CONNAUGHT PARK JOCKEY CLUB LOSES CUSTODY OF LITTLE BOY

REGATTA COURSE NEEDS DREDGING

The Dominion Day Regatta Association held a meeting last night at the Toronto Canoe Club to receive reports on the 27th regatta held last week. A small balance is left to carry over until next season, and it was shown from the number of entries that it was the most successful regatta ever held in Canada. The future policy of the association will be to foster ladies' events, and all the local clubs will be encouraged to enter crews.

A special committee was appointed to wait on the harbor commission and endeavor to have improvements made on the Hanlan memorial course. It is at present too shallow for canoe events, and with very little work it could be made into the finest course in Canada. The committee will also try to have the course kept absolutely clear of all craft on regatta day. The C.C.A. championships will come to Toronto next year, and it is hoped that the course will be put in the proper shape by that time.

The champion Balmy Beach ladies' war canoe are hunting for new laurels. They are endeavoring to get a series of races with some of the crews of American ladies' colleges.

Other postponed games are as follows: St. Marys v. Bellwoods, 6.30 p.m., Ramsden Park, Monday, July 12; Bellwoods v. St. Patricks, 6.30 p.m., Ramsden Park, Thursday, July 15; St. Francis v. St. Marys, 6.30 p.m., Ramsden Park, Monday, July 19; Hebrew Lits v. Melbas, 6.30 p.m., Riverdale Park, Monday, July 12; Herzle v. St. Aidans, 6.30 p.m., at Riverdale Park, Wednesday, July 14.

RAIN INTERFERES AT NORTH RANDALL

Now Necessary to Crowd Three Days' Racing Into Two Days.

Cleveland, July 8.—After the first race, a dash for three-year-old trotters, had been raced at North Randall today, a heavy rain set in, flooding the track to such an extent that the balance of the Grand Circuit program was postponed until tomorrow.

Miss Montgomery, favorite, won, eased up. It was Miss Montgomery's sixth victory of the year.

Today's postponement makes it necessary to crowd three days' racing into tomorrow and Saturday. Six races, including the Ohio Stake for 2.08 class trotters, and the Tavern Stake for 2.14 class trotters, both with a value of $5000, will be decided tomorrow, weather permitting, and five events will be continued Saturday. The 2.05 trotting sweepstakes was definitely called off. The summary:

⅝ mile dash, 3-year-old trotters, purse $525—

Miss Montgomery, b.f., by Peter Montgomery (Edman)	1
Torbay, b.c., by Dillon Axworthy (Hay)	2
Sister Azoff, br.f., by Azoff (McMahon)	3
St. Roberts, b.c., by Lord Roberts (Willis)	4
Betty K., b.g., by Binjolla (Erskine)	5

John Watts also started.

On Saturday Broadview ground again supplies the soccer tit-bit, and the two games staged there are bound to attract a crowd that will tax the ground to capacity. In the first game, commencing at 2.15, Ulster United meet All Scots in the first division of the Senior League, and a sterling game is certain to result. On the last occasion on which these teams met All Scots gave the Ulstermen quite a scare, and it was only after a very exciting finish that they were able to claim the points by the narrow margin of one goal. The second game, between Old Country and Toronto Scottish, will be no less exciting, and, as each team is determined to capture the points, a close and exciting game will take place.
