MR. MOWAT AS A FISHERMAN.

The Premier of Ontario Lands a Daisy Foot Foot Maskinonge.

From the Penetang Herald.

On Thursday last Hon. Oliver Mowat, accompanied by Mr. Christie, Inspector of Prisons and Asylums for Ontario, and Mr. Duff, of Kingston, arrived by a special Pullman at Penetanguishene, where they were received by Mr. McCrosson, Superintendent of the Reformatory, Mayor Keating and a few friends. The first drove out to the reformatory and made an informal inspection of the institution, and after partaking of lunch and being serenaded by the Reformatory band, they proceeded to the dock at the foot of the hill where they joined the party from town and got aboard the Katie Pilgrim, which had been kindly placed at the disposition of the party by Mr. D. Davidson and steamed out to the islands. When nearing Gin Rock some of the party remarked upon the appetizing effect of the lake breeze and it then leaked out that although everything else was provided for a substantial picnic they had "forgotten" the bread." Then there was woe and lamentation for a few minutes till someone suggested that a call should be made at the light-house. A motion to the effect that Dr. Spohn and Rev. Father Laboureau should constitute a foraging and supply party was unanimously carried. Their success justified the selection, as they almost immediately returned from the rock laden with bread and potatoes. All were happy once more and the boat steamed ahead—passing Mimecog and Governor's Island they kept on for about a mile further and lay to at the Whale's Back where all disembarked and went afishing. All met with more or less success but to the Premier and Mr. McCrosson belongs the glory of taking the biggest of the day. After trolling for half an hour and hooking a bass or two and a 6½lb. pickerel they got hold of something they couldn't manage to take into the boat, as they had neither gaff or net, so they "pulled for the shore" and landed their catch on the rocks. It proved to be a splendid, lively maskinonge, about four feet in length. This broke up the fishing, and as dinner was ready the whistle was sounded, the stragglers called in, and all were soon seated on the rocks enjoying the meal as only men can who have been on a successful fishing expedition. By the time dinner was over steam was up on the tug, and with the sun sinking in the Georgian Bay behind the Giant's Tomb the party once more got on board the boat and started for home. A pleasant hour was passed, and the boat pulled up at the dock under the lights from the reformatory, when good-byes were said, and the Premier, Mr. McCrosson, Mr. Christie and Mr. Duff went ashore. The rest of the party were a few minutes later landed by Mr. Davidson at the railway dock. A very pleasant afternoon had been spent, and none of the party enjoyed it more than the Premier, who regretted that he could not prolong his visit, but hinted at the possibility of his spending a couple of weeks with us, later on in the season when the cares of state may not be pressing so heavily upon him. We will warrant no prouder man entered Toronto on Friday last than the Premier of Ontario on his return to the city with the choicest of the afternoon's catch packed in ice.

When one takes into consideration the fact that not over half an hour was spent in fishing, it must be acknowledged that the take by Premier and Mr. McCrosson of the two fine black bass, a 6½ lb. pickerel and a four foot maskinonge with a single trolling line, in that time is not bad sport. The success of the Premier should commend our waters to lovers of the art piscatorial.

—What Toronto's well-known Good Samaritan says: "I have been troubled with dyspepsia and liver complaint for over 20 years, and I have tried many remedies, but never found an article that has done me as much good as Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure." CLARA E. PORTER. 36

A SLAVE TO COCAINE.

Another Physician A Victim to the Baneful Drug.

CINCINNATI, July 5.—For some time past the peculiar actions of Dr. J. W. Underhill, one of the most prominent physicians of this city, have excited the gravest apprehensions among his friends. The neighborhood in which he lives has been almost terrorized by his eccentricities, but his brother physicians have herstofore refused to state the exact nature of his trouble. It is now developed that Dr. Underhill is a victim of the cocaine habit, being the third authenticated case on record in the United States. The eminent doctor, who was twice elected coroner, and was for several terms President of the Cincinnati Board of Education, has been in poor health for two or three years. He went to the Bermuda Islands in the winter of 1884, and returned in an improved condition. While suffering from lung disorder the doctor contracted a desire for opium, which he used immoderately. Upon the supposition that cocaine would cure him of the opium habit he began to use it, but it seems to have had a contrary and more horrible effect.

The exact time when Dr. Underhill began the use of cocaine cannot be ascertained, but it certainly dates back three or four months. He is now a pitiable sight. The dreadful drug has reduced him in flesh until he is a mere skeleton. The pupils of the eyes are greatly dilated, and his whole appearance is indicative of a man under intense mental strain and excitement. On several occasions during the past two weeks the unfortunate physician has shown a disposition to be vindictive when deprived of his drug. Persuasion has been useless, and coercive measures were resorted to on account of the high standing of the family and the unpleasant notoriety it would give them. Yesterday the doctor slipped out of the house while unobserved and went to a livery stable, where he hired a buggy and drove toward the country. Shortly after his disappearance Mrs. Underhill left her home in great alarm, but could find no trace of him. It is certain that he had been taking large portions of cocaine hypodermically, and he was frenzied from the effect. He has of late entirely neglected his practice, which brought him an income variously estimated at from $10,000 to $15,000 per annum, and his former patients, awed by his horrible condition, have avoided him. A searching party was sent out, and he was found and brought home. The publication of the distressing facts connected with the unfortunate affair will create a great sensation in this city. Friends of the family say that the doctor will be committed to a private asylum next week. At times he is quite rational, and after the influence of the drug has temporarily subsided it leaves him weak and debilitated. Dr. Underhill is about 52 years of age.

—A letter from P. O. Sharpless, druggist, Marion, Ohio, in writing of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, says: one man was cured of sore throat at 8 years' standing with one bottle. We have a number of cases of rheumatism that have been cured when other remedies have failed. We consider it the best medicine sold.

Advice to Country Girls.

City life is not all that it is painted. It has its pleasures and conveniences, but it also has its serious drawbacks. Before making the plunge into life in the city, country girls should ask themselves what is really to be gained by it. Perhaps in their quiet rural homes some stray advertisement has reached them, promising to young women high salaries for light work. Hundreds of advertisements are framed for the very purpose of deceiving the unwary. They accomplish their purpose, however, and large numbers of young girls rush up to the city, dazzled by the generous profusion of promises. A girl from the farm answers one of these advertisements. Life may have been slow at home, but there was always good food and in plenty, and there was some one to care for in the old farm-house. When she goes into the big city she finds that "light work" consists in working all day in a badly-lighted and ill-smelling workshop, where scores of other girls and women are employed at wages hardly high enough to keep body and soul together. We know what often comes next. The girl has left home; she is ashamed or unwilling to return, and she must take the consequences, oftimes one of two things—shame or suffering. Many a girl finds first in the frivolities and next in the iniquity of the streets that excitement by which regrets and remorse may be deadened. If she is too strong in principle, too pure and elevated in tone thus to sink down to one of the pitiful women of the street, she may find herself in some cold garret, lonely, overworked, despondent and miserable. Better remain at home than risk the failure which attends so many girls who go to the city in pursuit of high pay for light work. It is the saddest of all ventures, forsaking a country home for the illusions and deceptions of a large town.

—Cholera morbus, cramps and kindred complaints annually make their appearance at the same time as the hot weather, green fruit, cucumbers, melons, etc., and many persons are debarred from eating these tempting fruits, but they need not abstain if they have Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, and take a few drops in water. It cures the cramps and cholera in a remarkable manner, and is sure to check every disturbance of the bowels.

Claremont in Good Order.

From the London World.

If the Comte and Comtesse de Paris come to England, and Claremont is offered to them as a residence, I have the highest authority for informing them that they may obtain other houses, but not one so complete in all respects for the security of health and comfort as Claremont. Claremont, like most of the country houses of its period, was in a very defective state. The sewers and drains were of the worst description, both beneath the house and at the stables. When it had been settled by the Queen that his Royal Highness the Duke of Albany should reside there, instructions were given to have the premises overhauled and put in order. All the old sewers and drains were taken up from beneath both houses and stables, all tainted subsoil removed, and new watertight and airtight drains laid, the subsoil being covered with concrete; the old inside domestic appliances were renewed and their ventilation perfected. The water supply was obtained from one of the London companies, and the service pipes were also renewed in the best manner; so that at present Claremont is, in sanitary arrangements and appliances, outside and inside, one of the best provided country houses in England.

—The popular fallacy that the finest perfumes could only be prepared in France or England has been effectually exploded since the Lotus of the Nile bouquet has been offered to the Canadian public. If you are not already using it, by all means try it, if you would know the perfume at once the most delicate and most lasting. 36

Pressure of Hard Times.

"Shall I vind the clock, fadder?" asked young Jacob Isaacstein, as they were about to close the store.

"No," said the old gentleman with a sigh, "pizness vas too bad. Choost let it alone, Jacob, und ve vill save the year and tear on the veels."—New York Times.

—No one need fear cholera or any summer complaint if they have a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial ready for use. It corrects all looseness of the bowels promptly and causes a healthy and natural action. This is a medicine adapted for the young and old, rich and poor, and is rapidly becoming the most popular medicine for cholera, dysentery, etc., in the market.

Brown—Miss Singleheart was telling me a very delectable bit of gossip to-day about the Joneses. I don't know whether I ought to believe it or not. What do you think? You know Miss Singleheart. Do you think she is truthful? Fogg—How should I know? I never asked her how old she was.

—Why go limping and whining about your corns, when a 25 cent bottle of Holloway's Corn Cure will remove them? Give it a trial and you will not regret it.

Eastern young lady, to western young man—We were disappointed in not getting cards to your sister's wedding, Mr. Breezy. Were there no cards? Mr. Breezy—well—er, sister didn't play any, but some or us had a little $2 limit after the minister got away.

—RHEUMATISM: yes, and neuralgia too, are greatly relieved and often entirely cured by the use of the Pain-Killer—Try it. 36

"John, dear," she said, "yesterday I covered your bootjack with silk plush and painted some flowers on it, and it is perfectly lovely. You will be delighted when you see it, I know." "I've seen it," said John. "You have; when?" "Last night. I threw it at a cat."

—Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is pleasant to take; sure and effectual in destroying worms. Many have tried it with best results.

A Malicious Report.

GENTLEMEN,—We have heard that some of the retail harness men of the city are trying to spread a report to the following effect: That our harness is inferior to theirs and that they have had a lot of our harness to repair. We wish it to be distinctly understood that our harness is as good, if not superior to any harness made in a retail store. We guarantee every set sold for a year and any harness or part of a harness giving out before that time we will repair or replace every strap if used for the work claimed to be. We therefore ask you as an especial favor to report to us. The reason of the above report is because we are selling harness at about $10.00 cheaper than they. We remain, yours truly,

Eating Tea.

It was not until the end of the seventeenth century that tea was indulged in as a beverage. The first brewers of tea were often sorely perplexed with the preparation of the new mystery; after boiling the tea they sat down to eat the leaves with butter and salt, the liquor having been previously thrown into the pig's trough. The Dutch were the first to discover the utility and value of the herb. In 1666 it was first introduced into England, and sold at about three guineas per pound. The best teas are now sold at from 50c. to 80c. per lb., and the books given by The Li-Quor Tea Co. on Yonge-street are marvels of worth. edx

A Strong Combination.

It would be difficult to find a stronger combination of first-class companies than those represented by Medland & Jones, at 37 Adelaide-street east and Equity Chambers, 20 Adelaide-street east, viz: The Norwich Union Fire Insurance Society of England, the Scottish Union and National Insurance Company of Edinburgh, and the Accident Insurance Company of North America—the well-known Canadian accident company. The assets represented by this firm aggregate over $40,000,000. Their telephone number is 1067, and any requests will receive intelligent and prompt attention. x246

A Wife Don't Know Her Husband.

A most remarkable case of identification is to hand in Toronto. A gentleman returning home from business was refused admittance by his wife to his home. A simple explanation will show the reason. He had just donned a new summer suit, and it improved his general appearance so much that even his "own wife" didn't know him. Coulter & Gibson, the tailors, 249 Yonge street, surprise every one with their nobby suits.
