THE G. O. M.

Cannes, Feb. 7.—Mr. Gladstone, accompanied by Mrs. Gladstone, drove to church yesterday, and received communion. He was able to walk without assistance.

SHELVED.

London, Feb. 7.—The Constantinople correspondent of the Daily Mail says: The candidacy of Prince George of Greece for the governorship of Crete and the Cretan question generally have been shelved for the present.

BRITISH CABINET MEETING.

London, Feb. 5.—The cabinet sat today for two hours. It is presumed the ministers were engaged in settling finally the terms of the Queen's speech, to be read at the reassembling of parliament next week.

SEVERE MEASURES.

Vienna, Feb. 7.—The government has decided to close all the colleges today, and to keep them closed uptil March 21, when, before readmission, students will be compelled to sign an agreement to observe the disciplinary regulations. This is the severest measure of its kind that has been put into application since 1848.

HEIRLOOMS VS. CREDITORS.

London, Feb. 5.—An injunction has been granted restraining Sir Robert Peel from removing pictures from Drayton manor, which the trustees claim are heirlooms. It is said that 45 bankruptcy notices are out against Sir Robert, and an execution in Drayton manor is in force.

FOR THE KLONDIKE.

Southampton, Feb. 7.—The first large party of Klondikers from this country, numbering 300 people, sailed from this port Saturday on board the British steamer Tartar. They expect to reach Vancouver in a month. They carry a quantity of stores, provisions and a telegraphic apparatus.

ZOLA ON TRIAL.

Paris, Feb. 7.—The trial of M. Emile Zola, who is being prosecuted by the government as a result of the letter which he wrote last December to the Aurore, strongly reflecting upon high officials connected with the Dreyfus case opened today in the assize court of the Seine. The keenest public interest was manifested in the case. Hundreds of people surrounded the court, anxious to gain admittance.

ELOPEMENT SCANDAL.

Madrid, Feb. 7.—A bill of separation has been granted severing the marital relations of Count Philip Folchi and Princess Elvira, daughter of Don Carlos, the pretender to the Spanish throne. By the terms of the separation Princess Elvira receives 300 francs a month. The princess eloped with Count Foloni in November, 1896, at which time she was publicly disowned by her father.

THE CLAIM OF FRANCE.

London, Feb. 7.—The Times, referring to the claim of France to an outlet on the navigable part of the Niger for her Soudan and Dahomey establishments, says: "France has no right whatever to such an outlet, and a pretension to obtain it, at England's expense, is a proposal which could only be accepted on the hypothesis that Great Britain had lost the power to defend her legitimate possessions."

STRONG FEELING AGAINST UNCLE SAM.

London, Feb. 7.—The Madrid correspondent of the Standard says: Senor Sagasta's response to the official note presented on Saturday by Gen. Woodford, the United States minister, complains of the filibustering expeditions, and declares that Spain cannot entertain the suggestion for fixing a date for her completion of the pacification of Cuba. Pessimist impressions are now current regarding the relations between Spain and the United States, and have depressed the Madrid and Barcelona bourses.

FIGHTING IN THESSALY.

London, Feb. 7.—Sanguinary conflicts continue between the Turkish troops and the peasants in Thessaly. The Turks, after severe fighting, have occupied and burned four villages in the Agrapha district, in the north of Acarnania, about midway between Arta and Domoko. Eight thousand Turkish troops were engaged in the conflicts. It is reported that in the neighborhood of Palaeokastrom the Turks were repulsed. A panic prevails among the inhabitants of the neutral zone. The Greek outposts have been strengthened, and the situation is ominous. It is probable that the Cretan question will be dropped until the evacuation of Thessaly has been secured.

CABLE NOTES.

The Duke of Fife, vice-president of the board of directors of the British South African Chartered Company, and Sir Horace Farquehart, Bart., M.P. for West Marylebone, have resigned their seats in the directorate of the company.

Balikser, Asia Minor, is practically in ruins. All of the mosques, prison buildings and other public structures, and a majority of the dwelling houses, were leveled to the ground by the recent earthquake.

Gen. Sir George Stewart, formerly commander-in-chief of her Majesty's forces in India, was thrown from his horse, and seriously injured. One of his legs was broken in two places.

The Spanish government has decided to send two additional cruisers to the United States.

Anatolia was visited by an earthquake on Sunday, which caused widespread devastation.

In the Far East.

Britain's Position Remaining Positively Unchanged.

More Warships Sent to China — Mr. Gerald Balfour's Utterances.

London, Feb. 7.—A dispatch from Hong Kong says it is rumored there that the British cruiser Edgar is stowing all possible ammunition preparatory to going north. The cruiser Bonaventure has been ordered from Devonport for China, and the first-class battleship Barfleur has left Malta for Chinese waters.

According to a special dispatch from Shanghai, Admiral Sir Alexander Buller, commander-in-chief of the British fleet on the China station, has arrived there, and an important exchange of views by cable has occurred between him, the British minister at Pekin, Sir Claude MacDonald, and the admiralty.

The correspondent of the Times at Kobe, Japan, says: "The Corean Government, having adopted a resolution that no railway concessions shall be granted to foreigners, the Japanese minister at Seoul, M. Kato Masuo, will demand that the contract for the construction of the Seoul-Fusan Railway by Japan, under an agreement made in August, 1894, shall be signed without delay.

The Daily Chronicle says it believes that the recent speech of the chancellor of the exchequer, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, at Swansea, when he said the government was determined, even at the cost of war, that the door of Chinese commerce should not be shut to Great Britain, greatly offended Russia.

The Vienna correspondent of the Daily Chronicle says a telegram received there from St. Petersburg asserts that Russia and Germany have signed a contract for the issuance of the Chinese loan.

There is no confirmation of the Daily Chronicle rumor of a Russo-German loan to China.

WHAT BALFOUR SAID.

Mr. Gerald Balfour, in his speech at Leeds, said: "It has been reported that the government is flinching from the firm position it had taken on the Chinese question; that it was abandoning the principles to which it had given public utterance, and that the brave words of the ministers were only a preparation for surrender or retreat. I can say with confidence that these rumors are without foundation. (Loud cheers.) It is not true that the government have in the smallest particular departed from their declared policy in the far east, or that they have, in consequence of pressure from any other power, yielded any of our just claims. He declared that the government did not desire to possess any of China's territory, except such points as might be necessary for strategical purposes, the reason being that they did not desire to have a second India on their hands. Great Britain's treaty rights secured equality of opportunity for trade, and she could not secure more if she assumed charge of a hundred million Chinamen. (Cheers.) As to the negotiations going on in connection with the proposed loan in China, he was not in possession of any secrets, and could not impart any. Mr. Balfour urged the public to cultivate a wholesale scepticism of any unauthorized statements with reference to the negotiations, and, above all, not to make any inferences from the fact that the statements made by newspapers are neither denied nor affirmed by any ministers. "The time," he said, "has not yet come for statements concerning the negotiations which have taken place, and which are still taking place. In the meantime, I am sure you will rest satisfied with the assurances which I now repeat, that it is not the intention of the ministers to recede in any way from the declarations of policy they have made."

The Daily News (Liberal), commenting on Mr. Balfour's speech, says it doubts whether "the lecture, which was delivered in the tones of a schoolmaster, speaking more in sorrow than in anger, will be successful in allaying the discontent of the government's supporters, although, on its merits it was sensible enough." The paper adds: "The distrust of the Tories of their heaven-sent foreign secretary seems too firmly planted to be shaken by mere scoldings."

The Standard (Tory) is not appeased by Mr. Balfour's speech. It again appeals to Lord Salisbury to take the nation into his confidence.

The Times dismisses the speech with a brief allusion, declaring that Mr. Balfour does not throw much new light on the subject.

Register, Register!

After tonight there is only one more day (tomorrow). It is the duty of every Liberal to get out and register before 9 o'clock tomorrow night.

Remember, there is only one day more for registration, and if you do not register you may be deprived of your vote. If you have any doubts, call at the Liberal rooms, Priddis building, Dundas street.

A WHITECHAPEL MURDER.

London, Feb. 7.—The inquest over the remains of Marta Wysocks and Clement Kluebmlorowich, both of whom were shot and killed in Whitechapel on Saturday by Marta's companion, Karazewski, through jealousy, has developed that Marta's husband is now in Chicago. All the parties are Russian Poles.

STEAMER DAMAGED.

Liverpool, Feb. 7.—The British steamer Lake Ontario, Capt. Campbell, arrived here yesterday from St. John, N. B., and Halifax, with her starboard bow stove. She reported that she had been in collision with the Wilson line freight steamer Hindoo, Capt. Douglas, from Hull, Jan. 22, for New York. The damage sustained by the Hindoo is not known.

LADY SOMERSET WAS MISUNDERSTOOD.

London, Feb. 7.—Lady Henry Somerset has written a letter to Lord George Hamilton, secretary of state for India, to the effect that the letter which she wrote him early in 1897 in connection with the repeal of the Indian Cantonments Act, was widely misunderstood, and she therefore desires to withdraw her indorsement of any form or principle of state regulation of vice.

LORD NEVILLE TO BE TRIED FOR FORGERY.

London, Feb. 7.—The recorder, Sir Charles Hall, addressing the grand jury in the case of Lord William Neville, said the evidence "appeared to establish a prima facie case of forgery," and it would be their duty to find a true bill against Neville. Eventually the trial of Lord William Neville was set down for Wednesday next. The Marquise de Santuario, mother-in-law of Lord Neville, died of influenza on Saturday last.

Card of Thanks.

[Ingersoll Chronicle, Wednesday, Feb. 2, 1898.]

"R. H. Cotter, Esq., Director Western Ontario Commercial Travelers' Association, Ingersoll:

"Dear Sir,—I am requested by Mrs. Morrow to acknowledge with thanks the receipt through you of a check for $700 from the Western Ontario Travelers' Association, being the amount of the insurance on the life of the late Mr. Morrow. Permit me to compliment your association on the promptness with which the claim has been paid. The claim papers were sent by me to the secretary of your association on Friday last, and the check was drawn up on Saturday and sent to Ingersoll Monday. Your association deserves the greatest credit for such a very expeditious settlement of this claim. Yours very truly,

The Rupture at Ottawa.

Everyone Talking About the New Opposition Split.

A Leader Who Says That His Supporter Is a Slanderer, Who Ought to Be Driven From Parliament.

Ottawa, Feb. 7.—There is still much talk about the rupture in the Conservative party and the revolt against Sir Charles Tupper, led by Mr. McLean, Conservative M. P. for East York. Mr. McLean was assailed by Sir Charles Tupper because he took that leader at his word, as contained in an interview printed in the Montreal Gazette, another Conservative journal.

On Jan. 26 last, at the Marchand banquet, and Hon. Messrs. Tarte and Fisher publicly announced that the Yukon deal had been consummated. Then, on Jan. 28, the Gazette published an interview with Sir Charles Tupper, in which he said:

"I have learned with great pleasure the news that the government has promptly agreed to help an all-Canadian route into the great gold fields upon which the eyes of the whole world are now concentrated. I have no doubt that the steps taken by the government to insure the prompt construction of a sleigh route between the Stikeen River and Teslin Lake, to be transformed into a wagon route after the snow has disappeared, and followed by the construction of a railway, to be completed by Sept. 1 next, will be approved by parliament."

It is this unequivocal approval by Sir Charles of the government policy which the Toronto World, Mr. McLean's paper, severely criticised, and for doing which Sir Charles publicly "dusted the jacket" of Mr. McLean, by denouncing him on the floor of parliament as a slanderer. Mr. McLean's speech shows that Sir Charles was even more severe on his follower than first reported. The member for East York hit back as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I think I owe it to myself and the newspaper with which I am connected that I should make some reference to the statements made here tonight by the honorable leader of the opposition. That honorable gentleman has referred to slanderous statements. I can only say this, that we have had on the floor of this house tonight, in connection with the governor-general, something that is slanderous, something that is discreditable to the honorable gentleman who vilified the governor-general as he did tonight. This is not the first occasion on which that honorable gentleman has been criticised by newspapers. If I can gather anything from his speech tonight, he is saying something against the World and in favor of a newspaper which dubbed him "a political cracksman." This hit at the Toronto Mail's candor, when it was posing as an "independent" journal, and using language of a decidedly robust nature towards the opposition leader, was much relished by many who heard it. It is difficult to account for all the bad feeling and pulling at cross-purposes, but it is apparent that Sir Charles Tupper means to keep the kickers down as long as he can. He denies Mr. McLean's right to formulate plans and views for him as a leader, and characterizes as absurd the view that he should say nothing on the Yukon railway matter till a caucus of the party had pronounced upon it.

An ordinary cough or cold may not be thought much of at the time, but neglect may mean in the end a consumptive's grave. Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine will not cure Consumption when the lungs are riddled with cavities; but it will stop the cough, will cure Consumption in its early stages, and even in its last stages gives such relief as to be a perfect Godsend to those whose lives are nearing a close.

Soft little slippers for the soft little feet;
Patent leather ties, stylish and neat;
The business shoe, impossible to beat;
Broad sole comfort shoes, a regular treat.

We have them all—but don't ask us to guarantee any patent leather. All other shoes we sell we can guarantee, but patent leather is uncertain—we buy only the best and can simply give you the assurance that you can find no better.

Of course we are in business only for fun and amusement. It's fun to see how good a shoe we can give you for a small price, and it's amusement to try and suit every one.

Rubbers and Overshoes? Yes—the best are here.
