nopsis of Canadian Northwest Land Regulations

Any person who is the sole head of family, or any male over 18 years may homestead a quarter section available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. The applicant must appear in person at the Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-Agency for the district. Entry by proxy may be made at any agency, on certain conditions, by father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of intending homesteader.

Duties.—Six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each of three years. A homesteader may live within nine miles of his homestead on a farm of at least 80 acres solely owned and occupied by him or by his father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister.

In certain districts a homesteader in good standing may pre-empt a quarter-section alongside his homestead. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties.—Must reside six months in each of six years from date of homestead entry (including the time required to earn homestead patent) and cultivate fifty acres extra.

A homesteader who has exhausted his homestead right and cannot obtain a pre-emption may take a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties.—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate fifty acres and erect a house worth $300.00.

DIED IN THE WEST

News has been received of the death of Mr. Dennis Quigley, formerly of Newcastle, at the home of his son Allan, Sintaluta, Saskatchewan, of paralysis. The deceased was 66 years old, and was one of the pioneers of the west. Leaving Newcastle thirty years ago on his first trip, he has made visits back to the scenes of his boyhood, his last trip being about three years ago. The warm welcome he always received was evidence of the high esteem in which he was held by all those who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. His remains were inferred beside those of his wife at Wolsely. Mrs. Quigley was formerly Miss Kehoe of Newcastle, and predeceased her husband 12 years. Two sons, Allan of Sintaluta and Thomas of Sedley, Sask., and one daughter, Mrs. Gerald Seymour, of Indian Head, Sask., survive, as well as two sisters, Misses Kate and Mary, of Newcastle, and four brothers, Dr. R. F. of St. John; John of Oklahoma City, Okla., Michael of Atcheson, Kansas, and Lawrence of Concordi, Kansas. Mr. Quigley held the position of grain inspector at Sintaluta for a number of years and owned extensive farming lands, which were considered of great value.

'The Gay Matinee' girl a high class musical comedy which appears at the Opera House on Friday, Aug. 27, will be presented by a capable company of fifteen talented artists, including splendid singers, funny comedians and graceful dancers. Reserved seats on sale at the usual places.
