A CLOTHING HOUSE!

THAT PREACHES NOTHING BUT

WHAT THEY CAN PERFORM.

Not so with other houses in the city. Just look at the daily press and see the lot of bosh and nonsense they have published. One great big lie from beginning to ending, and remember good church people, too. Now, what we want you to understand is this, that we are not those kind of people who study some big thumper for a week, and then have it published in the various papers and think it smart.

Our aim is now and always has been to put nothing in the papers that has the slightest tinge of untruthfulness it it. No, sir, when we have got to resort to that kind of thing WE WILL PULL UP STAKES AND QUIT. Remember we are at present in the midst of a GREAT CLEARING SALE OF MEN'S SUITS. Every suit in the house has been marked away down, as we must Clear Them Out before Stock-taking. Come now if you want to secure a good, nice, well-made Suit at a Bargain.

WALKER'S JUBILEE ODE.

This year of Jubilee
Well furnished you may be
At Walker's Store.
Rivals censorious
Profess great scorn for us,
Still we're victorious,
Walker's serene.

For, spite of enemies,
Successful still is his
Instalment plan.
Honest his politics,
Fear then no shabby tricks;
Grandly your house he'll fix,
Walker's the man.

Curtains and carpets new,
Pictures and china, too.
There may be found;
Come and inspect his stock,
Thousands unto him flock.
Well can he stand the shock,
Give him a call.

Easy the payments are,
They ne'er your peace will mar,
Nor rest I ween;
So then, your comfort seek,
Pay by the month or week,
All who have done so speak
Well of the scheme.

If you wish to celebrate the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Queen's accession right royally, you could not do so in a more fitting way than by beautifying your home. A thing of beauty, so says the poet, is a joy for ever, and WALKER'S Store is the place to find it. An elegant Parlor Suite or handsome Bedroom Set cannot but prove a lasting souvenir of the festivities of the year, and with a new Jubilee Set of Dishes, how much more enjoyable will be the Jubilee dinner.
