Considerations for Buisness Men.

Referring to the question of how best a merchant can get value from advertising, the Chatham Planet points out that circulation is only one branch of the subject, though the main point. It says that a paper must also be looked for and read. "If only circulation counted, a merchant could get all of it he wanted by throwing round handbills." This is the advantage which old-established, progressive papers possess. The Advertiser primarily circulates in London, but thousands of prosperous farmers, merchants and town and village residents throughout Western Ontario, read one or other of its daily editions. They find important intelligence on every one of its pages, and side by side with this news the business announcements of the livest men in the community.

Topics of Today.

A telegram from Winnipeg announces that Hon. Clifford Sifton will be elected M. P. for Brandon by acclamation. The correspondent significantly adds: "The impression gains ground in the west that the Liberals are in office for a long time, and lukewarm Conservatives continue to change their politics in large numbers."

The last session of Elgin County Council was concluded by the singing of "Auld Lang Syne." Could the wind-up have been more appropriate? Never again will the members meet under like auspices.

The Toronto World is treating the settlement of the Manitoba school question with more fairness than some of its Conservative associates. It says: "Nothing could be simpler than the proposed settlement of the Manitoba school question. Manitoba is to retain its national schools. Catholic teachers are to be appointed in proportion to the Catholic population. The holding of religious exercises is to be optional. This, in short, is the effect of the proposed settlement." Our contemporary says it may not satisfy the extremists, but that the people of Manitoba will be satisfied, and the question which has disturbed the peace and threatened the welfare of the country is finally removed from the Dominion arena.

The Governor-General has wired that he expects to be back with his family at the capital by Dec. 16. The Ottawa people will exclaim, with the old woman, when she reached the Loch of Skene, "Aberdeen, and time till't!"

The trade revival in Canada under the new order of things, is effectively shown by Bradstreet's report for the week, which states that bank clearings at Winnipeg, Hamilton, Toronto, Montreal and Halifax amount to $22,729,000 this week, compared with $19,713,000 in the corresponding week one year ago.

Where men have held licenses to sell stamps in city postoffices, and have peddled the privilege out to others, Hon. Mr. Mulock, Postmaster-General, has revoked the license, the contract being usually handed over to the party who does the actual work.

A Canadian correspondent saw President-elect McKinley at his home in Canton, Ohio, and asked him for a message to the people of Canada. Mr. McKinley said: "I hope that the amity and good feeling between the two countries will continue, and that we may know more of each other as the years go on. We have so much in common that we are justified in expressing that hope." Certainly. Perish the mischief makers on either side of the border.

So the Spaniards Say.

Cubans Defeated After Two Hours' Fighting.

One Spaniard and Sixty Insurgents Killed—A Doubtful Story.

Havana, Nov. 21.—It is officially announced that on Wednesday last the column commanded by Gen. Lopez Amor and the forces under Col. Arminnan met 2,000 rebels, led by Serafino Sanchez. The insurgents occupied good positions, which commanded the passage of the River Zazasas. After an engagement, which lasted two hours, the troops forced their way across the river, dispersed the rebels and encamped in the positions that had been held by them. The insurgents carried their wounded with them in their retreat. It is stated that the rebels buried 60 of their number killed in the fight.

Cuban sympathizers here question the truth of the Government report, and say it is incredible that the insurgents, when retreating from the troops, should stop to bury their dead. The Spanish losses are said to have been one lieutenant killed, and two lieutenants and 20 privates wounded.

Madrid, Nov. 21.—Advices received from Manilla say the rising in the Philippines is extending to all of the provinces in the island.

While it is officially denied that Captain-General Weyler will shortly return to Spain from Cuba, the semi-official Epeca admits that he possibly will return "owing to the unhealthy season."

The great lung healer is found in that excellent medicine sold as Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It soothes and diminishes the sensibility of the membrane of the throat and air passages, and is a sovereign remedy for all coughs, colds, hoarseness, pain or soreness in the chest, bronchitis, etc. It has cured many when supposed to be far advanced in consumption.
