

THE CANADIAN BEE JOURNAL.

The...
Canadian Bee Journal

Devoted to the interests of the Bee Keepers.

Published Monthly by
The Goold Shapley & Muir Co.,
(Limited)

BRANTFORD, CANADA.

TERMS:

$1.00 per annum, payable in advance; $1.50 if months or more in arrears. These terms apply to Canada, the United States and Mexico; to other countries 24 cents per annum extra for postage.

TERMS TO AGENTS—We will allow 20c. commission to agents or those already subscribers for one year subscription; 25c. each if two or more, or 30c. if ten or more new subscribers. Cash must accompany subscriptions and they must be for one year.

DISCONTINUANCES—THE JOURNAL is sent until orders are received for its discontinuance. We give notice when the subscription expires. Any subscriber whose subscription has expired, wishing the JOURNAL discontinued, will please drop us a card at once, otherwise we shall assume that he wishes his JOURNAL continued, and will remit soon. If you want your JOURNAL discontinued at the end of the time paid for, say so in ordering and your orders will be carried out.

RECEIPTS FOR MONEY—The receipt of THE JOURNAL will be an acknowledgment of receipt only to new subscribers. The receipt of renewals of subscriptions will be acknowledged by postal card.

HOW TO SEND MONEY—You can send money at risk by P. O. order, or bank check or draft, and if none of these means are available bills and postage stamps by registered letter. Money sent by other way is at your risk. We pay no exchange or express charges on money. Make all money orders, checks, or drafts payable to Goold, Shapley & Muir Company, (Limited), Brantford.

ADVERTISING.

We are in no way responsible for losses that occur in dealing with our advertisers, yet we exercise every precaution to admit only reliable men to our columns.
