The Rev Canon Burke and the Rev Mr Thompson visited the Institution on Wednesday last

Cauff Haight says that Bath in 1811 contained a valuable social library a thing at that date which could not be found probably in any other part of the Province

In 1817 the keel of the first steamer that navigated the waters of the Province of Ontario then called Upper Canada, was laid at Bath She was named the Frontenac Country Life in Canada fifty years ago

PERTH TOPICS.

From our own Correspondent

We were pleased to have Mr [illegible] McGregor, of Almonte, pay us a [illegible] lately

Your correspondent recently received half a dozen letters from some of our old boys, enquiring if they might work in the C. P R shops here [illegible] of them worked in the shops before

The C P R shops here are [illegible] down for the month of March, as the arrival of wood material for [illegible] and pending repairs to the engine [illegible] will be re-opened on April 1st In the meantime Mr Richard O'Brien went to Ottawa on a visit, and while [illegible] went out to see Mr. Alfred Grey [illegible] Metcalfe, and also spent a few days at his home on the farm, 15 miles [illegible] Ottawa Mr. Luddy spent a very pleasant five days visit to Smith's Falls [illegible] Ottawa He enjoyed the pleasure [illegible] profit meeting nearly all the men [illegible] Ottawa Mr. Noonan spent a day [illegible] Smith's Falls, but most of the time at home, which is 10 miles from here

Mr Luddy is working for the Perth Courier for about three weeks [illegible] foreman, who learned the trade with your esteemed Toronto correspondent Mr R C Slater, in the Toronto [illegible] office, in its early days) got his [illegible] hurt in the press and they wanted Mr Luddy to work for them in the meantime while He can work for them for about a month, but he intends to work in the car shops again on April 3rd, after the shops are re opened While working in the Courier office it reminded him of days while he was working on the CANADIAN MUTE and the good old times he spent at the Belleville school

We are pleased to have Mr [illegible] McGillivray with us again. He worked in the erection shop of the car works here last summer. At the time of writing he has not secured a job in the shops, but it is very likely he will as soon as they are re-opened.

Mr and Mrs. Peter McGregor deaf mutes of Almonte, celebrated their silver wedding on the 10th of March Their little daughter, Ruby, is now at your school She is their youngest child All their other children can speak and hear They have 9 children in all

Your writer was pleased to meet Mr Bayne, of Merivale, and L. M Hodgins of Diamond, in Ottawa. He was sorry to learn of the former's father being very ill and as he is at an advanced age there were not very bright hopes of his recovery Mr Hodgins and his family are all in good health. He was accompanied by his neighbor that lives opposite his place, Mr. Greene, father of Minnie Greene of your school.

Mr Denys has the heart-felt sympathy of all the mutes here in the loss of his father D. S I

ORILLIA NOTES.

From our own Correspondent

Mr Richard Willis and his wife are prospering, they enjoy the respect and esteem of a great many friends in the community

George McDonald is a first class woodworker in a carriage factory at Hespeler and has a steady situation which he values highly George is an estimable man, and takes a great interest in church work He teaches a number of mutes every Sunday afternoon in a Bible class.

Thomas Johnston and Arthur Clark were here lately selling needles and plasters.

William Fletcher is a welcome visitor at times.

The mutes at Orillia are always glad to see all the deaf who have business that way
