AT OSGOODE HALL.

A Slander Suit—Hotel Insurance Action—To-Day's Holiday List.

Giles Kerswell is suing J. B. Crake of Whitchurch for $2000 damages, because Crake is alleged to have called the plaintiff a thief.

E. R. C. Clarkson, as trustee for the estate of W. O. Whiting and Henry McLaren, is suing the Queen's Insurance Company, the London and Lancashire, the Commercial Union of London and the Phoenix for $2500 insurance each, as a result of the burning of a Muskoka hotel.

The following cases have been set down for hearing at Osgoode Hall today, before Mr. Justice Meredith: Queen v. Bonnar, Randall v. Herman, Hardy v. Pickerel, Barber v. Thibaudeau, Trenton v. Trenton Electric Ry., re Irwin, Irwin v. Toronto G. T. Company.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT.

Water Level Still Lower—Big Passenger Traffic on the Steamers.

That perennial grievance of lake vesselmen, low water, is in evidence again this season, and in unabated form. Early in the summer great hopes were entertained because of the general belief that the "seven-year" period of low water was at an end, and a steady rise in the level was predicted. The expectations of the mariners were for some time flattered, the water in the harbor remaining stationary for several weeks. A couple of weeks ago, however, it became evident that the level was lowering, and not a few of the steamers experienced difficulty in entering Toronto and other harbors. Yesterday the water reached the lowest point for the season, three inches below zero. This is much higher than the lowest of last year, but leaves insufficient water for the big boats in some of the channels, and all the large steamers are compelled to enter the harbor through the Eastern Gap.

On her first inward trip yesterday, the Chicora brought over from Niagara some 300 members of the Boys' Brigades, who had been in camp for a week.

The schooners Fulton and Rutherford arrived with coal, unoaded, and cleared for Oswego to reload.

The steamer Macassa carried 300 excursionists to the Ambitious City yesterday morning. The party comprised the employes of the Toronto Biscuit and Confectionery Co., with their friends, and an enjoyable time was spent in Hamilton. To-day the College-street Presbyterian Young People will have their annual excursion to Hamilton, and to-morrow the C.M.B.A. excursion will be carried.

Among the excursions to the Falls yesterday was that of the North Toronto Cricket Club.

The steamer Eurydice brought a large excursion from Oshawa, Bowmanville, Whitby and Newcastle yesterday.

St. Margaret's Sunday school had a picnic at Oakville yesterday, going up on the Greyhound.

There is a new boat in the coal trade between this port and Oswego, the steamer James W. Parsons having been chartered by Dickson & Eddy, to take the place of the St. Joseph. The Parsons arrived yesterday with 350 tons of coal.

To-morrow the Lakeside will make a special trip to St. Catharines, leaving Yonge-street Wharf at 2 p.m., and reaching Toronto again at 10 p.m.

The R. & O. steamers Corsican and Hamilton, which left yesterday for Montreal, carried large passenger lists. All the excursion and line steamers are benefited by the hot wave, and passenger traffic is now better than at any time during the season.

There were the usual crowds at the Island yesterday, several excursions being at Island Park.

The Boston Standard Goes Up.

Boston, July 13.—The Boston Daily Standard, which was started some time ago as the professed organ of the American Protective Association, and other so-called patriotic orders, has assigned and suspended publication.

Only those who have had experience can tell the torture corns cause. Pain with your boots on, pain with them off—pain night and day; but relief is sure to those who use Holloway's Corn Cure.

Business Embarrassments.

Davis & Son, boat builders, Kingston, have assigned to R. J. McKelvey.

R. Patrick, tailor, Galt, has assigned to A. Munro.

The creditors of Henry Read, Cloyne, will meet on the 16th inst.

Cumming & Co., undertakers, Toronto Junction, have assigned to A. J. Anderson.

The creditors of Ewan & Co., dry goods, Barrie, will meet on Thursday at the office of Henry Barber & Co.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS.

Great Meetings Being Held in the Enormous Tents at Washington—A Plea for Armenia.

Washington, July 13.—The last day's session of the Fifteenth International Christian Endeavor Convention began to-day at the appointed hour in the three white tents simultaneously, after the usual sunrise prayer meetings, President Clark, Treasurer Shaw and Trustee Wayland Hoyt presiding. It was a day reserved for missionaries. Addresses were made in tents Willison and Endeavor by a number of foreign delegates—India, China, Africa, England and the countries of Continental Europe being represented. Among other missionaries, Goll of Africa, Rutnam of India, Bentley of China and Hilder of Germany spoke. The chief interest of the day centered in the Armenian demonstration in tent Washington. An Armenian relief company has been at work all the week stirring up enthusiasm among the delegates. Special Armenian relief flags and badges have been spread over the city, and they appear everywhere in the decorations, in street cars and on the headdress and lapels of the delegates. Three Armenian missionaries are here, one being Secretary Green of the National Relief Commission, and the others being Ladies Margaret W. Lietch of Ceylon and Rebevva Kirjorlan of Turkey, just returned from the scene of the atrocities. The three spoke to an immense crowd of sympathizing Endeavorers in tent Washington.

IN HONOR OF PRINCESS MAUDE

Was a Large Garden Party Given at Buckingham Palace—Wedding To-Morrow.

London, July 13.—The Prince and Princess of Wales, in behalf of the Queen, gave a garden party at Buckingham Palace this afternoon in honor of Princess Maude of Wales, who is to be married to Prince Charles of Denmark on Wednesday. The royal party arrived at 4.30 p.m. The state rooms of the palace were thrown open to the guests, of whom there were about 5,000, including the usual number of representatives of the British aristocracy, besides distinguished persons from various colonies and from East India.

REDUCING THE ASSESSMENT.

Several Appellants in Ward 2 Who Successfully Pleaded Yesterday.

The Court of Revision, which consists of D. M. Defoe, J. A. Proctor and P. J. Close, worked all day yesterday. They dealt with the first division of Ward 2.

John Holderness of the Albion Hotel thought he was assessed too much, but the court would not agree with him.

Joseph Simpson, the knitting mill man, got $1000 struck off the value of the factory.

The St. Lawrence Foundry Company were successful in getting their frontage on King-street reduced from $80 to $70 per foot. The Front-street property was reduced from $65 to $50 per foot.

Discussing the Money Question.

A good opportunity may be had of studying the intricate money question which is now puzzling United States politicians. Last evening a series of discussions of the question was begun in Association Hall, Mr. William Houston, M.A., in the chair. Among others, ex-Ald. Shaw and Mr. J. H. McGhie were present. Mr. Houston answered, as far as possible, any questions put to him on the subject, and a general debate followed, in which everybody seemed to hold a different view. It is proposed to hold these public debates every Monday evening, the commercial aspect of the case being down for discussion at the next meeting.

Drowned in the Grand River.

Brantford, July 13.—Albert Fisher, a young man about 19 years of age, was drowned in the Grand River at Wilkes' Dam, while bathing. The body was recovered soon after going down, but all means failed to resuscitate him.

Good Templars' Social.

Primrose Lodge, I.O.G.T., gave an entertainment in Temperance Hall last evening, at which Chief Templar A. Chamberlain presided. Mr. Ernest Williams, who is totally blind, contributed some comic solos, to his own accompaniment, which brought forth encores. Other numbers were taken by Mr. A. R. Taylor, Master Kerby, Miss May Robinson and J. S. Johnson. Ice cream was served and all spent an enjoyable evening.

TIPS FROM WALL STREET.

The market closed weak at about the lowest prices of the day.

Rumors of gold shipments and gold hoardings had a bad influence on the market.

It is said that Wormser recently sold 30,000 shares of St. Paul in London.

The most active stocks to-day were: Sugar 33,300 shares, St. Paul 16,600, R.I. 3200, N.W. 3000, W.U. 3100, Reading 1500, L. & N. 5000, Burlington 12,000, Atchison 2800, C. Gas 7700, Manhattan 6000, T.C.I. 4000, Tobacco 6200, Wheeling 4400.

McIntyre & Wardwell send the following despatch to their branch office in Toronto: This afternoon's stock market was lower and dull and depressed in tone on the absence of support and the failure of outside buying to develop. Rumors of heavy gold withdrawals and of a disposition to hoard gold throughout the country were circulated with some effect. There was little news to-day of any speculative importance. Foreign exchange is firm at 4.88 to 4.88¼ for demand sterling, but very dull in the face of a marked scarcity of commercial drawings. It is asserted that the Russian Treasury offers a premium for gold equal to about ½c in exchange. The dry goods trade in the wholesale district here is unusually small for this season. Reports from all quarters indicate that bankers are acting in a very conservative manner in regard to credits.

CHICAGO GOSSIP.

Henry A. King & Co., 12 King-street east, received the following despatch to-day from Chicago:

Wheat opened higher this morning and held firm, but towards noon the market became depressed and prices declined a cent. Visible supply showed small increase of 21,000 bush, and amount on passage decreased 2,500,000 bush. Northwest despatches came bad from many sections. New York cleared 105,000 bush of wheat and 22,000 barrels of flour. Bartlett, Frasier, Logan and Champlin put out fresh lines on the bulges. Scalpers also sold. With convention business finished, we should have a better market from now on. The world's shipments were only 4,887,000 bush. Receipts in the Northwest continue large, 481 cars to-day, against 150 cars a year ago. Weather generally hot, with showers reported in Minnesota, Dakotas, Missouri, Kansas, Kentucky, Tennessee and Texas.

Corn opened higher, but towards noon became weak. Prices declined ⅜c. There is drought talk from many states. A continuation of dry weather would make prices climb. Receipts were 368 cars.

Oats were firm in the early part of the session, but market acted heavy and prices soon declined on a level with the opening. Receipts were 171 cars.

Provisions—Market heavy; business fairly brisk. There was good buying of Sept. ribs. Local packers sold Sept. pork moderately.

McIntyre & Wardwell (John J. Dixon) received the following despatch from their branch office in Chicago:

The market opened with an attempt made to bull prices by local traders, but it was soon apparent that there were no buying orders from outside sources and the strength was entirely artificial and in sympathy with corn and oats. Local scalping element later sold their wheat, and the market broke a cent per bushel, closing heavy near the lowest prices. There was no outside news to help the market, and while the regular weekly statistics, the decrease in amount afloat and the English visible, and the small world's shipments under ordinary conditions would have helped prices, still the small speculative interest in the market had more weight and influenced the minds of traders to a greater extent, and resulted in a decline. The heavy and increasing movement of wheat to this market, 410 cars for to-morrow, indicates that the country have been selling quite freely, and for a time at least we expect a fairly liberal movement of new wheat to this market. Cash demand light here, 50,000 bush taken for export, while seaboard reported no business. If we get a reaction in prices it will be due to the oversold state of the market, as at present foreign buyers are not taking much wheat from us.

Provisions opened steady. New York was a good buyer. Ribs and lard selling was scattered. Later John Cudahy's brokers sold Oct. ribs freely. Anglo-American Provision Company sold Sept. lard, $3.75. Pork kept steady all day. Offerings were light and packers do not offer it. The market closed steady.
