know we needed more room. In fact, a number have remarked that we had more goods than space to show them in. Larger stocks and a rapidly increasing business made more space necessary. Hence the addition.

We can perhaps be excused if we experience a slight feeling of pride when we contrast the little store in which we commenced business twenty-eight years ago with the commodious premises we now occupy. And the reason for our success can be given in one word—Satisfaction. For nearly thirty years we have endeavored to treat every man, woman and child that came inside of this store courteously and honestly, to give everybody full value for their money, to satisfy them in every possible way. And we still desire this store to be known as The Satisfactory Store.

Just here, we wish to express to our friends and customers our heartiest thanks and appreciation for the liberality of your purchases in the past, and for your kindness in recommending this store to your friends. We hope you will continue to visit us. We want you to feel at home here—to come as often as you like, to stay as long as you like, to buy when you feel like it. Come today or tomorrow—bring the Exhibition visitors, too—and see us in our larger store.

A Special Inducement to Visit The New Addition at Once.

Our Linen Section is making it decidedly to your interest to visit its new home immediately.
