LEGAL NOTES.

Squire Jarvis Cannot Try the Sewage Nuisance Cases—Other Cases of Interest to Londoners.

At Osgoode Hall (Toronto) yesterday: Des Rosiers vs Walace.—M. D. Fraser (London), for the defendants, moved to strike the case off the list upon the same ground as in Abray vs Dixon, the judgment appealed from having been given in March last. Purdom (London), for the plaintiff, contra. The plaintiff gave notice on April 28 last for this sittings, the June sittings not having then been fixed. No notice of the motion to strike out was given. The court allowed the appeal to proceed under the circumstances of the case. Purdom, for the plaintiff, appealed from the judgement of Ferguson, J., at the trial at London dismissing the action, which was brought to set aside a conveyance of a house and lot in the city of London by the defendant Robert Wallace to the defendant Arthur Wallace as fraudulent and void against creditors, the action being brought in the name of the plaintiff (assignee for creditors) by the Bank of London, who have a judgment against the defendant Robert Wallace. Ferguson, J., held that there was an obligation upon the defendant Robert Wallace to fulfill a promise to convey which he made when in good circumstances. M. D. Fraser, for the defendants, contra. Reserved.

Fallowfield vs. Hutchinson.—Aylesworth, for the defendant, moved to change the venue from London to Woodstock. W. Read, for the plaintiff, contra. Order made Costs in the cause.

Burns vs. Davidson.—Judgment. Motion to continue an injunction restraining the defendants from alienating certain land in Portland, Oregon, pending the trial of the action, which is brought to have it declared that a certain conveyance and mortgage of such land are void as against the plaintiff, dismissed with costs. Aylesworth for the motion, Purdom (London) contra.

Cairns vs. Wallis.—Judgment on appeal by the plaintiff from the judgment of Street, J., at the trial at London in favor of the defendants in an action for goods sold and delivered. The goods in question were groceries sold by the firm of Cairns & Wallis to the firm of Wallis & Staples. The action was dismissed on the ground that the plaintiff by releasing Wallis from all claims, in an agreement for dissolution of the partnership between them, had released him from this claim, and had also released the defendant Staples, his joint debtor. The question before the court was as to the construction of mutual releases in the agreement. The court held that a release should be construed according to the particular purpose for which it was made, and that joint debts should be excluded from the operation of the release. Appeal allowed with costs and judgment to be entered for the plaintiff for $336 45 with costs. Robinson (St. Thomas) for the plaintiff. Moss, Q.C., for the defendants Wallis and Armstrong. Hellmuth (London) for the defendant Staples.

Reg. vs. Water Commissioners of City of London; Reg. vs. City of London.—Judgment on appeal by the prosecutor, one Chapman, from orders of Robertson, J., in chambers (19 O. R., 33) prohibiting one E. S. Jarvis, a justice of the peace, from proceeding with the hearing of informations against the defendants for a nuisance in the maintenance of a dam upon the River Thames. The learned judge held that the justice had no jurisdiction over corporations, and that he could not proceed upon a summons to inquire and commit a corporation for trial unless by consent of the corporation. The court considered that the question raised in Reg. vs. Birchall, though not argued in this case, stood in the way of their entertaining this appeal. Boyd, C., and Ferguson, J., both retained the opposite opinions they expressed in that case as
