Lacrosse

The Unions had their first practice yesterday morning at the Barracks. Quite a large number of the boys took part.

SOME TRUTH, SOME POETRY.

Not one person in a hundred in New York or in its vicinity has ever seen a good game of lacrosse between evenly matched teams. In Canada when two good teams are going to play business is suspended in the town and stores are closed tighter than on a legal holiday. The game is the simplest in the world to understand and it abounds in critical and exciting incidents. There is more dodging, checking and shouldering than in football; more fielding and long throwing than in baseball, and more running than in a hundred sprint races.

There will be ample opportunity for people to see the game this year, as the Metropolitan Lacrosse League, consisting of the teams from Stevens Institute, College of the City of New York, Brooklyn Lacrosse Club and Rutger's College will play a series of games from now until the first of June for the championship pennant.—N. Y. Herald.

IF THE BOOM CONTINUES.

If lacrosse continues through the season with the boom it has received thus far, it is safe to say that the beautiful Indian game will be placed in a position where it will not be necessary, with each recurring year, to put new life into its adherents. Lacrosse is a really difficult game to master, and the chief trouble in the way of getting together a good team and sustaining the interest of the players has always been the discouragement, followed generally by the abandonment of the men, because they were unable to solve all the intricacies of the game immediately. It is to be hoped we shall see better things this year. The opening game of the season on Saturday between the Staten Island Athletic Club and Princeton teams, resulting in favor of the latter, was not an ideal contest, though really a good exhibition, when the fact of its being the first play of the season is taken into consideration.—Week's Sport.

Cricket.

The Toronto Empire announces that interest in cricket is still strong in the Upper Provinces. The Toronto clubs are getting themselves together for a grand season of sport. The Empire says: "The members are still speculating as to whether a team of the Maritime province, composed exclusively of St. John, N. B., and Halifax, N. S., players propose to visit Toronto and the leading cricketing centres in Ontario and Quebec during the coming summer. The Empire on more than one occasion has requested sporting editors of papers connected with St. John and Halifax to give authentic and reliable information as to whether such a team as mentioned intended to invade Ontario during the summer of 1890. So far as can be reliably obtained there is no prospect of this city being visited by a team composed of Maritime province men, a fact which will not only be a matter of extreme regret to Toronto cricketers but to men who are fond of, and actively engaged in, the noble game all over the province."

As far as can be learned down in this direction the Empire is about right. St. John will not even witness any games here this season, as cricket has practically been thrown over by the boys.

Athletics.

Mr. C. H. Ferguson, secretary of the St. John A. A. club, has received an invitation from the Manhattan A. A. club of New York to send on men to compete in their handicap sports on the 10th inst. The programme of events comprises runs of 125 yards, 220 yards, 400 yards, 1000 yards, 2 miles, 230 yards hurdles, a half mile walk, and jumping and weight putting contests. The prizes are gold and silver watches for first and second and silver medals for third. E. C. Carter is the official handicapper.

Give Back the Prize.

The secretary of the Beaver Lacrosse club has asked J. George to return the third prize in the 220 yards race, which was handed to him by mistake at the time of presentation, and which he did not win. George refuses to give it up. The judges have named G. McLean the winner, and, as winner, he is entitled to the prize which George now has in his possession. The Beaver club as a consequence of this young man's dishonesty will present another prize to McLean.

The conduct of young George in this matter is contemptible and is entirely opposed to what is looked for amongst amateurs and gentlemen. The boys are not only exceedingly wrathy over his method of doing things but they are disgusted. It is to be hoped that the object of their contempt will be debarred from entering the lists in this city again, for there is not much manliness in any one who keeps a prize he has not won.

WALTER SCOTT'S Dry Goods Store is open every Monday until 10 p. m. Special bargains are now being offered in our corset department.

PARLIAMENT'S DOINGS.

The Work our Legislators at Ottawa are Engaged in.

OTTAWA, April 30.—Mr. Mulock has introduced a bill to make Canadian officers eligible for command of the Canadian militia, for which only imperial officers are eligible.

Mr. McMullen inquired whether the government were going to take any action concerning Laurie's mileage.

Sir John Macdonald replied that the government had no knowledge of the case save what had been stated in parliament, as the business in question had been transacted by the proper officer of the house, but in the recess the government would consider the advisability of recommending a change in the rule governing mileage allowance.

Mr. Charlton in amendment to the motion to go into committee of supply moved his resolution respecting the Jesuits estates legislation. The motion had been considerably modified since notice was given last week, and now read as follows:

"That regard being had to the fact that the competency of the legislative assembly of Quebec to pass the 51-52 Victoria chap. 14 entitled an act respecting the settlement of the Jesuits estates, was called in question and that a belief in the non constitutionality of the said act was entertained in many sections, and in view of the feeling of disatisfaction excited thereby, and generally the disturbed state of the public mind on the subject thereof," and further having regard to the fact that his excellency obtained the opinion of the law officers of the crown in England as to the course which his excellency should pursue regarding the said act, "this house is of the opinion that the question of the constitutionality of the said act should have been submitted to the Supreme Court of Canada in pursuance of the powers conferred by the supreme and exchequer courts act when the question could have been definitely determined by such court."

In support of his resolution Mr. Charlton made a long speech, in which he indulged in a general attack upon the constitutionality of the Jesuits estates legislation and upon the practices and precepts of the Jesuit order and the Catholic church. He characterized the opinion of the law officers of the crown as of little or no value, because arrived at on an ex parte statement by the defendant's attorney.

Sir John Thompson declined to enter into a controversy respecting the general character of the Jesuits or the Roman Catholic church. As he supposed Mr. Charlton intended to circulate his speech in pamphlet form, he reminded him of that eminent authority, Sir Fitzjames Stephens' remarks concerning the publication of fanatical pamphlets. He declared that he or the government had no communication with the governor general with respect to the reply which his excellency gave to the delegates who met him at Quebec. He defended the reference to the law officers as the practice prevailing in England for two or three centuries. Continuing after recess, he pointed out that her majesty's government never sought refuge behind judicial decisions on questions of disallowance. In conclusion he stated that those not satisfied with the decision of the law officers of the crown were persons who were unwilling to be satisfied, and that if the decision had been on their side there would not have been a word about the impropriety of the reference.

Mr. Blake thought it a pity that Charlton had brought this matter up again, as no good result could ensue. His own opinion was that an attempt should have been made to have a reference to the judicial committee of the privy council.

Mr. Weldon of Albert did not see that the government were called upon to make any reference. As to disallowance generally, so many and so difficult were the questions from the provinces knocking at the doors of this parliament that many, he would not say he was one, were disposed to think that it would have been almost better for the peace of Canada had the right of disallowance been left with the imperial government.

Mr. Laurier thought no good could come of this fresh discussion. He thought such a reference as asked for would have inflamed public opinion in some parts quite as much as it would hive allayed it in others. He would vote against Mr. Carleton's motion.

After further discussion, Mr. Carleton's amendment was lost by 32 to 130. The yeas were McCarthy, McNeill, Tyrwhitt, McCulla, Wallace, O'Brien, Cartwright, Blake, Charlton, Paterson, Casey, Scriver, Fisher, Sutherland, Wilson of Elgin, Bain of Wentworth, Somerville, Mulock, McMullen, Platt, Innes, Livingstone, Barron, McDonald of Huron, Watsou, Bowman, McMillan of Huron, Waldie, Brien, Campbell, Rowand, and Lang.

The house then went into committee of supply taking up sundry reserved items of the supplementary estimates.

The house adjourned at 1.45 in the morning.

John Black, a son of Wm. A. Black had one of the fingers of his right hand badly injured while playing base ball at Richibucto the other day. Dr. Begg was summoned and put several stitches in the finger. It's "a gay and festive game," says the Moncton Times.

A young orphan girl was put in the Halifax police station last Monday night for petty thefts from her aunt, with whom she is living. It appears that the girl who is not more than sixteen, spent the small amount she purloined to buy clothing and boots for herself.

Mr. W. L. Browne, station master at Salisbury, died yesterday morning at that place. Mr. Browne has been ill for some time, never wholly recovering from an attack of fever last summer. A man by the name of Alonzo Fleet was brought before Justices Hardy and McPherson, at Moncton, on the 16th ult, on a charge of maliciously blowing up a building belonging to Mr. Malcolm Smith. The evidence proved that he was guilty, and he accordingly was sent to jail at Liverpool, to be tried at the Supreme Court—Gold Hunter.

The Missoula Gazette reports the death in that city on Saturday, the 19th ult., of Mrs. Thomas G. Hatheway, wife of Thomas G. Hatheway, formerly of Fredericton. Mrs. Hatheway was a Miss Hartt, and she went to Missoula about two years ago from New Brunswick. She was married about a year and a half ago.

Phillip Jones, of Doharty Creek, N. S., a respectable farmer went to his barn yesterday morning, struck himself with a hatchet on the head several times, then deliberately cut his throat with pen knife and slashed his body with the same instrument. Finding that life was not leaving him he threw a rope over a beam in the barn and hanged himself.
