The Assorting Season

Now is the time to put our Letter Order Department to the test. We claim to be the assorting house of the Dominion.

Let Us Prove our assertion by sending us a trial order.

Executors' and Trustees' Compensation—Napanee Manslaughter Case Recalled—Committal on a Dies Non.

The Master in Chambers, in Globe Printing Company v. Hill Top Gold Mining Company, holds that upon the facts of this case in evidence the service of the writ of summons on one Fullerton, as agent for this celebrated mining company, is a valid service of the writ, and the motion under old rule of court 267 to set aside the service is dismissed. Leave is given defendants to enter a conditional appearance under new rule 173.

In re Platt, the executors and trustees of the will of the late Samuel Platt, M. P., appealed from the report of the Master-in-Ordinary, refusing them compensation for their services during a period of three years after the period at which the testator directed the winding up and distribution of his estate. The Divisional Court dismissed the appeal with costs.

For a New Trial.

Everett Williams was tried for manslaughter at Napanee before Justice Robertson. At the coroner's inquest Williams had given evidence, and counsel for the Crown at the trial proposed to put these depositions in evidence. Justice Robertson rejected the evidence, following the rule laid down in the recent Hendershott trial, and reserved a case. Deputy Attorney-General Cartwright moved now for leave to serve the prisoner personally, so as to allow the point to be argued, because the defendant's solicitor, who had been served with notice of hearing of this Crown case reserved, declined to appear, and the Divisional Court held rightly so, as his solicitorship ceased when the prisoner was discharged, and a motion by the Crown for a new trial was not pending. Leave was given to move for a new trial and serve Williams personally.

An Appeal Dismissed.

In the case of Reg. v. Murray, the Court of Appeal dismissed the defendant's appeal from the judgment of Justice MacMahon on the ground that the County Judge's Criminal Court, in which the defendant was convicted, was a court of record, and the only course open to the defendant was by a writ of error, and not by way of habeas corpus. Justice MacMahon held that though the committal of defendant on Dominion Day, a dies non, was a nullity, the subsequent trial and conviction by the County Judge was valid.

Life Assurance Case.

Judgment was reserved on the defendant's appeal from the judgment of Justice Ferguson in Crawford v. Canada Life Assurance Company. Donald Fraser had a policy with defendants on his life, and the surrender value of it was $302. The company paid this to Fraser and the question in this action is whether the company shall pay the surrender value over again to the plaintiff, who is assignee for benefit of creditors, and claims that the company had notice of the assignment and should not have paid Fraser.

GRACE CHURCH HARVEST SERVICE.

Bishop DuMoulin on the Grievances of the Irish People—Eloquent Address.

The Bishop of Niagara, preaching at the Harvest Festival service at Grace Church, Elm-street, last Thursday evening, took occasion to give his impressions of the Diamond Jubilee celebrations in London. He graphically described the procession through the streets of the metropolis culminating in the service in front of St. Paul's, and said that never could it be forgotten — that scene when, after a few minutes' dead silence, either the Prince of Wales or the Archbishop of Canterbury called out: "Three cheers for the Queen," such a mighty roar has seldom if ever been heard. Conspicuous, said the Bishop, was the American Ambassador in the midst of his gloriously-uniformed colleagues, thinking, no doubt, that he would like very much to be arrayed like one of them.

After touching upon the naval review and quoting the remark made by a well-known and prominent American politician, who was present, that "This means peace," he called the attention of the congregation to what he thought the grandest and most beneficial political act that Lord Salisbury had committed during his administration.

London and England had celebrated the jubilee and the Nationalists of Ireland had held aloof. And who could blame them? he asked. For 50 years the Irish had been treated shamefully; their wants disregarded. But when the future rulers of this mighty nation came to Ireland the whole national loyalty, deep and sincere, burst forth and a welcome was given them such as they had never and could never receive again. A royal residence at Windsor, a royal residence at London, a royal residence at Osborne, a royal residence at Balmoral, but nothing for Ireland! Ireland demanded and looked for the same treatment as England gave Scotland and Wales.

The whole sermon was one of exceeding brilliancy and power, and was listened to most attentively by a large congregation.

The harvest services will be continued on Sunday morning and evening.

Chicago Gossip.

McIntyre & Wardwell (John J. Dixon) received the following despatch from Chicago to-day:

Wheat—Liverpool cables were the only advices received from abroad to-day that quoted higher prices and they were regarded with suspicion by the traders here. Cash wheat was quoted in that market lower, and advance in futures was thought to be entirely speculative. Continental markets were lower. There was no foreign buying either way in this market or at seaboard. The opening was higher, but weakness immediately set in, and under selling by tired holders and accumulation of stop orders the market ruled weak all day and closed about the lowest prices of the day, the full decline being 1¼c. Export business fair, 40 loads at seaboard, but it failed to stimulate the weak market. Receipts continue large, 1,300,000 bushels, at primary markets today and prospects for increase of 1,500,000 bushels to 2,000,000 bushels in visible supply. The situation still looks weak to us and unless something turns up of a somewhat sensational description we think lower prices quite probable.

Provisions opened strong and higher on good buying of December lard by Anglo-American and commission houses at the advance. White and the Continental Packing Co. were free sellers of October and December lard. The weakness in grain markets caused a weak closing at lowest prices of the day. Estimated hogs to-morrow 12,000.

The Grain Standards.

The grain standards for the district east of Port Arthur were fixed yesterday by the Board of Examiners who met in this city. A large number of samples were on hand, and they compare favorably with other years. The new standards are practically the same as those of last season.

There were very heavy deliveries of fruit of all kinds on the market, which was selling at very cheap rates.

Peaches sold at 15c to 25c per basket for the common classes, and 30c to 40c for choice selections; plums, 15c to 25c, and 30c for choice; pears, 15c to 25c; apples, 15c to 25c; tomatoes, 10c; muskmelons, 25c to 40c per crate; onions, 15c to 20c; cucumbers (gherkins), 25c; celery, 15c to 25c per doz.; crabapples, 25c per basket; grapes, 2c for Niagaras and 1c to 2c per lb. for other varieties; pears, $1 to $1.50 per bbl.; apples, $1.50 to $2 per bbl.

TORONTO LIVE STOCK MARKET.

There was a fair run of live stock on the market to-day—cattle, 1045; sheep and lambs, 821; calves, 25, and 1500 hogs. This was independent of what was reported at Thursday's market. The market was slow, to say the least, and very little business was done in exporters until about 3 p.m., when a few sales were made. Buyers were unwilling to pay prices asked by country dealers, claiming that they must have the cattle at lower rates than they have heretofore been paying this season, as many of the shippers have been losing money. One drover from the country had two loads that he had held over since Tuesday, and they were still unsold at 3 p.m. to-day. Another dealer had one load that he refused $4.50 per cwt. for on Tuesday, and could not get the same price, although he offered them at that rate, and they also were unsold at 3 p.m., the time of our leaving.

Prices ranged from $4 to $4.50 per cwt., the bulk going from $4 to $4.35. We heard of one choice load selling at $4.60 per cwt.

William Levack bought one load of export cattle, weighing 1275 lbs. each, at $4.25.

Crawford & Co. sold one carload, weighing 1330 lbs. each, at $4.50 per cwt.

There was a good demand for butchers' cattle, and all good ones of this class were quickly bought up at good prices. One reason for this is that good cattle of this class are in demand at present for export purposes. The poorer ones of this class, and they were in the ascendancy as regards numbers, were slow of sale.

William Levack bought 150 butchers' and exporters' at prices ranging all the way from $2.90 to $4.25 per cwt.

S. Halligan bought two loads of butchers' cattle, weighing 1080 lbs., at $37 each; also one load, weighing 1060 lbs. each, at $36.50 each.

J. McCabe sold 20 head butchers' cattle and a few exporters, averaging 1025 lbs. each, at $37 per head.

C. Zeagman bought three extra choice export bulls, weighing 1800 lbs. each, at $4.25 per cwt.; these were very fine cattle.

Light export bulls were worth from $3 to $3.50 per cwt. Heavy feeders, weighing 1150 to 1200 lbs., sold at $3.80 to $4 per cwt.

Mr. J. Groff bought 23 heavy feeders, averaging 1216 lbs. each, at $4 per cwt.

Crawford & Co. sold 34 selected steers, high feeders, weighing 811 lbs. each, at $3.50 per cwt.

Two Western Ontario farmers bought 18 stocker steers, weighing 750 lbs. each, at $3 per cwt.

Stock heifers, weighing from 650 to 700 lbs. each, sold at $2.50 per cwt.

There were about 15 milk cows on the market, which sold at $25 to $40 each, according to quality.

Calves sold at $2 up to $8 each, and good ones wanted.

Sheep were in fair demand, and export ewes sold from $3.25 to $3.50 per cwt., and bucks at $2.50 to $2.75 per cwt.

Lambs sold fairly well at $3.75 to $4.12½ per cwt., or, in other words, at $2.50 to $3.35 each.

The hog market remains about the same, at $3.75 to $3.87½ for the best choice selections. This price is only paid for the best selected lots of hogs off cars, weighed before being fed and watered.

R. Innsides shipped two cars of export cattle per C.P.R.

Bank clearings at Montreal this week were $14,224,000, as against $10,681,094 the corresponding week of last year.

London cables to Messrs. A. E. Ames & Co. quote Grand Trunk guaranteed 4's at 67½, afterwards 67. First preference, 45⅞. Hudson Bay, £22. Northwest Land 58, and C.P.R. 76½.

The weakness of sterling exchange indicates early importations of gold at New York, and in fact it is stated that gold will be shipped from there to-day. An important point bearing upon the probable movement of gold from France is the improbability of the Bank of France advancing its rate of discount above 2 per cent. The managers of that institution have in the past always shown unwillingness to disturb the discount rate, while the governors of the Bank of England have acted in a contrary spirit and have not hesitated to advance the discount rate of their institution whenever by so doing an obstacle could be interposed to the exports of gold from Great Britain.
