VALUABLE PROPERTIES
FOR SALE.

THE subscriber intending to leave the City, offers for sale all that Valuable and well situated Leasehold Property, at the corner of Germain and Princess streets, a part of which being at present occupied by the subscriber; also by Mr. Howe, for the Post Office; Mr. Truro, for the Circulating Library; and Miss Vickery, as a Straw Bonnet Manufactory. The premises may be considered new, having lately undergone a thorough improvement. The unexpired Lease has seventeen years to run from the first day of May next, at the nominal rent of only £18 per annum; all improvements, at the expiration of said term, to be paid for at fair valuation, or the Lease renewed at same rate. The Property is well finished, and consists of four Shops and eighteen Rooms, nearly all of which are newly Painted and Papered. There is every convenience attached to the premises, and its central and commanding situation renders it one of the best stands for business in the City, and a most desirable place of residence. One half of the premises is now rented at the interest of £2000, or £120 per annum. The property being well known, a further description is considered unnecessary. Persons desirous of purchasing can at any time view the premises.

Also, That very valuable FREEHOLD PROPERTY, next adjoining the above, being Lot No. 616, fronting 40 feet on Princess street, and running back 100 feet, together with all the Buildings thereon, the same having rented the past year at the interest of £1000, or £60 per annum.

Should the above Properties not be disposed of at private bargain on or before Wednesday the 25th instant, they will on that day be offered at Public Auction.—For further particulars apply to the subscriber on the premises.

C. DAVIES.
St. John, 3d September, 1839.

VALUABLE FREEHOLD,
FOR SALE.

THE Subscriber offers for sale that large and pleasantly situated HOUSE, owned and occupied by himself, situate in Queen Street. Should any person be disposed to purchase the above property, possession might be had either on the 1st of November next, or on the 1st May following. The payments would be made easy; and the premises may be viewed at any time, on application to the subscriber.
Aug. 31. T. L. NICHOLSON.

JAMES AGNEW begs to return his grateful acknowledgments to his friends who so promptly assisted him in the removal of his property on the night of the 17th inst.

He would further state that his place of business is now in a part of Mr. George Whittekir's house in King-street, where by unremitting attention to his business of Watch & Clockmaking, &c. he solicits a continuance of public favor and support.
24th August, 1839.

JAMES OTTY & CO., beg to return their warmest thanks to those friends who so kindly came forward to assist them in rescuing their property from the awful conflagration on Saturday night last.

J. O. & CO., would inform their friends and the Public generally, that they have removed their Goods to that new store in Water street, opposite the Counting House of James T. Hanford, Esq., where they offer for sale a general assortment of Dry Goods and Groceries, Chains, Anchors, Cordage, Canvas, &c.
St. John, 23d August, 1839.

THE undersigned, in tendering his heartfelt and very sincere thanks to his Friends and the Public, for their able and persevering efforts to preserve his Goods and property from the devouring element, during the awful visitation of an Inscrutable Providence, on the night of the 17th inst. feels that any language of his would fall far short and be quite inadequate to express his gratitude for such noble exertions.

Having, very unfortunately, had no Insurance effected, he embraces this opportunity, most respectfully and urgently, to request those persons indebted to him, promptly to come forward and adjust their accounts, which is now the only way left him to discharge his liabilities and to resume his former business. To a community constituted as Saint John, this appeal, he trusts, will not have been made in vain by one whose chief pleasure and study has been, during a long residence in this city, to deserve the countenance and support of a discerning Public.
RICHARD CALVERT, Jun.
St. John, August 20, 1839.

HOLDSWORTH & DANIEL return their sincere thanks to their friends for the very kind and prompt assistance rendered at the recent Fire.

They have taken the Stone Store in Prince William street, owned by John Walker, Esq. which they hope to be enabled to occupy in a few days.
20th August.

THE subscriber begs to intimate that he will for the present conduct his Business in one of Messrs. Kinnear's Stores, viz., No. 1, Peters' wharf.
20th August. JAMES ROBERTSON.

THE undersigned hereby tenders his sincere thanks to those who were instrumental in saving a portion of his Stock during the late Fire, and especially to the Members of the Protection Fire Club, for their exertions in securing his Books and Papers, which must otherwise have been lost.
