THE WESTERN FAIR.

Novelties that Will Be Provided for the Sightseers.

A Magnificent Show Assured.

The officials of the Western Fair are kept busy these days receiving entries for the coming great exhibition, which will open on the 18th of September and close on the 27th of that month. The show, in point of attractiveness, promises to surpass all previous exhibitions. One of the most interesting departments to the many thousand visitors will be the main building, in which for the first time in the history of Canadian shows, will be witnessed the operation machines of almost every known description, illustrating the practical in the manufactories of London and the West. It will be a grand sight to see the workmen of the McClary Manufacturing Company turning out tin and other ware with almost lightning velocity; to witness the London Machine Tool Company's hands making screws; the looms of the Dufton woolen mills weaving cloth; the workmen of the London pottery producing their ware; Bryan & Co.'s men making brushes; Wm. Ward's employes making cigars; the Globe Tobacco Company—London's new industry—turning out its fine cut; Pigot & Bryan's artists decorating their chinaware; and Reid Bros.' employes making feather-bone corsets, of which the public have heard so much recently, not to mention the taffy-making industry, which will be conducted by Mr. Fred Fysh, and many others now being arranged for.

From outside London, Secretary Browne has been successful in securing the attendance of many enterprising manufacturers, and others will follow if they study their own interests. Mr. Browne paid a visit to Galt, Berlin, Hamilton and Toronto this week, and the result of his labors is highly satisfactory. Indeed, he had to labor little. He had but to show the advantage of being represented in a show that will be visited by many thousands of the best buying population in the Province—that was enough; the enterprising manufacturer could no longer resist the temptation. Among other manufacturers to be represented will be Cant, Gourlay & Co., Galt, who will exhibit their woodworking machines, now being made for the works of the Bennett Furnishing Company, of this city, in Glasgow; Cowan & Co. will show new planers; Sherley & Dietrich, Galt, will show saws, the Ontario Cotton Company, of Hamilton, give an exhibition of cotton weaving in the main building. In fact, all these manufacturers, as well as others, will have their machines in operation for the edification of the sightseers. The proprietor of the Berlin Button Works is also likely to put in a button-making machine. It would be a good idea, and a profitable one for this Berlin manufacturer, to set up his machine and turn out such curious souvenirs as is within its range. The ADVERTISER charges nothing for the hint.

Another great novelty will be the fountain and other displays in the center of the main building by the London Water Commissioners. There will be free drinks of the most exhilarating fluid known in Canada.

The Manitoba Government will have a special exhibit of the products of that Province.

The C. P. R. will have a large collection of grains, fruits, flowers and minerals from the far Northwest.

From the Ontario Agricultural College will be sent the cream of the products of the year.

The Ottawa Agricultural College will make a similar exhibit.

An interesting study will be the special exhibit of the Haras Nationel of Quebec. Their Percheron stock will be well worth coming many miles to see.

Another great collection will be the Southern Inter-State exhibit, which will embrace the products of fourteen of the Southern States, embracing figs, rice, cotton and other articles just as they grow; carpets made from the leaves of the pine; herbs for medicine, and garden products, including also live alligators from Florida.

No mention need be made here of the display of general cattle, horses, sheep, pigs, dairy produce, fruit and picture display at the Western Fair. These departments are always good; this year promises to be no exception to the rule.

The Western Fair, indeed, has no competitor in point of general attractiveness.

The lovely Miss Calvert, of Baltimore, (now Mrs. Carroll Bulmer), had her photograph taken once, but could never be prevailed upon to go through the performance again. When questioned as to the cause of his wife's antipathy to the camera, Dr. Bulmer said: "Her features are not regular, and she takes a horrid picture. Her beauty rests upon her deep, liquid eyes, coral lips, rich auburn hair, and a delicious, creamy complexion, the qualities precisely a camera cannot reflect. There is Miss Clinton, on the other hand, who is pock-pitted, dull of eye and faded of hair, takes an excellent likeness, because she has a straight nose and pretty fair outline of features." Now, is it not fortunate for humanity that those qualities in which beauty for the most part consists are the very ones that can be cultivated; while all the skill and science in the world cannot turn a nez retrousse into a Roman or even a Grecian nose? And what produces all this brightness of complexion but pure red blood coursing beneath a skin rendered transparent and beautiful by the free and unobstructed action of its millions of oil glands and pores, through the use of the CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisitely perfumed skin beautifier. b

Peculiar

In the combination, proportion, and preparation of its ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures where other preparations entirely fail. Peculiar in its good name at home, which is a "tower of strength abroad," peculiar in the phenomenal sales it has attained, Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most successful medicine for purifying the blood, giving strength, and creating an appetite. w

What She Wanted to See.—"So this is the mint," exclaimed a visitor to one of Uncle Sam's coin factories. "Yes, miss." "Oh, please won't you show me the mint juleps I have heard about?"

Nothing impure or injurious contaminates the popular antidote to pain, throat and lung remedy, and general corrective, Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. It may be used without the slightest apprehension of any other than salutary consequences. Coughs, rheumatism, earache, bruises, cuts and sores succumb to its action.

"Well, if that isn't cheeky," remarked the summer maiden as her seaside acquaintance suddenly kissed her on the velvety jaw.

The great lung healer is found in excellent medicine sold as Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It soothes and diminishes the sensibility of the membrane of the throat and air passages and is a sovereign remedy for all coughs, colds, hoarseness, pain or soreness in the chest, bronchitis, etc. It has cured many when supposed to be far advanced in consumption.
