VEGETINE

WILL CURE RHEUMATISM.

MR ALBERT CROOKER, the well-known druggist and apothecary, of Springvale, Me., always advises every one troubled with Rheumatism to try VEGETINE.

Read His Statement:

Springvale, Me., Oct. 12, 1876.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—Fifteen years ago last fall I was was taken sick with rheumatism, was unable to move until the next April. From that time until three years ago this fall I suffered everything with rheumatism. Sometimes there would be weeks at a time that I could not step one step; these attacks were quite often. I suffered everything that a man could. Over three years ago last spring I commenced taking VEGETINE and followed it up until I had taken seven bottles; have had no rheumatism since that time. I always advise every one that is troubled with rheumatism to try VEGETINE, and not suffer for years as I have done. This statement is gratuitous as far as Mr. Stevens is concerned.

Yours, etc.,
ALBERT CROOKER,
Firm of A. Crooker & Co., Druggists and Apothecaries.

VEGETINE.

Has Entirely Cured Me.

BOSTON, Oct., 1870.

MR. H. R. STEVENS.—

Dear Sir,—My daughter, after having a severe attack of Whooping Cough, was left in a feeble state of health. Being advised by a friend she tried the VEGETINE, and after using a few bottles was fully restored to health.

I have been a great sufferer from Rheumatism. I have taken several bottles of the VEGETINE for this complaint, and am happy to say it has entirely cured me. I have recommended the VEGETINE to others with the same good results. It is a great cleanser and purifier of the blood; it is pleasant to take and I can cheerfully recommend it.

JAMES MORSE, 364, Athens street.

RHEUMATISM is a DISEASE of the BLOOD.

☞ The blood in this disease, is found to contain an excess of fibrin. VEGETINE acts by converting the blood from its diseased condition to a healthy circulation. VEGETINE regulates the bowels which is very important in this complaint. One bottle of VEGETINE will give relief, but to effect a permanent cure it must be taken regularly, and may take several bottles, especially in cases of long standing. VEGETINE is sold by all druggists. Try it, and your verdict will be the same as that of thousands before you, who say, "I never found so much relief as from the use of VEGETINE," which is composed exclusively of Barks, Roots and Herbs.

"VEGETINE," says a Boston physician, "has no equal as a blood purifier. Hearing of its many wonderful cures, after all other remedies had failed, I visited the laboratory and convinced myself of its genuine merit. It is prepared from barks, roots and herbs, each of which is highly effective, and they are compounded in such a manner as to produce astonishing results."

VEGETINE

Nothing Equal to It.

SOUTH SALEM, MASS., Nov. 14, 1876

MR. H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—I have been troubled with Scrofula, Canker and Liver Complaint for three years; nothing ever did me any good until I commenced using the VEGETINE. I am now getting along first-rate, and still using the VEGETINE. I consider there is nothing equal to it for such complaints. Can heartily recommend it to everybody. Yours truly,

The Hanlan-Courtney Race.

Admirers of boat racing are again disgusted by the developements in the race that was to have taken place at Mayville, N. Y. on Thursday last between Hanlan and Courtney. On the morning of that day it was announced that Courtney's boats had been sawn in two during the night. Hanlan offered Courtney the choice of three of his boats, but Courtney's representative asked for a postponement, which was not granted, so Hanlan rowed over the course in one minute and thirteen seconds less time than the best on record and the referee decided the race to have been won by Hanlan although the "Hop Bitters" man who offered the prize, declines to pay it over. Despatches on the subject contain the following:—

After the race, a committee of newspaper representatives, who claim they were shabbily treated with respect to accommodation, called on Courtney, to enquire into his share of responsibility there for. He denied any responsibility whatever, and during a conversation in regard to personal matters, made some startling statements which resulted in a general press meeting being called, with representatives of Hanlan and Courtney present. Here Referee Blaikie presented a written statement from Courtney, substantially as follows:—

On September 12, Hanlan, Eli Ward and Dave Ward visited him at the Brackett House, Rochester, and Ward then proposed to divide the purse equally if he (Courtney) would row, intimating that Hanlan was afraid of the result. Ward did all the talking. Courtney, who was sick at the time, replied that he had suffered enough last fall when innocent, without again going through the same thing, knowing himself to be guilty, or words to that effect. Courtney says Hanlan and the Wards then left the room.

Weeks afterwards Hanlan tried to approach him, but he would not give him a chance. On Sept. 10th Ward proposed to sell the race to Hanlan and divide the purse, but he (Courtney) only listened to it to learn what Hanlan and his friends were after. Brister heard the talk.

Courtney states that Frenchy Johnson told him afterwards he was listening close outside and heard some of the conversation. "I then took my boat and went out rowing. We had been in that boathouse from 2 till 5. Ward talked many times about cutting the purse. He said Hanlan wouldn't go into the race at all unless I would let him win. They were willing to divide the purse, and give Hanlan and I $3,000 provided I'd let him win. Only last evening Dave Ward sent me word by Brister 'if Charlie wants to do any business, to have nothing to do with Quimby, because we can do better with him than Quimby.' * * * When I left home, I told my wife I was going to beat him if it lay in my power, and that I mean now to do and believe I can.

The press investigation closed last night without any whitewash resolutions, and each press man was left uncommitted to any opinion. Frenchy Johnson, Courtney's fides Achates, was too eager and flowery to be regarded as telling the truth, and Brister, his other confidante and backer, halted, hesitated, retracted and reconstructed his replies, confessing by his deeds, if not by his words, that he had been negotiating in sincerity and had been caught in the trap. The evidence of his lawyer, Marrin, was significant. It confirmed what the Toronto party said, and left the impression that Courtney was too much of a coward to stand to his charges made to Mr. Blaikie. Mr. Blaikie himself was judicial in his impartiality, but it was easy to see that his sympathy was with Hanlan.

The Hanlan party's story was straightforward and convincing. They were not altogether blameless in the means which they took to "get" Courtney. But that they did not mean to do anything more than get Courtney out is apparent by the fact of Hanlan making such tremendous time, yet being able to amuse himself as in the Hawdon race. Altogether the Hanlan party had the best of the investigation. Morris says "Johnson cut his own boat at Pittsburg regatta, and I believe he cut these too."

Courtney has been the victim of alleged malpractice in seven races, and people say that his greatest enemy is himself.

The pools will be declared off, at which there is much grumbling by Canadians.

Of the circumstances connected with the damaging of Courtney's boats, a correspondent writes as follows:—

"I have just come from Courtney's boathouse. Admittance is refused all by Johnson and Brister. I have, however, learned beyond a doubt that the boats are cut, and am convinced that it was done this morning after 9 o'clock, though Courtney's friends assert it was done last night after 8 o'clock. The mysterious thing is that both of Courtney's boats are cut and Johnson's is not. The feeling among his fellow oarsmen is terribly bitter against Courtney. It is now said Courtney knows how the boats were cut and that his own men cut them. Some gamblers from New York are said to be the cause but this is entitled to no credence. Were Courtney to show himself at Mayville, he would be thrown into the lake, The language used to him is now bitterer than it was after he came. "Sanctimonious coward" is the epithet applied to him by the only man beside Hanlan, who ever gave him a good word.

A later despatch says the Hanlan party will not again talk of rowing Courtney on any other than Championship terms on Toronto Bay, five miles, $1,000 a side the prize money.

Mr. Blaikie has handed over to Hanlan an order for the prize and Hanlan has endorsed it. Ward and Coulson have gone to Rochester to collect it, by legal process if necessary.

Church of England Synod.

A full choral service was held at the Cathedral this evening. The following is the musical programme:—

Processional hymn, "Forward go in glad accord."
Special Psalms, 121, 122 and 90.
Chant, Metropolitan anthem, "Lift up your heads."
Hymn, "Holy offerings rich and Poor."
Hallelujah chorus.
Hymn, "Abide with me.

The service throughout was intoned by Rev. Canon Medley, rector of Sussex. The first Lesson was read by the Rev. W. J. Wilkinson, and the second by the Rev. A. Hoadly. The pulpit was occupied by the Rev. Mr. Pentreath, rector of Moncton, who preached an able sermon from the Text: "And they continued steadfastly in the Apostle's doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread and in prayers."

FREDERICTON, Oct, 10.

The attendance this morning was small, most of the lay delegates and many of the clergy having left for their homes by the morning trains. After the reading of the minutes, Rev. L. G. Stevens suggested that His Lordship's offer to give his earnest consideration to any man whom a large majority of the Synod would nominate as coadjutor, be inserted in the minutes.

This, however, was not done.

Rev. Mr. Pentreath, in the absence of Rev. Canon Brigstocke, moved that the Sunday School committee of last year be reappointed for the ensuing year.

This motion was carried, Mr. T. W. Daniel being substituted for Mr. Cogswell who is not now a member of the Synod.

On motion of the Rev. F. H. Almon, seconded by Hon. Wm. Wedderburn, Rev. G. G. Roberts, Rev. L. G. Stephens, Rev. E. S. Pentreath, Rev. F. H. Almon and Messrs. Wm. Jarvis, G. W. Whitney, A. H. Demill, and G. S. Grimmer were appointed a committee to prepare regulations for the Government of a Diocesan Temperance Society.

Mr. G. A. Schofield, in accordance with notice given yesterday, moved that the constitution be amended so as to allow a Bishop coadjutor to sit in the Synod.

Rev, G. M. Armstrong thought it was too late an hour to bring up this matter.

Mr. E. B. Chandler thought it was not legal to change the constitution at a special meeting like the present.

The Chief Justice thought it was inexpedient to proceed with this matter at present. The intention of the Constitution was no doubt that a year's notice should be given of such changes. There was some doubt as to whether anything but the canon could be legally considered at this meeting.

Mr. Wm. Wilkinson thought there was not sufficient reason for delaying this matter. He did not see why it had to be brought up at an annual meeting, nor was it clear that a year's notice had to be given.

Mr. T. B. Robinson said that if it was illegal to make changes in the constitution all business done yesterday was illegal.

Judge Fisher thought that the question of a Coadjutor Bishop was the only one that could be legally discussed at this meeting.

Mr. E. B. Chandler moved the following amendment, seconded by the Rev. G. M. Armstrong:—

Resolved,—It is not expedient to take any steps tending to an alteration in the constitution at any special meeting of the Synod.

Rev. F. H. Almon, Mr. Wm. Jarvis and Judge Botsford spoke on the question, the latter advocating the withdrawal of the notices of motion.

His Lordship the Metropolitan said he would like to know what the words "such other business" meant in the notices. If it was illegal to make changes in the constitution, all the buisness done yesterday must be illegal.

After short speeches by Judge Fisher, Hurd Peters, T. B. Robinson, Rev. G. M. Armstrong, the Chief Justice, and others, Mr. Wm. Jarvis objected to the proceedings going on, as he claimed there was no quorum present.

Rev. Mr. Campbell suggested that the movers of the original resolution and the amendment withdraw them.

The question as to whether or not it was the wish of the Synod that the resolution and amendment should be withdrawn was then taken and decided in the affirmative. All notices of motion were then withdrawn.

The question of a quorum of laymen not being present was again brought up and it was found that only twenty-one were present and that twenty-nine were necessary to form a quorum.

Chief Justice Allen suggested that the sermons preached annually at the meeting of the Synod should be published.

The Rev. L. G. Stevens wished to express his joy at the fact that the proceedings had been so harmonious. He was pleased that though in a small majority, no motives were attributed to any clergyman by his brother clergy and laymen. He moved the following resolution, seconded by the Rev. Mr. Edwards:—

Resolved, That this Synod, before which matters of so grave and delicate a nature have been laid, express their sense of our high appreciation of the dignity, the candor, the patience and impartality which have characterized His Lordship's bearing and utterance in presiding; our renewed love and respect for His Lordship; our wish and prayer that he may long be spared to us; and our earnest thanks to Almighty God that the deliberations of this Synod have been so eminently free from the spirit of bitterness and party strife, happily issuing in that harmony which comes from acting in the unity of the spirit and the bond of peace.

This was carried unanimously by a standing vote amid great applause.

The Bishop replied in touching terms. He congratulated the Synod on the harmony which prevailed, and the manly forbearance which existed throughout the proceedings. No Bishop had a Synod of which he could feel more proud. The canon had been met in a proper spirit, and they had said nothing offensive in free discussion concerning it. He prayed that God would bless their future proceedings and that they might be free from that bitterness which would show itself in human assemblies. He trusted that the Synod would, in the future, have no cause to repent of their action on the present occasion regarding the appointment of a Coadjutor Bishop.

The doxology was then sung and the meeting was then closed by the Bishop pronouncing the Benediction.
