WEDDING REHEARSAL DUE TO THE TRAIN

Decies' Nephews Learning to Handle Vivian Gould's Train.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, Feb. 6.—With the rehearsal today of the Decies-Gould wedding, preparations for this social event of the first magnitude to take place in St. Bartholomew's Church tomorrow, approached completion. Today's informal anticipation of the real ceremonial at the church was largely for the purpose of teaching the two young Beresford lads, Marcus and Graham, sons of Lord Decies' brother, to manage the bride's five-and-a-half-yard-long train, weighted with embroidery of silver. Elaborate decorations were being put in place at the Gould residence, and at the church the altar was being banked with palms and ferns and the columns entwined with hanging vines and smilax. The general color scheme of the decorations is white and green, the flowers forming the main features of the embellishment to the lilies and marguerites.

There will be no display of wedding gifts at the reception in the Gould ballroom, which is to follow the ceremony, it was learned today. Many costly gifts from friends of Lord Decies, the groom, were not forwarded across the Atlantic, it being decided to have these gifts await the bridal couple in London.

EDNA MAY IS TO ACT FOR ONE WEEK ONLY

Actress Cast in Old Part in "The Belle of New York."

London, Feb. 6. The most fashionable theatrical event of the season will be the amateur performance of "The Belle of New York," with Miss Edna May in her old part of the Salvation Lassie, it is to be given by the Stock Brokers' Dramatic Society for the benefit of the Middlesex Hospital. There are to be six performances in the evenings for the week, beginning Feb. 13. Miss May, or Mrs. Oscar Lewisohn, as she is now, consented to appear just this once, but says she will never be seen on the stage again, even for charity. Even though the prices are exorbitant, the house is sold out for nearly every performance. The stalls are $10 each and the cheapest box is $125. The speculators will undoubtedly get fabulous prices, and Edna May will be given a grand reception on her temporary return to the stage.

To See the Real "Salome."

Another society has been formed with the object of encouraging serious interest in dramatic art. This is called the New Players' Society, whose first production will be Wilde's "Salome," without cuts or any kind of alterations and consequently without the censor's permission.

The New Players will likely have a large application for membership, as only members can attend the performances.

"That's the way they beat the devil or the censor, rather around the bush here. There are four or five such organizations in London. Anybody can join by paying $5 a year dues and will be entitled to one seat for each different play, with which the censor cannot interfere. Some of them about reach the limit, too. The president of the New Players is Major-General Sir Alfred Turner, K. C. B.

At the Little Theatre a series of children's plays, acted entirely by children, was inaugurated Friday afternoon by Miss Lila Fields. Society was there in all its glory, and really became enthusiastic over the way the little ones acted. The play was called "The Goldfish." It was a sort of a "Chantecler" idea, but about fishes instead of birds. Miss Fields is arranging to establish a regular theatre which shall be a children's theatre in every sense of the word. The juvenile company she has gathered is really a remarkable one.

MR. CLARKE WILL HOLD CHAIRMANSHIP

Does Not Heed the Intimation From the Ontario Government.

Mr. Harry Clarke will not resign the chairmanship of the board of health. Although he received an intimation from the Whitney Government that they would prefer him to remain out of civic politics, he will not regard it, but on the contrary will hold the position for the time being.

"Are you going to resign?" he was asked by The Advertiser.

"Not that I have heard of," he answered.

He was asked regarding a message from Hon. Adam Beck on behalf of the Government, but stated that he had nothing whatever to say on the question.

"I am still chairman of the board," he answered. "I will occupy that position for some time, at least."

There is no doubt that he received the message. As a matter of fact, Mayor Beattie also received an intimation that the Government would prefer Mr. Clarke to attend to his duties as factory inspector rather than be chairman of the board of health, and his worship intimated as much to Mr. Clarke and other members of the board.

OVERHAULING NEW YORK

Census Expert Says Gotham May Be Surpassed.

New York, Feb. 6. The Times today says: That New York city has nearly reached its maximum of growth and will find its supremacy as the biggest city and the most commercial centre in the western world threatened by competitors during the next thirty years, is the belief of Walter Laidlaw, secretary of the New York Federation of Christ in Organizations, and a census expert of note.

In a long report on New York's Future, Dr. Laidlaw notes that the two great causes of the city's rapid rise to preeminence were the building of the Erie Canal and the massive immigration, and he declares that there are now certain forces working against a continued increase.

In the first place, Dr. Laidlaw sees a continuation in the decline of the share of New York in the foreign commerce of the nation. In the last thirty years it has fallen from 54.8 to 47.7. Canada is becoming an important competitor, and other American ports are doing their best to overhaul New York.

GET MAN IN TIGHT PLACE TO SQUEEZE HIM

Rev. Dr. Patterson Says Some Men Do This, Even in London.

Dr. Patterson, of Philadelphia, delivered a short address to a fairly large audience in the Auditorium Sunday afternoon. Rev. J. G. Inkster introduced the speaker, and extended a hearty welcome to all young men to attend the revival meetings being held in the First Presbyterian Church and St. Andrew's Church this week.

Dr. Patterson chose as his subject, "Light in a Babylonish Prison," and told of how Manasseh, one of the bad kings of Jerusalem, had been thrust into a Babylonish prison, and how the visions of his past sins and the thoughts of his future had led him to believe in God.

Dr. Patterson emphasized the need of training a child when it is young in the way it should go, and when it is older it will not depart from the way that has been pointed out. Manasseh was only 12 years old when he succeeded his father as king, and the reason of his wickedness was because his early training had been neglected, but when he had time to think over the sins of the past, remorse came, and he repented.

"Sometimes God has to be rough with us, and to use violent means in bringing us to worship him, but we will bless the hand that gave us these afflictions, if we know we are saved," said Dr. Patterson.

"God has two ways of drawing us to him," continued the speaker. "First, by the cords of his love, and if this fails, he uses the hooks of his judgment. It is better for a man to go to heaven maimed than go to hell with a whole body. If God does not bring you in one way he does in another. Some men in London [illegible] in a tight place and squeeze him out of everything he has. [illegible] you cases to get a man into a tight place to show his nerve and the love in his heart. If you would only get alone for half an hour each day, and think of the way in which you are living, and where it will finally lead, you would cry out to God for him to save you."

Mr. W. W. Weaver, of Ohio, rendered a couple of solos and led the singing.
